Human Dogs in Paris.

A new profession, known as that of the "two-legged dogs," has been introduced by the laris authorities.

A tax o $2 a year is imposed on every dog, and the owners are supposed to declare them themselves. Many of the owners evade the tax by giving $1 a year to their concierge. When the fiscal authorities make inquiries the concierge den es the existence of the dogs and the Revenue is defrauded. Revenue is defrauded.

The authorities are now paying $30 a month to a number of men who can bark.

The men walk along the streets at night, bark outside every house, and when a dog replies take note of the addres; and send round the tax collector.

It is a hardworking profession, but for those artists who have failed to get an engagement at the opera and are fond of exercise it means bread and butter.

If there is any one thing that a woman dreads more than another it s a surgical operation. We can state without fear of a contradiction that there are hundreds, yes, thousands, of operations performed upon women in our hospitals which are entirely unnecessary and many have been avoided by

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

For proof of this statement read the following letters. Mrs. Barbara Base, of Kingman, Kansas, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"For eight years I suffered from the most severe form of female troubles and was told that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham for advice, and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has saved my life and made me a well woman." Mrs. Arthur R. House, of Church Road, Moorestown, N. J., writes:

"I feel it is my duty to let people know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered from female troubles, and last March my physician decided that an operation was necessary. My husband objected, and urged me to try Lydia

E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and to-day I am well and strong." FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, and backache. Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass,
