Always have Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup handy, especially for the children. It tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It cures the cold by gently moving the bowels through its laxative principle, and at the same time it is soothing for throat irritation, thereby stopping the cough. There is nothing as good. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Miss Alice Michaels, who had been visiting friends in Lewis town and Waynesboro, came to McConnellsburg and spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Geo. W. They Like The News.
Among the letters received recently, was one from Wm. B. Sipes, a leading merchant in Mt. Carroll, Ill., and one from H. W. Dubbs, a successful insurance man in Pittsburg, Pa. Surprise Party.

A very pleasant event occurred last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Edward Strait, near Sipes Mill. Early in the morning carriages and buggies began to roll in, until there were about fifty persons assembled, carrying with them baskets heavily laden with rich edibles, which were emptied out upon the table about 1 o'clock, being grand enough for any king or queen. Mrs. Strait being curious as to what was going on, went and looked up the date of her birthday, and found it was her birthday. It made her feel as in the days of Beelzebub, and she wished for many more such occasions as this, and only sorry that they did not come oftener.

Mrs. Strait received many beautiful presents, and will long hold the day in remembrance.

About 4 o'clock the crowd began to break and wend their way homeward, feeling that the day was well spent.

Those present were: Roland Sharpe and wife, Charles Mellott and wife, William Deshong and wife, Mitchell Mellott and wife, Riley Deshong and wife, Clayton Deshong and wife, Sherman Bard, Edward Mellott, Ralph Decker, Andrew Strait, Earl Palmer, Earl Mellott, Claude Strait, Frank Strait, Ralph Deshong, Ross Hollenshead, Wishart Deshong, Harry Mellott, Hixon Strait, Thomas Hollenshead, Foster Hollenshead, Wilbert Deshong, Elvie Deshong, Ulysses Deshong and wife, Anna Polk, Lois, Mattie, Ada, and Mary Deshong; Mary, Maggie, and Daisy Mellott; Besse Skiles, Myrtle Deshong, Alda Sharpe, Lena Strait, Cleo Strait, Mrs. Etta Hollenshead, Elmer Deshong, Daisy Strait, George Wink, Mabel Mellott.

The sledding is now about done. Many of our people made good use of it by attending a series of very interesting protracted meetings at Greenhill.

E. W. Swope, one of our successful farmers near Sipes Mill, had quite a lively experience while hauling limestone one day last week. His horses became fractious and ran away giving Mr. Swope a swift chase for quite a distance. The team was finally caught by Mr. Bard.

RELIABLE DEALERS

TROUP BROS' PIANO STORES

Chambersburg Waynesboro
Shippensburg Mercersburg
Newville McConnellsburg

Make another of their great and unusual Piano sales on a new plan. Read how it is done:

By reason of the fact that a large number of the biggest and most reliable piano manufacturers of the United States have, for this year, concentrated their advertising efforts in one direction, and, after due consideration, have adopted The Associate Advertising Company plan of direct dealing for cash (or its equivalent), instead of immenssums of money spent in very expensive magazine advertising. The Associate Advertising Company diverts so much money on the purchase price of each piano, and the coupon issued by them will be honored by the Reliable Troup Bros' Piano Stores on presentation, whether a cash or time purchase, if presented on or before February 1, 1909.

This plan of the Great Chicago Advertising Company is only given to large and reliable dealers who can guarantee so many sales and Troup Bros' was the firm selected for this territory. How well they will carry out their part of the contract you are all informed.

Bring in Your Coupons
And Have Them Cashed

To those who have no coupons we can offer you better goods and prices than ever before. These prices will not last very long, only through this special sale.

Do The Best You Can.

Do the best you can at all times! That should be the motto of every young man who possesses ambition, and the desire to make a name for himself in the world of business. If he does that at all times, he has put his foot on the first rung of the ladder that leads to promotion, and not before that time can he fairly say that he has begun to climb upward. Doing work in a half-hearted manner puts a decided handicap on the young man's future, for the moment that he regards his work as a grind he is beginning to walk on thin ice that will precipitate him into dismissal from the service of the firm for whom he is working; in truth, he places an obstacle in his path that cannot be surmounted.

The difference between doing the best you can and performing your duties in a half-hearted manner is easily seen, for the latter way of working cannot be disguised, as it has a false note that can be distinguished by the employer. The young man must make up his mind to give his entire attention to his work, and not let it waver at any moment of the day, if he hopes to better his condition in the form of promotion. He must make it a point to do the best that he can, whether the "old man," as many young men term their employers, is there or not, for the "old man" has been through the mill, as it were, and he can easily tell whether all his employees are doing their best work or not. He cannot be fooled very long.
