RECORD OF DEATHS.

Persons Well Known to Many of Our Readers, Who Have Answered Final Summons.

ALL SEASONS ARE THINE, O DEATH.

EPHRAIM J. ANDERSON.

Ephraim J. Anderson died at his late home near Clear Ridge, this county, last Thursday morning at seven o'clock, aged 49 years, 1 month and 29 days. The cause of his death was cancer in the back part of the mouth, from which he had been a great sufferer during the last two years, and which is supposed to have resulted from a "bad" tooth. During that time, he went to a cemetery. hospital in Pittsburg and submitted to a surgical operation, which ful disposition, especially talentafforded very temporary relief. He also consulted physicians in in the U. B. church in Mercersmany other places, but cancer is burg for more than a year. She one of the diseases, that has, thus far, baffled the skill of doctors.

Twenty-three years ago Mr. Anderson was married to Sarah Cecelia, daughter of James Kerlip, Sr., of Clear Ridge, and the young couple began housekeeping on his grandfather Auderson's farm; later, he bought a her young life to the peaceful place of his own, and two years slumbers of the great beyond. ago last April, he moved to the James Kerlin farm, which he had purchased.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at Clear Ridge, and also, the Clear Ridge Grange. His funeral was conducted by the Rev. Cline, who based his remarks on Job 22:21. He leaves to mourn their loss, his widow and one son, Owen Glenn, aged fifteen years. Also, by his mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Anderson, one brother, Grant Anderson, of Pittsburg; and the following sisters: Mrs. Horace Wagner, of Laidig; Mrs. Emanuel Ravenstine, of Tyrone; Mrs. George Swartz, of Cherry Grove; Mrs. Louisa Kerlin, of Clear Ridge; Mrs. James McElheny, of Hus-

The season of 1908 has been for us a year of good crops, good health, and general prosperity. The autumn was somewhat noted for the absence of storms or cold weather. Sunday, January 3rd, was an ideal day for this latitude, being calm and bright, with a maximum temperature of 65 degrees in the afternoon. Monday, however, witnessed the beginernment shall build from Wash. ning of the cold wave, which ington to Gettysburg, via Balti. swept across the entire country.
