Teachers' Banquet.

Saturday evening, October 17, 1908, the Broadtop Educational Association held a Banquet in Little's Hall at Defiance, Bedford county. This Association is composed of the teachers and directors of Hopewell borough, Broadtop township, and Coaldale borough. Twenty-nine teachers and two directors of the Association were present. Including invited guests, forty-two persons partook of the supper, which had been so well prepared by the Ladies' Aid Society of Defiance.

The speakers of the evening were Ex-Supt. of Bedford county, Prof. J. Anson Wright, who in that easy graceful manner which he seems master, expressed his pleasure at being present, and spoke of the important work of the teachers; Ex-Supt. Potts, who spoke earnestly to the teachers, emphasizing the idea that all should try to do their best; Ex-Supt. Cessna, who spoke in a reminiscent and jocular manner, emphasizing earnestness and thoroughness in work; Director Wm Lander, who responded with an appeal for thorough work and fewer subjects for study; Prof. O. R. Myers, of Juniata College, who gave a delightful talk calling attention to the social features of the Banquet; Rev. R. H. Colburn, who when called upon, responded by saying that his second talk would not be suitable for the occasion, having given one talk before the Institute in the afternoon; Prof. H. H. Brumbaugh, District Sup. of Broadtop township, was the last speaker of the evening, and as it was growing late, made his talk as short as possible, giving a little account of his teaching under the three Ex-Superintendents present. Thus ended a delightful evening of pleasure and instruction.

Music for the occasion was rendered by a quartet, consisting of Profs. H. H. Brumbaugh and O. R. Myers, and Messrs. John S. Furry and B. G. Foot.

The Error of the Times.

Among the educated classes the tendency of the day is to make far too much of the children. One of the most objectionable sights is to see well trained, well-mannered little men and women of the world who are treated by their elders as if they were not only equals but superiors.

A Jeweler's Experience.

C. R. Kluger, The Jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache, and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. ## MAYS CHAPEL.

The farmers are busy husking corn and hauling apples to market. W. G. Hiles and Mrs. Katie Decker were seen driving through our vicinity last Friday afternoon.

Howard Divilbiss, of West Virginia, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Carpenters are busy erecting a barn for Mrs. Dorrie.

The men were working our roads last week, but did not get much accomplished, on account of so many candidates passing through here.

Elliott Divilbiss, wife and two children are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goodman.

Frank and Harry Crist have returned from Lewistown with a bronco pony and rubber tire buggy. Now, girls, is your chance. Rev. Garland will preach at this place next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.
