Deathbed Statistics.

When a great man dies, no one is learning who surrounded his deathbed, but the news is always sent out. - People care no more to know, than to hear if he were laid out in the parlor or bedroom, or if he were attired in a shroud or his regular clothes. But Atchison inquirer has measured his bed, and finds that without unseemly crowding it will accommodate sixteen. How, then, can thirty and forty surround the deathbeds of the great men, as told in the telegraph. Atchison Globe.

ALMOST A SHADOW Gained 20 lbs. on Grape-Nuts.

There's a wonderful difference between a food which merely tastes good and one which builds up strength and good healthy flesh.

It makes no difference how much we cat unless we can digest it. It is not really food to the system until it is absorbed. A Yorkstate woman BRYRT

"I had been a sufferer for ten years with stomach and liver trouble, and had got so bad that the least bit of food such as I then knew, would give me untold misery for hours after

"I lost flesh until I was almost a shadow of my original self and my friends were quite alarmed about me. "First I dropped coffee and used Postum, then began to use Grape-Nuts, although I had little faith it would do me any good. But I continued to use the food and have gained twenty pounds in weight and feel like another person in every way. I feel as if life had truly begun anew for me.

"I can eat anything I like now in moderation, suffer no ill effects, be on my feet from morning until night. Whereas a year ago they had to send me away from home for rest while others cleaned house for me, this spring I have been able to do it myself all alone.

"My breakfast is simply Grape-Nuts with cream and a cup of Postum, with ometimes an egg and a piece of toast, but generally only Grape-Nuts and Postum. And I can work until loon and not feel as tired as one hour's work would have made me a year ago." "There's a Reason."

BATTLE WITH REJECTED SUITOR.

Shamokin (Special) .- Miss Edua Blystone, of Burnside, a local suburb, was probably fatally shot by Martin Kane, also of that place, on a mountain road. Following the shooting she was attacked by him but succeeded in escaping to her home a mile away. News of the shooting quickly spread and an angry crowd of villagers threatened to lynch Kane.

An examination showed that a 22-caliber buildt had entered one side of Miss Blystone's neck, ploughed through and came out on the other. Kane was apprehended some time later in the mountains and was surried to jail to escape the crowd of infuriated people.

Kane took Miss Blystone out driving and asked her to marry him. She refused and he pulled a revolver from his pocket, pointed it at the woman and fired. Miss Blystone grasped the smoking weapon and wreated it from the grasp of her rejected suitor. She threw it into the woods and jumped from the car-

The man followed her and realizing that she would escape him unless halted he picked up a rock and hit her on the head. When she fell to the ground he rushed to her side and with the rock tried to batter out her brains, brulsing her head and disfiguring her face in a desperate attempt to end the woman's life. With a beer bottle which she secured from the buggy Miss Blystone finally beat Kane off and made her escape, and with blood streaming from the wounds in her neck managed to stagger home. The scene of the shooting was on Burnside Moun-

Kane called at the Blystone home earlier in the evening and requested the girl to accompany him. Un-Ununder the seat, and after they had reached the mountain began to drink. Miss Blystone is a popular and well known young woman of this section

Weekly Review of Trade and Latest Market Reports

R G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

Trade reports continue to indicate moderate net gains each week, although progress is irregular. Some nections make much better exhibits than others, the Southwest leading, while improvement is slowest at the East. There is also a similar irregularity in returns from the industries, some occupations gaining steadily while others proceed erratically. The net result, however, is a larger volume of business in the aggregate, and comparisons with this time last year are especially cheering, when it is considered a year ago that all records up to that time are being eclipsed. More plants have resumed, wholly or in part, but there are still many unemployed.

At a further light reduction to price of Bessemer pig from the Pittsburg market has experienced increased activity. Most finished steel line: are quiet, new contracts coming forward slowly and for small quantities, but specification on old orders aggregating a fair tonnage. Each week the production of all the mills in-creases slightly, more plants constantly resuming, although usually on part time and with reduced forces. More inquiries are received in the primary markets for cotton goods, and there is a hopeful feeling regard ing the future. New England shoe manufacturer report business quiet since the de-parture of Western wholesalers, and mail orders are not large. It is expected, however, that supplementary business will soon appear.

Sixteen of the employes are skilled workmen, and the company wishes it known that its wares are sold on their "actual merit;" that they are put upon the market "in fair competition with the product of other concerns." and that the blind people want "business, not charity."—Chicago News.

Blind Men Seldom Smoke.

Blind men seldom smoke. Those who were inveterate smokers in their sighted days find that after losing their sight a pipe or cigar has no attraction for them. The man who has no eyes to watch the smoke curl and drift about his head apparently has no use for a cigar. Smoking to the absolutely blind Is something different from smoking in the dark. Besides, few persons smoke in total darkness. Usually there is starlight or firelight enough to enable a man to keep track of the smoke. When deprived of that fascitotic teach him nating pastime the cigar loses its charm, and the man who is blind resigns himself to a smokeless old age -N. Y. Press.

THE COME AND SEE SIGN

This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass. What Does This Sign Mean? It means that public inspection of the Baboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the bus-iness which is not "open and above-It means that a permanent invita-tion is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs — without drugs ! Come and Sec. Do the women of America continu-ally use as much of it as we are told?

Come and Sec. Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom slok woman are asked to write? Come and Sec. Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential? Come and Sec. Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents? Come and Sec. Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and Sec.
This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills Italy and France the octopus' excel-lence. You can't give an Italian of the Riviera or a Frenchman of the suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

> is to expect her to remember that she has ever had any experience with the weak points of men. What's the good of being good you do not let people know it?
