INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS

Of Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

WANTED—Second hand bags and burlap; any kind, and quantity, anywhere; we pay freight. Richmond Bag Co., Richmond, Va. 11 12 10.

Despondent, George Fisher, 35 years old, cut his throat with a razor at Jersey Shore, but failed to kill himself.

Always have Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup handy, especially for the children. It tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels through its laxative principle, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. There is nothing as good. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Rev. Charles Dalzell, of Fairfield, Pa., preached excellent sermons in the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening. He was entertained during his stay here in the home of Mrs. Matilda B. Trout.

GRACEY.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Mt. Tabor.

E. H. Wolf, of Blair county, Pa., and brother I. B. Wolf, of Bucyrus, Ohio, have been spending the past week among friends and old acquaintances in this community. Many of the faces were not familiar to the latter as it has been fifteen years since he left "Little Fulton."

Mrs. Martha Strait who has been on the sick list for some time, is slowly improving.

Albert King, of Altoona, is spending a few days on his farm near this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McClain of Wilmarling, Pa., spent a few days with the latter's mother Mrs. Martha Strait.

Our fox hunters have captured a few of the "sly creatures" during the past two weeks.

Educational Meetings.

The fifth educational meeting of Dublin township was held at Clear Ridge school, Friday evening, January 9th.

The Meeting was called to order by the teacher Levi P. Morton. A. E. Deshong, president, took charge of the meeting. The topics: How do you deal with the dull child? How do you teach grammar? School Hygiene on the part of the teacher, were well discussed by the eleven teachers present.

Mrs. John A. Henry gave quite an interesting talk on the subject of grammar.

Teachers present were: A. E. Deshong, Lewis Harris, Levi P. Morton, Elsie Baker, Lillian Fleming, Jessie Henry, of Dublin, and W. H. Ranck, H. P. Barton, D. K. Chesnut, Russel Gracey, and Myrtle Stevens, of Laylor.

A number of songs and recitations were rendered by the school.

Although the house was crowded, excellent order prevailed, which speaks well for the people of the community.—L. H. Grove, secretary.

WELLS TANNERY.

William Clair Heckman, aged 64 years, died last Saturday evening. Funeral Monday, conducted by Rev. Flegal, of Three Springs. Interment in the Valley cemetery. Mr. Heckman is survived by his widow and five grown-up children.

Thomas Horton and Miss Nettie Waring, both of this place, were married in Cumberland, Md., on Wednesday of last week. Their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Mrs. Tillie S. Johnson, of Omaha, Neb., is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Baumgardner.

Benj. Alexander left for Washington, D. C., last Monday, to do boss carpenter work.

Geo. W. Sipe has been "sorely" afflicted with carbuncles during the past few weeks.

J. D. Foote has sold his dwelling to Mrs. James Swope for $700 and gives possession April first.

We are glad to know that J. F. Early is slowly improving in health.

W. H. Baumgardner has moved one of his saw mills upon A. O. Griffith's land.

Mrs. Catharine Spangler is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Will Hoke at Saxton.

A Family Reunion.

The Clevenger family met at the home of W. S. Clevenger, at Crystal Springs, Friday, January 1, 1909, for the purpose of celebrating the coming of the New Year. A fine dinner was served at high noon. The mother and all the children and grandchildren were present, besides a number of invited guests. The names of all present were:

Mrs. Lida Clevenger, of Breezewood; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Clevenger and sons William and Elmer, and daughter Mary, of Crystal Springs; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Showalter and daughter Mabe, of Gapsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clevenger, of Crystal Springs; A. C. Clevenger, of Breezewood; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clevenger and son Elton and daughter Mary, of Breezewood; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Clevenger and sons Raymond and Frank, of Crystal Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Pee, daughters Irene, Jessie, Lula, and Ad', and son Russell, of Gapsville; Misses Cora and Evalyn Clevenger, of Breezewood; Mrs. W. H. Mellott, of Gapsville; Jefferson Mellott, Gapsville; Misses Frances and Anna Whitfield, formerly of this place, but now of Matze, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Spade, Crystal Springs, and Ethel Deshong, Sipes Mill.

The day was spent in a social way, and that evening all went home feeling that they had a good time.

A GUEST.

GRACEY.

The farmers in this community are busy hauling lime.

The protracted meeting is still going on at Mt. Tabor U. B. church.

Mrs. Harriet Barnett is spending sometime with her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Ramsey.

Andy Fraker and wife, of Clear Ridge, spent Monday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jesse B. Heefner.

Mrs. Z. B. Barnett and son Walter have returned home, after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Mary McNeal, at Johnstown, Pa.

J. H. McClain, wife and son Leo, of Wall, Pa., made a flying trip to this community. He has purchased the Frank Benson farm near Dublin Mills and expects to move there in the near future.

Ezra Heefner is visiting friends in this community.

The institute at Gracey No. 2 school is to be held Friday night, the 22nd.

Jesse Berkstresser and Elmer Cutchall have secured employment in Pittsburgh.

Albert King, of Altoona, accompanied his mother to her home on Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Strait, whose illness has been previously mentioned, is somewhat worse at this writing.

Elmer Cutchall has received a job of clerking in one of Pittsburgh's leading stores.

JOHNSTOWN, PA.

Mort Hess and daughter Lois, of Coopersdale, are visiting among their old acquaintances in Moxham.

William Deshong and wife, and their son Roy, have returned to their old homestead in Johnstown from Buffalo, N. Y.

Ralph, the little son of Reuben and Laura Mellott, is lying quite ill of pneumonia.

Logue Wink, who recently returned from Fulton county where he had been having a very pleasant visit among his many friends, is now at work on a large dwelling house.

The Cambria Steel Works has not turned a wheel for many weeks. Their many men out of employment are beginning to think they have forgotten how to run.

Adam Vallance has purchased a nice farm in Somerset county for six thousand dollars.

Moxham is quarantined on account of twenty-seven cases of typhoid fever.

Mrs. J. W. Mellott's fine flock of chickens are working full time, and turning her out twelve eggs every day. This is not so bad with the hen-fruit at 40 cents a dozen.

There are some muddy streets in Johnstown just now.

Logue Deshong, the first class carpenter, with his wife, son Chester, and daughters Georgia and Luetta, and Mrs. Mack Brant and daughters Myrtle, Bertha, Toledo, and Dorothy, spent Sunday with the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mellott.

After the Honeymoon.

The wife of a business man with a small income has a rather monotonous life as a rule. There are so many duties that must be done over and over again, day after day, week after week, year after year. Her husband's work may be just as hard, just as much a "grind," but at least he sees fresh faces, talks things over with other men. That is why he can do so much for her by making a habit of stopping in, to tell her, in the evening, all the interesting little bits of talk and news he hears. Many men often will not take the trouble to do it, more's the pity.—Home Chat.
