BRUSH CREEK. The people of our valley are busy preparing for camp meet Mr. and Mrs. Penrose Seaman returned home last week. They were called home to attend the tuneral of the latter's sister in law, Mrs. Clarence Barton. Sebert Barton sp-ut Souday with O. A. Barton and family. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hixson spent Sunday with friends at Emmaville.

Miss Gertrude Barton, of Ev erett, is spending her summer vacation at the home of her pa rents, Mr and Mrs M E Barton. Miss Lily Whitfield returned home last week after spending several weeks with friends at Everett.

H. N. Barton and wife, spent last Sunday afternoon with M. E Barton and family.

Mrs. John N. Hixson spent last Thursday with Mrs P D Hixson.

G. W. Hixson and wife spent last Saturday and Sunday with friends in Buck Valley.

The many friends of Mrs Clar ence Barton were very much grieved when word was received here that she had died July 30th at her home in Everett. Mrs Barton was ill only four days. She was aged 20 years, 2 monthand 13 days. On October 9th. 1907, she was married to Clarence O. Barton. Her maiden name being Carrie E DeShong. Death is sad, but it seems doubly sad when it comes into the home and takes the life of one who has only been permitted to enjoy less than one year of wedded life. She leaves to survive her loss a foud and devoted husband, her parents, three brothers and one sister and a host of relatives and friends She was a faithful member of the Tecumseh M. E Church, of Everett. Funeral services were heid there Sunday, Aug. 2nd, and her remains brought to Akers ville M. E church, and after orief services, they were laid to rest in the grave yard adjoining the church. Her many friends deeply sympathize with the young busband, parents, brothers and sisters in their sad bereavement.

Family Secrets.

A father complains that his little six year old girl is too talkative. He says. "The worst of it is when we have visitors she is continually making mistakes of the worst sort, mistakes that tend to rattle the dry bones of the fam ily skeleton in the cupboard. Recently she allowed her tongue to run away with her, as usual, the result of which was that she very much embarrassed both her fa ther and mother, although the guests seemed delighted.

1 had a very serious talk with her and impressed upon her, or tried to, that she must not tell any family secret. The next time we had company she was permitted to come to the table only by promising that she wouldn't utter a word.

She behaved beautifully and had nothing to say until the dessert was about to be taken away. Then her lips began to quiver, and finally she burst into tears. "Why, what's the matter, dari-ing?" her mother asked.

"1-I want some more ice cream, if that isn't a family secrot," she said tetween sobs. - London Telegraph.
