DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little liver pills Sold at Trout's drug store.

W. L. Sprowl, of Wells Tannery called at the News office a few minutes while in town Monday.

HIDES WANTED.—Highest market price paid for beef hides, horse hides, wildcat skins, and all kinds of grease, at Paul Wagner's Tannery, McConnellsburg.

BARK WANTED.—Saitillo Tannery will pay $7.75 per ton for oak bark—1908 peeling. Write C. Greene & Son, Saitillo, Pa., for particulars.

Jesse B. Heefner, of Gracey, was among the number that had occasion to visit the County Sea Monday.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Sons pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Harvey O. Unger has purchased Thomas Hamill's grocery in the East end of town and will take possession next Monday morning.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup—the cough syrup that tastes nearly as good as maple sugar, and which children like so well to take. Unlike nearly all other cough remedies, it does not constipate, but on the other hand it acts promptly yet gently on the bowels, through which the cold is forced out of the system, and at the same time it allays inflammation. Always use Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Miss Mary Reeder returned to Chambersburg Monday after having spent a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Reeder in Taylor township.

As John Shaffer's family were about to sit down to dinner last Saturday the kitchen stove pipe took fire, and the way it roared and burned for awhile, made the family feel that the chances were good to lose the house. By careful management the fire was controlled, and a sigh of relief was taken when the trouble was all over.

To have perfect health we must have perfect digestion, and it is very important not to permit of any delay the moment the stomach feels out of order. Take something at once that you know will promptly and unfailingly assist digestion. There is nothing better than Kodol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. Kodol is a natural digestant, and will digest what you eat. Sold at Trout's drug store.

Dr. J. M. Kuhn, of Mercersburg, had a part of the thumb on his left hand bitten off by a horse on Sunday afternoon. He had been called to the Black farm near that town, to administer to a horse that was sick, and when he was giving the animal medicine, it became enraged and snapped his thumb.

Fruit Salad.
 Three oranges, one half pound of hazelnuts, one half bunch of stalk celery, mayonnaise dressing. Cover the bottom of the salad dish with nice white lettuce leaves, a layer of sliced oranges, diced celery and whole hazelnuts; continue until the dish is full. Cover the top of the salad with mayonnaise and a few of the white leaves of the celery. This quantity is enough for six persons.—The Designer for May.

For Washing Greens.
 Many of you know just how provoking it is to gather or buy a mess of greens and find insects all over them, says a writer in The Designer for May Being so hard to clean. I've often given up in despair, and threw them away, but at last have discovered that to put a handful of salt in the water and wash in usual way the insects would all come off.—The Designer for May.

AFFORDS PERFECT SECURITY.
 Foley's Honey and Tar affords perfect security from pneumonia and consumption as it cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. We have never known a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia after Foley's Honey and Tar had been taken. Trout's drug store.

Two Old Coaches.
 A Wild West showman recently purchased at Newport, Perry county, two stage coaches of the 1840 design still bearing the marks of their early travels and of their duty before the time of the railroads. The coaches belonged to the old Rice lines, and have been pulled over miles of Perry county roads. They have been stored away for years at Landisburg, the home of the Rice stage coach. It is generally conjectured they are to be used in some realistic part of the production, or represented as wagons having crossed the plains. The coaches attracted much attention in Newport while being taken to their destination.

A COMMON MISTAKE.
 Many women mistake kidney and bladder troubles for some irregularity peculiar to the sex. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and makes women well! Miss Carrie Harden, Bowling Green, Ky., writes: I suffered much pain from kidney and bladder trouble until I started to use Foley's Kidney Remedy. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely well. Trout's drug store.

News Getting Better.
 M. M. Brakeall, a native of Thompson township, but now a prominent contractor and builder in McKeesport, Pa., in paying his paper ahead, says he wouldn't keep house without the "News," and greatly enjoys the letters appearing from time to time from Fulton county folks who have gone out into the world. He says he was glad through the news to learn of Beckie Hunter, who was one of his teachers at Center school house, thirty-one years ago.

In a letter from Mrs. E. R. P. Goudy, of Waverly, Kansas, better known to our people as Emma Pott, who, of course, belongs to the big family of "News" readers—Mrs. Goudy says that her husband has recently sold his farm near Waverly, and purchased a farm farther west—near Leoti, Kansas. They are living temporarily in the town of Waverly. Their new farm is fine wheat and alfalfa land. They have 65 acres of wheat and ground broken for alfalfa and Kaffir corn and the prospects bright for a good season.
