D. T. Fields, of this place, now firmly believes that we are on the eve of returning prosperity, because, one day last week one of his hens laid an egg that measured eight inches in the greater circumference, and six inches in the smaller. That hen evidently believes that whether Bryan or Taft shall be elected, the duty on lime and alumina will be removed.

As has been frequently stated before, the Fulton County News is the people's paper, and its columns are open alike to candidates of any party who may desire to present their claims for popular support. It is understood that the editor does not bear any responsibility for any statements so made by the respective candidates.

The many friends of Miss Sophie Hohman will be pleased to learn that she is able to be out again. Scarcely had she begun her school (McNaughton's) in Ayr township, the first of September, when she was stricken with typhoid fever, and it is only during the last few days that she has been able to be out again. Miss Olive Kendall has kindly been taking care of Miss Hohman's school during the latter's illness, ed.

Excellent Health Advice.
Mrs. M. M. Davison, of No. 379 Gifford Ave., San Jose, Cal., says: "The worth of Electric Bitters as a general family remedy, for headache, biliousness, and torpor of the liver and bowels, is so pronounced that I am prompted to say a word in its favor, for the benefit of those seeking relief from such afflictions. There is more health for the digestive organs in a bottle of Electric Bitters than in any other remedy I know of." Sold under guarantee at Trout's drug store. 50c.
