

It will pay you to feed oyster shell and grit to your poultry, get it at Irwin's.

Amos B. Wilkinson moved on Tuesday from the Clevenger brick house into the Goldsmith property which Mr. Wilkinson recently purchased.

Berkley Sipes was in town Monday getting a few odds-and-ends to complete his new house. It is now about finished and he is moving into it. They now have a very nice and comfortable home.

HIDES WANTED.—Highest market price paid for beef hides, horse hides, wildcat skins, and all kinds of grease, at Paul Wagner's Tannery, McConnellsburg.

Harry Hess and his sister-in-law, Miss Rose Frey, of Hancock, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bender, Sunday and Monday.

Lloyd Mellott, of Johnstown, returned home Monday in time for the election, after having spent a week with his Fulton county relatives and friends. He was in town last Saturday, and the News will keep him posted on the home happenings from this time on.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Sons pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Ex-Sheriff J. G. Alexander moved on Monday from the Goldsmith property into his new house on the corner of First and Main street. This is the old Catlett property which the Sheriff bought, and tore all the old buildings away and replaced them by new modern ones, and he now has a nice comfortable home.

Mr. D. F. Tenley, of Sixmile Run, was a very pleasant caller at the News office last Saturday evening. He was down visiting in the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. George Summers. Mr. Tenley has a little farm up there, from which he raised this year 260 bushels of potatoes which he put into market at a dollar a bushel and had 18 tons of hay to sell besides raising 3000 heads of cabbage at 3 cents a head.

Mr. Enoch C. Peck, of Kingman, Kas., who visited in this county two years ago, is now down in Mexico on a hunting expedition. In a recent letter to the editor, he says, "I am enjoying the hunt immensely. I was at Tannil Hot Springs yesterday. The bathing facilities there beats the pond at Atlantic City all to pieces—for comfort, pleasure, cleanliness, etc. The crowd, of course, is smaller. Have seen some nice game—killed some wild hogs—crippled a deer and there are here squirrels, rabbits, quail, grouse, wild turkeys, and ducks in abundance. I bought a small tract of land near this place (Hot Springs). It is in an American colony settling between the Panuco and the Choy rivers. We think this is much pleasanter country than southern California. Oranges, lemons, pine apples, bananas, &c.,—all grow to perfection.

Local Institute.

The third local institute was held at Back Run, Friday evening, Oct. 23. The house was called to order by the teacher, Mary Steeger, after which the president, Rhoda Kendall took charge. The following topics were well discussed. 1. Aims of a school. 2. Methods for teaching Civil Government. 3. How and how often should writing be taught? Songs and recitations were rendered by the school. Institute adjourned to meet at Cito in two weeks from that time. Irene Truax, Secretary.

Stimulation Without Irritation.

This is the watchword. That is what Foley's Orino Laxative does. Cleanses and stimulates the bowels without irritation in any form. Trout's drug store.

END.

Rev. Strayer, of Johnstown, preached in the U. B. church on Sabbath evening. He is the father of the former pastor, J. L. Strayer.

Harry Thornley, of Philadelphia spent a few days with relatives here. He was accompanied back home by his mother, Mrs. Nettie Thornley.

Harry and Cloyd Edwards visited their grandfather Mr. Dennis Sipe at Saxton, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Berkstresser, attended the real estate sale of his uncle, at Saxton last Saturday.

Messrs. Cunningham and Stunkard are husking and shredding corn for themselves and neighbors now.

Mr. and Mrs. Harper Garman were welcomed home on Monday night by the Calthumpians.

Mr. and Mrs. John White and little daughter, of Altoona are visiting relatives.

No Case on Record.

There is no case on record of a cough or cold resulting in pneumonia or consumption after Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken, as it will stop your cough and break up your cold quickly. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and tar in a yellow package. Contains no opiates and is safe and sure. Trout's drug store.

FORT LITTLETON.

Bruce Woodlet's auction was largely attended last Saturday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Rachel Peterson, of Blairs Mills, visited her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Wilson, in this place last week.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilds and left them a bouncing baby boy.

Alley Deshong spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of his parents near Salvia.

John Keihart and wife spent Sunday in Maddensville.

Dick and Harry McGowan, of Burnt Cabins, attended the auction here last Saturday night.

Emery Wible and wife were calling on friends in the Fort.

Henry Wilson and wife visited their son Charles last Saturday.

Mrs. Orth, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Fraker, has returned home, after a few weeks' absence.

The protracted meeting is in progress at this place. There has been but one conversion yet.

Bruce Woodlet is all smiles, and all on account of a stork visiting his home and leaving them a nice baby girl. Congratulations, Bruce.

NEW GRENADA.

Dr. Rowe McClain and Arthur Cunningham, of Mount Union, were business visitors here one day recently between trains.

B. H. Shaw placed a beautiful monument on the grave lot of James A. McDonough in Bethel cemetery, over the grave of Jim's late wife.

Rev. Sollenberger preached his farewell sermon. He has been transferred to Landsburg, Pa., by East Penna. Eldership. B. F. Reidel will be pastor on Walnut Grove circuit, for the ensuing year.

Annie Ewing, who sojourned with the Houck family a few weeks, returned to her home at Newton Hamilton.

Harry Gaster's family now count three, as a little "Taft man" came to their home, but too late to be a voter.

J. G. Cunningham and wife, aged 80 and 79 years, respectively, hunched up and walked to Waterfall, taking their annual outing among friends there. Not so bad for a boy and girl of such ages.

Mary Moseby, of the Valley, has just returned from an extended trip of sightseeing at Hagerstown, Pen Mar, and Washington.

Lessie Anderson visited a few weeks with friends in Ohio, and sightseeing in other cities in the West.

A railroad in Wells is the next possibility. From Sandy Run around by Wells Tannery, and across upper end of valley to Brush Creek—a narrow gauge for the purpose of marketing the timber on the mountains. May we not be disappointed.

Ritner Black, Robert Early, and Maude Cunningham—teachers in Huntingdon county, attended institute last week.

Dr. R. B. Campbell and John and Oscar Houck spent a couple days at the Huntingdon institute.

A new postoffice has been established at Woodvale. Mrs. S. E. Everhart is postmistress. The name of the office will be "Wood" and will open up as soon as supplies arrive.

Rev. J. C. Collins, wife, and little son, of Orbisonia, and Mrs. S. E. Everhart and son Howard, of Woodvale, drove down to New Grenada on Sunday morning. Rev. Collins preached a sermon in Bethel church in the morning and at night, and in the afternoon preached and held communion services at Zion, which kept the church goers busy all day; and we might add that all that were gospel hungry were surely filled, as Rev. Collins is an excellent preacher—something above the ordinary.

At the M. E. parsonage, Huntingdon, Pa., on Thursday, October 22, 1908, Rev. Souser united in marriage Harper Garman, of Mapleton, and Bessie Tice, of Wells Valley. We join in congratulations. May all be joy and happiness.

A Bryan and Kern flag was swung to the breeze in the diamond in New Grenada last Saturday evening. Long may it wave.

Olive Cunningham and son William Laverty, of Pittsburg, are visiting their friends in New Grenada.

S. P. Metzler is building an extensive poultry house. When completed it will be an improvement over the many would-be houses.
