CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS.

Rosa Jackson of this place has a crop of over 250 pigeons.

A fine big boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Scott, of Tod township, on last Thursday morning.

L. W. Seylar and wife moved to the Mrs. Eru property on First street, on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. J. W. Mellott and three children of the Extension are spending some time with friends in Harrisburg.

Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more. Trout's drug store.

W. D. Boyd, Esq., cashier of the Farmers Bank, and sister and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. West, of Waynesboro, were guests at the Fulton House, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. George Fox, who lives near Williamson, Franklin county spent Tuesday among friends in this vicinity, and was accompanied home by his sister, Mrs. Harvey Cooper, who has been in poor health for awhile.

Mr. John Bishop, of Thompson township, spent a few hours in town last Saturday. His mother, Mrs. Susan Bishop, accompanied him to town and will remain some time with her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Kelley.

Rev. Edward Fawl, of Carlisle, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Runyan from Saturday evening until Monday. Sunday morning and evening Mr. Fawl preached in the Presbyterian church much to the pleasure and edification of those who heard him.

Jake Murdock, of Johnstown, well known among automobile people here, was one of a party of five to leave Pittsburg Tuesday morning at 8:15 and make the run to Philadelphia in a Packard touring car, reaching the latter city at 9:10 Tuesday evening—a distance of 323 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Coulter, of Winchester, Kas., are visiting in the home of the latter's brother, Mr. Thomas McClure of Licking Creek township. Mr. Coulter is a native of Kansas. This is his first visit to Pennsylvania, and he is greatly pleased with the beauty of the scenery.

Maurice Trout, who had been spending a few days with his mother and sisters in this place, returned to Philadelphia last Sunday. He was accompanied to Chambersburg by his brother-in-law, Ernest R. McClain in the latter's Buick roadster, and also by Walter R. Sloan, who went along for the ride over the mountain.

The Crystal Springs Camp meeting will begin tomorrow and continue until the 24th inst. An attractive program has been arranged, and the best meeting in years is expected. The grounds have been put in excellent condition, new buildings have been erected, and old ones have been repaired. There will be daily mail conveyances to and from all trains, telephone connections, and other conveniences.

Wayne Taylor, little son of Frank M. Taylor of this place made a narrow escape from being killed on Monday. Wayne like many other boys in town is in the habit of catching on to wagons passing through town and on Monday he caught on to a four horse wagon and losing his hold fell one of the wheels passed over his head and neck badly bruising him. Fortunately the wagon was empty, had it been heavily loaded he certainly would have been killed.

The Best Pills Ever Sold.
"After doctoring 15 years for chronic indigestion, and spending over two hundred dollars, nothing has done me as much good as Dr. King's New Life Pills. I consider them the best pills ever sold," writes B. F. Ayscove, of Logleside, N. C. Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store. 25c.

HARRY MOSSER KILLED.

Met Death on Cumberland Valley Railroad at Hillsburg Junction Wednesday. Was Brakeman.

Harry S. Mosser, a brakeman on the C. V. railroad, and youngest brother of our townsman, Dr. J. W. Mosser, was killed at Hillsburg Junction, near Mechanicsburg, yesterday.

The deceased was a veteran of the Spanish American War, and served in the Philippines in the same regiment with Ralph Patterson. During his boyhood days, he was a member of the family of the late John Hege and resided in the Corner in Ayr township. For some time he has been a resident of Chambersburg. He is survived by a widow and one child. His age was 27 years, 7 months, and 2 days.

A Grand Family Medicine.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mr. Frank Conlan, of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications; white for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood, and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store. 50c.

Died in Barn.

Mrs. Nancy, widow of James Hassler, aged 74 and a highly respected citizen of Fort Loudon, died very suddenly Sunday evening in her barn from heart failure. It may also be that she fell in an attack of vertigo from the hay mow to the floor below, as she was dead when found nobody will ever know just how she died. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Foreman, Edenville, and two sons, one in New York and the other in California.

CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLD.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Trout's drug store.

Candles for Tired Eyes.

When the excessive light of the gas jet or the electric bulb tires weak eyes, resort to the good, old tallow candle.

In sick rooms, where a candle would do the best service during the night, it is entirely forgotten, and the tired eyes of the invalid are forced to endure a light that perhaps is constantly working injury and adding nervousness to the other malady.

Furnishing a holder with one for each bedroom can be done at small cost with good result. Shades might also be bought for them at a small cost and give them even a neater appearance and save them from flickering in airy room.

For the sick rooms wax candles are preferred as they never produce smoke or smell.

They seem to soothe the nerves of the invalid and in this way help to produce a restful night.

How To Make Cold Meat Loaf.

"Avoid warm hashes in summer and have in their place a meat loaf that can be served cold," writes Christine Terhune Herriek in "Woman's Home Companion" for August. "Chop your remnants of steak or roast beef, mix with them one third as much cold boiled ham or tongue, season well, and add a couple of raw eggs beaten light. If rather dry, moisten with gravy or stock, turn into a greased mold with plain sides, cover, set in a baking pan with hot water about it, and bake for an hour. This loaf may also be made with raw beef, but then it must cook for two hours. Let it get very cold before turning out, and slice. Veal loaf may be prepared by this recipe, and even cold roast lamb may be treated in the same manner. The main point to be borne in mind is the seasoning. Be careful that this is well done and you will have a popular dish."

HUSTONTOWN.

Mrs. David Lamberson, who has been visiting her daughter at Woodvale for the past two weeks, has returned to her home again at this place.

Mrs. Simon Ficks is visiting friends and relatives in the lower part of the County, this week.

On her 81st birthday, quite a number of the good women of our town planned a surprise for Mrs. Wilson, who has the misfortune to be blind, and presented her with many useful articles, that will add to her comfort and pleasure during the remainder of her life.

David Mumma left this place for Jeannette on Tuesday, where he expects to visit relatives. He was accompanied by Geo. Landig and wife, who will also spend some time visiting friends and relatives in that place.

Adam Vallance, who has been spending the summer in this place, has returned to his home in Ohio.

The baseball game which was played here last Saturday, between Hustontown and Danc, was a nice quiet one. Each side acted the part of gentlemen and, consequently, there was no chewing the rag during the entire game. The festival held in the evening under the auspices of the Hustontown Base Ball Team, passed off very smoothly and was satisfactory in every way.

The following was the line-up:

Hustontown.	Dane.
Hoover,	c. Chesnut, H. E.
Barton,	p. Eliff.
Chesnut, D.	1b. Baker, G.
Woodcock,	2b. Connelly, W.
Wink,	3b. Connelly, C.
Clevenger,	ss. Peightel.
Keabaugh, C.	cf. Gress.
Keabaugh, W.	rf. Baker, B.
McElhaneey,	lf. Wibbe.

Score:—Hustontown, 8; Dane, 1. Umpire, Hayes Strat. Two base hit, Wm. Connelly; home run, Hoover.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Foley's Orino Laxative does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Trout's drug store.

WARFORDSBURG.

A. C. Palmer a graduate of C. V. S. N. S. Shippensburg has secured a position as assistant principal of the public schools of Coalport, Pa.

G. Hayes Markley a student of the above Normal school is spending his vacation at his home here.

D. H. Myers of Knobsville is visiting his son George M. Myers here.

Lee Cover and his sister Catherine, of Covington, Va., are visiting their grandfather, W. H. Charlton.

Mrs. Lillie Greer, of Johnstown, is visiting her many friends here.

W. H. Charlton spent a day recently at White Sulphur Springs Va., and met Judge Taft, the Republican candidate for president.

A valuable horse belonging to James E. Palmer died last week. Thirty of the friends and neighbors of George M. Myers responded to his invitation last Tuesday and assisted him to raise the frame of a large bank barn, which will take the place of the old one recently torn down, and which was built almost one hundred years ago.

Have You Friends or Acquaintances?

Service and utility are humble words, but they make most of the sum of human happiness. Why have you friends? What do they find in you worth while? Is it because they are good and handsome and you are wise and amusing? Friendship would not last overnight if it were based only on the sentimental attractions. Some of the most beautiful of beings never knew friendship, and some of the most learned never found its secret. And yet it is very simple. Men and women who complain that they have no friends should ask themselves: "Do I try to be useful to others? Do I seek to serve those who would serve me?" Great governments tie up their friendships by "favored nation" clauses. The individual should learn the wisdom of history. We cannot be friends or have friends unless we serve and are useful. Otherwise we have only acquaintances.—"The World About Us," in The Ladies' World for August.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE WINS.

Tom Moore, of Rural Route 1, Cochran, Ga., writes: "I had a bad sore come on the instep of my foot, and could find nothing that would heal it until I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Less than half of a 25 cent box won the day for me by affecting a perfect cure." Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store.

Log-Cabin Sayings.

Many a man says he got de wisdom er Solomon, but Solomon wuzn't wise in his own conceit. Satan may not be ez black ez he is painted, but he black enough ter make de robes er de saints look dingy er dey comes in contact wid him.

Lots er mysteries in life, but de biggest one er all is how we ever gets through it.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD IN THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN YEAR.

More Alert, More Thorough and More Fearless Than Ever.

Read in Every English-Speaking Country.

A President of the United States will be elected this year. Who is he and who is the man whom he will beat? Nobody yet knows, but the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World will tell you every step and every detail of what promises to be a campaign of the most absorbing interest. It may not tell you what you hope, but it will tell you what is. The Thrice-A-Week World long ago established a character for impartiality and fearlessness in the publication of news, and this it will maintain. If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $1.75. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

ORINO
Laxative Fruit Syrup

Pleasant to take

The new laxative. Does not gripe or nauseate. Cures stomach and liver troubles and chronic constipation by restoring the natural action of the stomach, liver and bowels. Refuse substitutes. Price 50c. Trout's Drug Store.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased. Mr. D. Kumble, of Nevada, O. says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspeptic. Cure for about four months and it cured me."
Kodol Digests What You Eat and relieves the stomach of all nervous strain and the heart of all pressure. Bottles only, $1.00. Size holding 7 1/2 times the fluid, which sells for 50c.
