Last Saturday Albert Nesbit and Warrie Johnston spliced teams and took about twenty-five members of the Rockhill Sunday school over to Buchanan's Monument where a very enjoyable time was had. The outfit consisted of a four-horse team, a farm wagon with hay ladders, and plenty of hay; and those who have had the pleasure of a strawride, or hay ride, as in this instance, know just how much fun would be gotten out of a trip of this kind over the mountain with a congenial party like that. The Rock Hill Sunday school, of which Geo. A. Comer is superintendent and A. W. Johnston, assistant, with Albert Nesbit as treasurer, consists of about seventy-five members, and is doing excellent work this summer. The school is planning to have a picnic on the 22nd of August.

Make Use of Your Leisure Time.

If you have an hour to spend each day don't let it pass, for time is valuable. It will pay you to write to the Circulation Department of "The Philadelphia Press," mentioning this paper, and they will send you an interesting book of advice, telling how to make use of your spare moments and how to make a considerable sum of money for a little work you can do very easily. A postal card will bring this information to you. Don't put it off, write at once, for it will mean dollars to you. Address Circulation Department, "The Press," Seventh and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia.

His Old College Chums.

A conductor sent a new brakeman to put some tramps off the train. They were riding in a box car. The brakeman dropped in to the car and said, "Where are you fellows going?" "To Atchison." "Well you can't go to Atchison on this train, so get off."

"You get," came the reply, and as the brakeman was looking into the business end of a gun he took the advice given him and "got." He went back to the caboose, and the conductor asked him if he had put the fellows off. "No," he answered, "I did not have the heart to put them off. They want to go to Atchison, and, besides, they are old schoolmates of mine." The conductor used some very strong language and then said he would put them off himself. He went over to the car and met with the same experience as the brakeman. When he got back to the caboose, the brakeman said, "Well, did you put them off?" "Naw, they're schoolmates of mine too."—Wellington (Kan.) News.

A REVELATION.

It is a revelation to people, the severe cases of lung trouble that have been cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet." Trout's drug store.

Pennsylvania Winchester Monument.

Editor National Tribune: The commission appointed to procure a State monument to be erected in the National Cemetery at Winchester, Va., in honor of the Pennsylvania soldiers who fell in and around Winchester and who are buried there have given notice that the monument will be dedicated on Sept. 19, the date of one of the battles fought there, and the Commissioners wish all Pennsylvania soldiers who participated in any of the battles of who have comrades buried there to try and get there at that time and take part in the services. There are between 300 and 400 Pennsylvania soldiers buried in that cemetery, and altogether there are 4,389 Union dead buried there. Many Pennsylvania regiments took part in the battle fought in and around Winchester. The commission think that they can procure a low rate on the railroads, and desire notice of the dedication to reach all possible, and I know of no better way to reach them than thru the soldiers' paper.—Malden Valentine, Co. G, 12th Pa. Cav., Altoona, Pa.

Look On The Bright Side.

There is so much kindness in life, that if we remember and dwell upon it, it will help us to grow sweeter and more lovable as the years go on, and it is such a pity to fall into the fault finding complaining habit.

By allowing oneself to give voice to complainings, to remember nothing but the unpleasant things of life, is to become embittered and hardened and unsympathetic and, in the end, friendless.

The complaining habit is so easy to acquire and so hard to be rid of.

There are speeches and bad turns, of course, that are very, very difficult to forget. They have made deep, dark scars; the remembrance of them can never entirely pass away, but the very wisest thing one can do is not to think about them.

On the other hand, there are many quite trivial things that were never really meant to hurt us, and would not have done so but that we happened at the moment to be in an oversensitive mood. It is the treasuring up of all these little things, taking them out every now and then to gloat over them, that stifles kindly feelings.

If we want to be even moderately happy in this life try to remember, as far as possible, only the kindness of life, the thoughtfulness of friends.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN YEAR.

More Alert, More Thorough and More Fearless Than Ever.

Read in Every English-Speaking Country.

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man whom he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World will tell you every step and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-a-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.
