RECORD OF DEATHS.

Persons Well Known to Many of Our Readers, Who Have Answered Final Summons.

ALL SEASONS ARE THINE, O DEATH.

MRS. IDA ALICE MINICK.

Ida Alice, wife of H. H. Minick, died at her home in Everett, on Friday, July 31st, aged 46 years. Deceased was a daughter of Caleb and Mesura Brown. She is survived by her husband and the following children: Robert, Harry, Marion, Samuel, and Mrs. Eugene Myers, of Riddlesburg, and Lucy and Lena, at home. Two brothers and three sisters also survive, namely, Nathan and Mari Brown, Mrs. Samuel Harklerode of Saxton; Mrs. Harry Soupp, of present were: Pittsburg, and Mrs. Sarah Wier man, of Everett.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m. from her late residence, conducted by Rev. Charles Rinehart, Interment was made in the Everett ceme-

MRS. CLARENCE BARTON.

her home in Everett, on Filday, Thos. F. Sloan, Esq., and Hollis home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Run- Number three changes the July 31st, from inflammation of M. Wible, of McConnellsburg; yan. The supper was served in time given the Governor for makthe bowels, aged 20 years, 2 Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, of courses. The first course was ing appointments for elective of months and 13 days. She was a Green Hill. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preswas united in marriage with ford sent letter of regret. Clarence Barton, who survives.

the Tecumseh M. E. church, last G. Staily, and a few days at Green held in place with a Roman safety and two respectively as at pres-Sunday at Sa. m. conducted by Hill, expects to leave the moun- pin. The most noticeable cosent. Rev. Dr. John R. Van Pelt. The tains about the 20th inst, and tumes among the gentlemen ville, where services were held in ter in the South. He takes great army tent held in place with a from five to six years. the Methodist church, conducted est pleasure and delight in meet- tar rope, and a pair of high cut by Rev. C. F. Weise, of Ray's ing all those who have entertain- gum boots. Every one enjoyed of Aldermen in cities from five to Hill. Interment was made in the ed him-and keeps in close inter- the evening immensely and the six years.

MRS SARAH M. SOWERS.

of the late David Sowers, of Ayr all those who have served him. township, died on Friday evening | We add a few thoughts written of last week. She was in the by Mr. Ellmaser on the moun-65th year of her life, and at the tain:home with her daughter, Mrs. A. Ambitions, hopes and tears; McLucas, in Ayr township. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. L. Grove on Sabbath afternoon, with burial in Union Here high up -nearer the stars, Cemetery, Ten children survive Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Susan Gla zier; William, in Illinois; John, in Mercersburg; Jacob, in Minnesota; Powel, in Iowa; Mrs. Swish er, in Foltz, Pa; Mrs. A. McLuc as, Hans, Allen. and Elmer, of Ayr township.

MRS. WM FEAGLEY.

Mrs. William Feagley died at her heme near Big Cove Tannery last Sunday morning aged about 37 years. Mrs. Feagley was a daughter of Jacob Gordon of Ayr township. Her funeral was held from her lat? home on Monday and interment was made at Zion M. E. church on Timber Ridge.

Burnt Cabins and Fannettsburg.

The Burnt Cabins boys crossed bats with the Fannettsburg team on the former's ground last Saturday. The game was a quiet and peaceable one, with the exception of a disputed decision of the umpire. The game was well ground is getting dry. played by both sides, with the exception of a couple of innings. At the close of the game the score stood 9 to 10 in favor of Burnt Cabins, with the half of the last maing due Burnt Cabins. The boys were then invited to the Mausion House where a good sup per had been prepared by Land-1 ord Brodbeck. The line up was as follows :

Burnt Cablus. Fannettsburg. Matthias, Blaine 3b.
Wise If.
Welch 1b.
Matthias, R. 8s.
Horton et.
Mc leehe 2b.

Score-Burnt Cabins, 10; Fan-

A Delightful Time at Ellmaker Camp.

The beautiful ideal weather of Saturday last, the 8th. inst laden This State Now Constructing More miles with the cool, pure, and invigorating breezes, amidst the stately pines of the mountain top, of old Ellmaker, of Lancaster, Pa.

The ladies (former hostesses) or in course of construction. had prepared many new attrac

The number seven anciently pleted. denoted perfection, so a perfect-

The guest of honor-Mr. Ellmaker, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gilmore Staily and Mrs. W. Scott Ritch-Mrs. Clarence Barton died at Mrs. J. R. Jackson, of Akersville; ties which was in the hospitable thereof.

Miss Lottie Mclivaine, of Riv- was watermelon with variations. preceding the election. ton Dishong, and was born on erside sent regrets. Mr. and The third course was watermel-May 18, 1888. Last October she Mrs. Thos. H. Weaverling, of Bed on cut decollette. Some of the term of office of the Secretary of

Funeral services were held at yet as guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. and a Queen Elizabeth bed quilt, years each instead of four, three graveyard adjoining the church. coarse with all of them, by cor- gentlemen were escorted home respondence, and rememorance. at the close of the last act. His devoted, lasting friendship is Mrs. Sarah M. Sowers, widow fully and freely reciprocated by time of her death was making her "I've laid aside earths' broken toys, I find my joys in simple things, God left out-doors for me. The music of the mountain streams, The quiet of the mountain's solitude. The world seemeth far away: -I dream not of it by night, Nor think of it by day. Be it age, -life nearly spent A mighty power within, telleth me, I've found sweet, joyous content.

MUDDY HOLLOW.

n our valley.

a new clover hutler.

A party of boys along Licking which was nine feet six inches. Creek the other day, removed a to know the law for destroying property.

Infant child of Henry Sipes was recently buried at Siloam. the Cove the other Sunday.

but are wishing for rain, as the

Mrs. Sadie Truax is visiting friends in this vicinity.

James Hoop, of this place, was visiting his friends, Mr. Elmer Mellott of Pleasant Ridge, Sunday.

turned home late Saturday night N. E. M. Hoover. in good condition after their first game with Needmore.

Her Third Set of Teeth.

Mrs. Grace Garland, of Needeeth. One large front tooth in the upper jaw has just come through. Does this portend long LEAD IN GOOD ROADS.

Than Any Other.

held in bonor of Mr. J. Watson addition, there are to-day 325 line will help to an understandmiles of roadway under contract, ing of its provisious:

his rustic fire-place, and had pro and that Governor Stuart's pro- will have to vote upon it. vided an abundance of delicious posed highway between Philadel

Massachusetts

Watermelon Luncheon.

watermelon. The second course fices from three to two months

WEST BUBLIN,

vid Kirk spent Sunday with relatives in Hustontown.

ttended the Walnut Grove Camp meeting on Sunday. As a consequence, there was no Sunday School at Farryiew on that day.

There will be a picnic near Fairview M. E. church on Satur- and ward officers at the general day, Aug. 22. In the evening, election in November of each odd there will be a festival. Proceeds numbered year. tor church purposes. Come an i enjoy yourselves.

Deshong entered his chicken coop, he saw a blacksnake parti-B. F. Desnong our enterprising ally coiled near a hen's nest. business man is busy threshing Taking his cane, he struck the

The game of base ball between row boat, and as the owner is the Laidig and Gracey teams at likely to soon miss it, the best, Gracey on Saturday afternoon thing they can do is to return it resulted in a victory for the Laias good as when taken, as they dig team. After this game, Dane are well known and are supposed beat Laidig. Then later in the evening at Hustontown, Dane was beaten by Hustontown.

Miss Myrtle Tenley and sister with their father James L. Ten- each office. Harry Deshong and engineer ley, Esq., of Defiance, and Wil-J. C. Reed enjoyed themselves in ham Tenley, of Six Mile Run, passed through this place on last The farmers are busy plowing, Friday, the ladies being on their way to visit friends in Franklin county. Last Thursday evening there was an ice-cream social at Ross King's. Those present, besides Ross and his wife, were Mrs. Rose Shaw and daughter Freds. W. J. Shaw, Mrs. A. F. King and Alley Deshong and Jas. Hoop, sons Lloyd and Earl, and daughof this place, belonging to the ter Verda; Mrs. Eliza Hoover, Pleasant Ridge baseball team, re Daisy Hoover, Grant Hoover, and > Fairview M. E. church is receiv ing a new coat of paint. M. L 9:00; preaching, 10: a, m. Kirk is doing the work.

On account of the death of his father, J. M. Cutshall, of Dublin nore, is cutting her third set of Mills, our huckster, Allen Cuting his trip this way, this week. m.

Subscribe for the NEWS.

The Constitutional Amendments.

The proposed amendments to the State Constitution which is A. C. Lauver Has Sold His Valuable Mill to be endorsed or rejected at the Up to August 1 the State High- polls in November, and which is way Department had constructed appearing in the News, is not

According to Commissioner in the Courts of Pinladelp'nia and ship, for, as we have been inform- and Fox took his position in the tions and good things. Mr. E !- Hunter, there is strong probabili- Allegheny and does not affect any ed. the sum of six thousand dol box for a nine inning deal. The maker not unmindful of what ty that the sixty seven county section but those cities, yet in or- lars. Possession was given last game, with the exception of the might happen, had nicely decor- towns will be connected by mod- der to change the Constitution Monday morning, and the new outsiders cheering, was, in all ated the camp, and set in order ern highways within a few years, the people of the entire State firm will be known as W. M. Mel. probability, the quietest game

Number two provides for the On Monday evening of this upon the assessed value of prop- er, and is a desirable property. ey, of Rays Hill; Mr. and Mrs. week, several young ladies of erty without the assent thereto Benj Hanks, of Riverside; Mrs town formed a conspiracy to have of the electors thereof at a pub-J. E. Sproat, and daughter Mar- a watermelon luncheou A La Leap lic election. The new amendment garet, Everett; Mr. and Mrs. D. year. At 8 o'clock the ladies places the limit at ten per cent. C. Barkman and sons, Royle and called at the homes of their re- and leaves the incurring new Number four provides for the guests were in evening dress, and Internal Affairs, Auditor Gener-Mr. Ellmaker after a brief stay one of the ladies wore a plug hat al and State Treasurer, to be four

Number five changes the term body was then taken to Akers | contemplates spending next win | guests consisted of a cross-grain | of office for Justices of the Peace

Number six changes the term

Number seven changes the gen eral election from annually to bi ennially and to be held on even numbered years. Should this Wm. Heefner and wife and Da. amendment pass and number four not the next legislature, which will have to act finally on Quite a number of our people all these amendments, and would be obliged to defeat both.

Number eight abolishes the February election entirely and provides for the election of all county, city, borough, township

Number nine provides for the election of judge and inspectors One day recently as Nathan of election boards every two years instead of annually.

Number ten provides for the election of all officers whose selection is not already provided snake a few heavy blows when it for in the Constitution, State of-Ciarence Mellott has purchased fell to the floor. He quickly ficers on a general election day killed it and measured its length and municipal officers at a municipal election.

> Number eleven changes the term of all county officers from three to four years.

Number twelve specially provides for the term of County Commissioners and County Auditors to be increased from three to four years, no voter to vote for more than two candidates for

Number thirteen provides that the terms of those in office when the above amendments go into effect shall run an additional year but does not apply to any one elected in 1908 nor to any whose terms of office end in 1910, but anyone in office when the amendments are finally adopted whose teras ends in 1911 shall serve until the first Monday of December, 1912.

McConnnellsburg M. E. Charge. Services for Sunday, August

6th, as follows : Fort Littleton- Sunday school, Knobsville-Sunday school, 1:-

30; preaching, 2:30 p. m. McConnellabury - Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; Epworth The grove is a beautiful one, and new warehouse for Albert Stoner friends in Greencastle, Charles-

Everybody invited. C. W. BRYNER, pastor. LAUVER MILL SOLD.

Property to William M. Mellott. Possession Monday Last.

Ex-County Treasurer, Adam Sideling Hill, ushered in the sev- 346 miles of improved roads since easy reading for most people, C. Lauver has sold his mill prop. last week for a game, and they enth annual reunion and picuic it began operations in 1904. In hence the following simple out erty a mile south of Webster responded promptly, saying "We Mills, together with the farm be | will come." longing to the mill property, to Number one applies to a change William M. Mellott, of Ayr town of Knobsville called the game, lott & Son.

phia and Pittsburg will be com- increase of indebtedness in any known as the woollen mill, owned Foxcertainly did heave the strikes county, city, borough or town- and operated by Benjamin Fish- into those Littleton boys, for Pennsylvania is now building ship from seven per cent to ten er, but when Mr. Lauuer bought when the game was over, he had where they have secured employly ideal, enjoyable feast and de-more miles of state roads annu- per cent. Under the present it several years ago, he enlarged 14 strike-outs to his credit. The ment. hightful time was enjoyed. Those ally than either New York or section seven per cent. is the the building and put in a full set game was a quiet one under the limit and no municipality can in- of machinery for manufacturing careful control of two well select crease the indebtedness to an flour by the latest roller process. ed umpires. After the game, the C. Steiger at Mercersburg on amount exceeding two per cent. The mill has splendid water pow- visiting team went down to Mr.

A Pleasant Reunion.

Although last Friday dawned dull and cloudy and a shower did Carl, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry spective affinities and escorted debt not to exceed two per cent. did not prevent the assembling Fietcher, of Clearville; Mr. and them to the scene of the festivi without authority by the electors of the Kendall—Johnston clan in a family reunion. The place of meeting was Morrow Kendall's orchard: the occasion the return to us of his sisters for a brief visit to their old home. Emma, now Mrs. Henderson of Richmond, Kansas, made the long journey homeward with four of her little ones. Her welcome ville, 3. Umpires, Elmer Glunt, McConnellsburg Tuesday. home was gladdened by the George Fraker. presence of Mary, Mrs. Pollock, of Washington, Pa. The reunion, therefore, was in honor of these, our girls.

About seventy-seven , were present, the ages ranging from the four score of the Psalmist to the babe in arms. Happy greetings were exchanged, old times rang out around the swings, the quoits, or the dextrous apple under the willows by the spring, where old and young, large and small, did full justice to the good things set forth. Soon advancing evening reminded all of home duties and we separated, lives euriched by the memory of this, another home-gathering of the children.

NELDMORE.

We had a nice little rain last Saturday night which was very much needed,

The people of Needmore will begin threshing this week. Everybody seems pleased with the teacher for the Needmore school this winter. Miss Ethel Dixon, of Chambersburg, is visiting relatives here. Mis. Cairr and daughter of N.

J. are visiting friends here. A number of our people attended services at the Sideling Hill Baptist church last Sunday.

Rev. A. G. B. Powers is conducting a series of meetings at Lourel Ridge.

Little Catharine, daughter of Robert Dixon, is very sick at Ira Bernhardt and Miss Ettie Evans attended preaching services here last Sunday evening.

Mr. N. H. Peck returned from Pittsburg last Thursday evening. Earl Beatty left Wednesday for cey team. Greencastle where he expects to secure employment.

Earl Shives left last week for Pittsburg, but word has since been received that he is in Chi-the Big Cove.

school celebration in Joe Edshall, was prevented from mak- League, 6:80; preaching, 7:30 p. it will be cleaned up and put in just back of his store. Billy town, Hagerstown, and other for the pleasure it afforded.

Base Ball.

Fort Littleton and Knobsville met on the Lattleton Ball ground for another game last Saturday. The Littleton boys challenged the Knobsville team the first of

About 2 o'clock Elmer Glunt, played for some time. Every This property, years ago, was player did his duty well, and Mr. lives and friends in this county. Wilson's and partook of a sump tous supper which had been ordered up by the Littleton team. The visiting boys went home, as we all like to see beys go, feeling fall after dinner, the weather happy, and in as high a glee as if they had won the game. This

| KnobsvilleScheidleman                                     |
|---|
| Scheidlemay   |
| Kelso, B.GunnelsDivensKelso, S.ForeKerlin |
| FoxCamp bell  |
|   |

Score-Ft. Littleton, 13; Knobs

LAIDIG

Quite a number of our folks at- ter at their home last Sunday. tended campmeeting at Walnut Grove last Sunday.

George Laidig, wife and daugh Jas. Foreman last Sunday.

P. C. Mellott and Miss Zelda recalled, and many a merry laugh | Laidig were among those who attended Camp last Sunday.

Bert Wagner, W. C. Erb, and catchers. Supper was served John Hockensmith, made a business trip to McConnellsburg last Friday. Miss Lucy Peightel visited in the home of J. W. Laidig, on Sun- the guest of Miss Amanda Ben-

James Mumma is still on the on East Water street.

the baseball sport in this town- George Everhart, attended the ship this season. The Laidig funeral of her niece, Mrs. J. C. team will play Wells Tannery on Foster at Enid last week. the latter's grounds next Satur-

Laidig played two games at with the Dane boys-seven innings, in which Dane won 11-3. The second game was between Gracey and Laidig, nine innings, with a score of 9-14 in tayor of Laidig. S. S. Strait was the hero of the Gracey team. He played a side out without any assistance as fast as the Laidig boys went to bat. Dallas Brant, of Laidig team, made a two-base hit that scored two runs and put a man on third base.

Laidig. Wagner Foreman, P. Cutshall, C. Strait, S. Cutshall, E. 2b. Gracey, J. Gracey, R. Strait, D. Brant, E. Brant, C. Clevenger, H. Hockensmith, O. Cutshall, J.

W. C. Erb, manager of Laidig team; J. Gracey, manager of Gra-

Laidig team will play Dane team at Dane, on August 12ad.

New Buildings.

Michael Black has torn down the old Methodist parsonage on Frank Mellott and Ellis Peck of Walnut street and is busy getting this place, are drilling wells, in ready to erect a nice new house on the site of the old parsonage. The Miss Knauffs are going to The Fairview Sunday school build a fine house in the Extenis making big preparations for sion just across the borough line a grand old-fashioned Sunday from John Comerer's, and Jacob dren, Raymond and Nora Pavlor, W. Mellott expects to build two wards' grove along the State new houses yet this fall. Car-Road, on Saturday, August 22nd. penters are busy at work on a such shape as to make the occas- Clevenger is building a large adplaces. They also attended the ion one long to be remembered dition to his factory at the west Campinesting at Brown's Mill,

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Snapshots at Their Comings and Goings Here for a Vacation, or Away for a Restful Outing.

NAMES OF VISITORS AND VISITED.

Miss Lula Karns, of Everett, is visiting among friends in McConnellsburg.

Mr. W. B. Ranck, of Warfordsburg, was in town attending to business last Saturday.

Mrs. H. W. Scott, of Chambers. burg, is visiting among her rela-Roy C. Ott and brother Paul left this place for Morrisons Cove

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Reisner attended the funeral of Mr. Geo.

Miss Bessie Gehrett and Bertha Clevenger, of this place are visiting friends in Chambers-visiting in the home of his mother in this place has returned to Chambersburg. H. M. Strait, of Hagerstown,

Inomas Gehrett who had been who had been spending a few days on this side of the mountain returned to that city Monday. Lumbermen Geo. C. Fraker and Walter M. Comerer of Burnt Cabins, were business visitors in

Mr. and Mrs. George Finniff, Jr., of Tod township are happy over the arrival of a little daugh-

Mrs. D. E. Little and Mrs. P. P. Shives, accompanied by Mrs. Merritt of Philadelphia were ter Pearle, visited in the home of down at Big Cove Tannery Mon-

> Miss Eleanor Logan, of Narberth, Pa., and Miss Elizabeth Anderson of Philadelphia, are staying at the Washington House a few weeks.

> Mrs. Shade, wife of Dr. N. B. Shade, of Washington, D. C., is der and her mother at their home

Mrs. Elizabeth Mock, accom-There is quite an interest in panied by her daughter Mrs.

Merrill W. Nace and family and Miss Jess Dickson took an automobile trip to Chambersburg Gracey last Saturday-the first Tuesday with Harry M. Johnston at the wheel.

Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Stevens are spending ten days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Henry at Clear Ridge and attending the campmeeting at Walnut Grove. Mr. William Miller, of Dublin

Mr. Miller brought his daughterın law, Mrs. J. H. Miller, to town for a week's visit among her many friends. Ed Bender who is engaged in the merchant tailoring business in Lexington, N. C., is spending his summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bender in this place. Miss Maude Rinedollar, who spent several weeks with her brother, W. Scott Rinedollar, on Hopewell street, has returned to her home at Webster Mills, Fulton county.- Everett Republican. Mrs. John H. Miller and her baby boy and step-daughter, little Miss Helen, of Chicago, are spending this week with the Misses Hoke West Water street. Mrs. Miller may be better remembered by her old school-

Mills, was in towo last Saturday.

Mrs. Rosa Ott and two chiland Russel Carbaugh, returned home Monday evening after having spent several days visiting Campmeeting at Brown's Mill, Franklin county, mates as Card Hoover.