THE POPULAR GIRL.
She Never Challenges the Admiration of the Crowd.

There are two kinds of popular girls. One is admired by the crowd; the other is loved by the individual. One is sure to be spoken of as "fascinating;" the other is not spoken of very much at all. But every one who knows her says softly, with an air of having made a rare discovery: "Ah, I like that girl. I feel as if I had been looking for her always. She is the dearest girl in the world."

The popular girl of the first mentioned class is easy enough to appreciate and to understand. Every one finds her attractive. Her popularity is obvious. In fact, nearly everything about her, all her charm, seems to be rather obvious. All her easy magnetism shows off prettily at first glance. She makes no particular appeal to you as an individual, but she is a general favorite. You find her fascinating, and you know that every one else finds her fascinating too. She is the "popular" girl.

It does not occur to many people to describe the other girl as "popular." She never challenges the attention of the crowd. She is unassuming and unaffected, very much interested in other persons and wholly unconscious of herself. She is not strikingly beautiful. Even the keenness of her remarkably fine mind has in it no obtrusive surface brilliance. She has none of the airs and graces, the small coquetties, of the girl who is an acknowledged belle. She has none of the obvious charms of "popular" girl. There is nothing obvious about her at all. Yet every one who talks with her ten minutes feels the personal compulsion of her quiet, unsought charm.

Simple Recipe for Home-Made Rheumatism and Kidney Cure.

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from our home druggists, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism.

As Rheumatism is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

William H. Lake, who spent holiday week with his son-in-law and daughter, Gilbert C. Mellott and wife, has returned to his home at McKinben.

Happy New Year!

May You Live Long and Prosper!

MY NAME IS

JOHN S. WILSON,
and I keep a live up-to-date store at Three Springs, Pa.

While I do not own the FULTON COUNTY NEWS, I own a nice bunch of space in it, and every week, I shall have something to say to you that will help you to buy what you need during the year 1909, and at its close have money in your pocket. Of course, I am not doing business for my health—who does? but I am right here to say that the goods I will have to offer you will be just as represented, and the price will be as low as any man can sell them at. The merchant that says he is selling goods below cost, or at cost—or at cost and carriage, is a candidate for a lunatic asylum, or else he is lying—most probably the latter.

When I go to the City, I can buy goods just as low as anybody else, it does not cost me any more to get them to Three Springs than it cost others, and hence I can sell them just as close as anybody else—and I WILL DO IT.

To those who have so generously patronized my store during the past year, I want to extend my heartfelt thanks, and those who have not given me a trial, I want to cordially invite them to come and give my store a trial. If they do not find my business as represented, it will be my fault if they deal somewhere else.

Again wishing you a happy and prosperous New Year, and asking you to keep your eyes on this space for bargains, I am

Yours for business,
JOHN S. WILSON.

Nursing the Best Paid Occupation.

The Philadelphia School for Nurses, 2219 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa., offers Free Scholarships in Trained Nursing to young women in every State in the Union. The Scholarships cover the full Two Years' Course, with room, board, uniforms, laundry, etc., included, and railroad fare paid to home town or district upon the completion of the Course.

A home study course and a short resident course are also provided, which quickly open the door to opportunity and enable progressive students to render a noble service to humanity and at the same time acquire for themselves a substantial income from the best paid occupation now open to women; besides qualifying every student to deal with emergencies in the home that may mean the saving of a loved one's life.

Far-seeing philanthropists are adding to the resources of this School, with the view of ultimately extending these benefits to earnest, energetic young women in all country districts and in all the smaller towns and cities.

The institution is approved and endorsed by leading physicians and educators of the entire country. Some of the leading men of this State are its strong supporters and endorsers, as will be seen by the catalogue which will be sent to any one who writes to the School for it.
