Improve the Town Property.

We are all interested in the prosperity of our town. We can contribute to it materially, and give it a far more prosperous look at the same time.

Perhaps the public property needs a good coat of paint.

Devoe will supply that coat with two-thirds of the number of gallons required of any other. Devoe will last twice as long as any other.

The reason is stated above; Devoe is all paint and full-measure; the strongest paint known.

E. D. Jewell, Corry, Pa., painted his house 5 years ago with a mixed paint; took 14 gallons.

Last spring he repainted with Devoe; bought 14 gallons and had 4 left. Saved $15 to $20, as painting costs two or three times as much as the paint.

WEST DUBLIN.

Ross King and wife spent a few days last week with relatives in Altoona.

W. L. Berkstresser has built a new wagon shed on his farm at Orchard Grove.

Hunting season began on Thursday. Game is scarce.

Richard Snyder and wife of Altoona are spending the week at the Stone House on Sideling Hill.

B. F. Price and family and Mrs. Susan King spent Sunday September 20, with the family of Maynard Unger in Ayr township.

Our farmers have been busy seeding since the rain of last Monday.

There was quite an interesting local institute at Pine Grove school last Friday evening.

The teachers of the township were well represented and some teachers from adjoining townships were present.

A number of our farmers have threshed their buckwheat crops which have been a fair yield.

Some of our farmers have begun husking corn.

Edwin Brant has returned from cutting corn in Franklin county and expects to go back to husk corn this week.

Mrs. Hiram Cleverger and son Harvey spent a few days recently with friends in Trough Creek.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache, and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. Trout's drug store."

Fisher-Truax.

On Tuesday September 28, 1908, Mr. Arch W. Fisher, son of J. C. Fisher, of Dott, Bethel township, and Miss Essie B. Truax, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Truax, were quietly married by Rev. T. P. Garland at Needmore. THE NEWS extends best wishes to the newly married couple.

The Sunday Philadelphia North American of Sept. 20th contained a picture of J. A. Wister in a New Elmore Automobile car. The car is the new 1909 44 horse power Elmore, handled by Gawthrop & Wister at 244 North Broad Street, Philadelphia. Mr. Wister is a native of Pott, and is becoming prominent in the Automobile business.

SHE LIKES GOOD THINGS. Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, of West Franklin, Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it."

These painless purifiers are sold at Trout's drug store, 25c.

Birthday Dinner.

Last Saturday morning, as the sun shone brightly, little did Mrs. James Hess think of anything but her daily work, when suddenly she heard a noise. Looking out, what did she see but a crowd coming with their boxes and baskets, then Mrs. Hess thought that she was 61 years old that day. She was so excited she hardly knew what to do.

Those present were Charley Hess, wife, and children; Bessie Dibelbiss and little son Harry; Russel Souders and wife, John Lake and wife, Jerry Carbaugh and wife, Koon Sipe and family, John Deshong and family, Harvey Fohner, U. W. Kline, Jessie Hess and family, Sadie Mellott and daughter Georgia, Annie Fegley and children, and Blanche Deshong.

By noon the table was heavily laden with chicken, pie and cake, and all that was good. Mrs. Hess got a nice lot of presents. All had a fine time, but were sorry that Mr. Hess was not there to enjoy the dinner. All went home hoping to meet again soon.

Excellent Health Advice.

Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bit's as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness, and torpor of the liver and bowels, is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bit's than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store, 50c.

Ex-County Treasurer, John A. Henry of Clear Ridge was in attendance at Court on Monday.

Emanuel Keefer, of Thompson township, one of the Democratic Nominees for County Commissioner was shaking hands with his numerous friends this week.

James R. Sharpe, of Bethel, who is on the Democratic ticket, as one of its candidates for County Commissioner was greeting his many friends in town this week.

Why James Lee Got Well.

Everybody in Zanesville, O., knows Mrs. Mary Lee, of rural route 8. She writes: "My husband, James Lee, firmly believes he owes his life to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery. His lungs were so severely affected that consumption seemed inevitable, when a friend recommended New Discovery. We tried it, and its use has restored him to perfect health." Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store, 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Daniel Cromer, of Fort Littleton, one of the Republican candidates for County Commissioner was looking after his political interests in town this week.

Henry Shue brought to this office an apple that measured fifteen inches in circumference and weighed twenty-three ounces. It grew on the old homestead of the late Philip Ott, near Back Run, and was of the pippin variety.

FOR SORE FEET.

"I have found Bucklen's Arnica Salve to be the proper thing to use for sore feet, as well as for healing burn, sores, cuts, and all manner of abrasions," writes Mr. W. Stone, of East Poland, Maine. It is the proper thing too, for piles. Try it! Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store, 25c.

Sheriff Harris on Monday sold a tract of land situate in Ayr township, containing 80 acres, more or less, property of Hanson Sowers, to J. Nelson Sipes, Esq., for $413.50. The Thos. Mellott tract advertised was withdrawn.

I would like to call the attention of fathers and mothers to a shoe for the children, as well as to larger ones for themselves, that we guarantee to be made of nothing but leather. I had a customer of mine to select from my stock a shoe, and we cut the shoe in two pieces, showing that it was made with a solid leather counter, insole, slip and outside sole, double toe cap, and genuine whole stock upper. We guarantee all of this brand of shoe, whether it is for a man, woman or child, to be made of nothing but leather, the same as the one we cut in half, or we will refund you your money.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION ONE. A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas and the courts of Oyer and Terminer, and to give the General Assembly power to establish a separate court in Philadelphia county, with criminal and miscellaneous jurisdiction.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same are hereby, proposed in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:— That section six of article five be amended by striking out the said section and inserting in place thereof the following:— Section 6. In the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the several numbered courts of common pleas, shall be vested in one court of common pleas in each of the counties, composed of all the judges in commission in said courts. Such jurisdiction and powers shall extend to all proceedings at law and in equity which shall have been instituted in the several numbered courts, and shall be subject to such changes as may be made by law, and subject to change of venue as provided by law. The president judge of each of the said courts shall be selected as provided by law. The number of judges in each of said courts may be, by law, increased from time to time. This amendment shall take effect on the first Monday of January succeeding its adoption.

Section 2. That article five, section eight, be amended by making an addition thereto so that the same shall read as follows:— Section 8. The said courts in the counties of Philadelphia and Allegheny respectively shall, from time to time, in return, detail one or more of their judges to hold the courts of Oyer and Terminer and the courts of quarter sessions of the peace of said counties, in such manner as may be directed by law. Provided, That in the county of Philadelphia the General Assembly shall have power to establish a separate court, consisting of not more than four judges, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction of criminal cases and in such other matters as may be provided by law.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION TWO. A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, allowing counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, or other municipal or incorporated districts, to increase their indebtedness.

Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That section eight, article nine, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, reading as follows:— "Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law, but any city, the debt of which exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation," be amended, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article of said Constitution, so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:— Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed ten per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein; nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, in such manner as shall be provided by law.

AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION PROPOSED TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROVAL OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, PUBLISHED BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

SECTION THREE. A JOINT RESOLUTION Proposing amendments to sections eight and twelve of article four, sections eleven and twelve of article five, sections two, three, and fourteen of article eight, section one of article twelve, and sections two and seven of article fourteen, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, and providing a schedule for carrying the amendments into effect.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same are hereby, proposed as amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:— Amendment One—To Article Four, Section Eight. Section 8. Amend section eight of article four of the Constitution, which reads as follows:— "In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be five years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the election of the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county, and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or political duties as may be made by law. Philadelphia the office of alderman is abolished," so as to read as follows:— "In Philadelphia there shall be established, for each thirty thousand inhabitants, one court, not of record, of police and civil causes, with jurisdiction not exceeding one hundred dollars; such courts shall be held by magistrates whose term of office shall be six years, and they shall be elected on general ticket at the election of the qualified voters at large; and in the election of the said magistrates no voter shall vote for more than two-thirds of the number of persons to be chosen; they shall be compensated only by fixed salaries, to be paid by said county, and shall exercise such jurisdiction, civil and criminal, except as herein provided, as now exercised by aldermen, subject to such changes, not involving an increase of civil jurisdiction or political duties as may be made by law.
