EASY TO MIX THIS.

Simple Recipe for Kidney or Bladder Trouble or Rheumatism.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic afflictions with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

Where Was The Deacon.

Deacon Jones, the great man of a little village of Massachusetts, whose outward piety was of the vociferous order, but whose charity toward his fellowmen was not as abounding as it might have been, was dangerously ill, and his brother deacons, impressed with the custom of issuing bulletins from the sick rooms of prominent individuals, decided to follow the fashion with the following results:

"6 p. m. Deacon Jones is in a serious condition."

"7 p. m. Deacon Jones has rallied slightly."

"9 p. m. Deacon Jones has suffered a relapse."

"11 p. m. Deacon Jones has departed for heaven."

Thus the bulletins read at midnight; but early in the morning some unregenerate mortal who did not love the deacon, evidently passed that way, for the light of a new day showed curious towns people the later report:

"Heaven. 7 a. m. Great consternation here. Deacon Jones has not arrived." - Woman's Home Companion for March.

THIRTY MATCHES A PIECE DAILY.

Our Average for Every Man, Woman, and Child.

The American people use up the enormous total of 700,000,000 matches a year. It is the general belief that matches are the by-product of planing mills and other wood working factories, but as a matter of fact, the best grade of two inch lumber is used for matches, while sashes, doors and blinds are the by-products of the match timber saw mills.

In a single year, the manufacturers cut 225,000,000 feet (board measure) of pine in the Great Lakes region, and one of the 150-odd factories used up 200,000 feet of sugar or yellow pine logs every day. The deduction is that in common with other industries of the United States depending upon existing forests, the match makers are within sight of a shortage in the wood supply.

When the present timber holdings have been depleted, says the "Technical World," they of course cannot be duplicated in a generation, and the people of this country may have to get along with fewer than twenty-five or thirty matches a day each, as at present. In their insistent way they will probably demand that the practice of Germany and France be followed, that foresters plant and grow timber especially for matches.

Business Manners.

Orison Sweet Morden, writing in "Success Magazine," asks and answers two very pertinent questions: Why is it that many of the cashiers, bookkeepers, bank tellers, corporation clerks and people who serve the public through glass windows or across counters are so pert and unobliging? Why is it necessary to make a customer feel that he is a nuisance?

Public officials, clerks and attendants in our public buildings and municipal offices are proverbially curt, short and snappy. Though you are paying them through your taxes for their services, they make you feel that they are doing you a great favor by giving you what belongs to you and by doing what you are paying them for doing.

How quickly you notice the atmosphere of a business house—a great department store, for example. There is as much difference between the feeling you have in walking through two great establishments as that you experience in talking with the different heads of these houses. In one, refinement, courteousness, consideration for others, a feeling of good will, permeates the very atmosphere. You have a feeling that every employe in the place would be glad to serve you if he could, and is anxious to please, whether you buy or not. There is evidence that the employer thinks a great deal of the character as well as the ability of his clerks, and that manners and deportment are never left out of consideration. In another house only a few blocks away, you are ill at ease. Carelessness, indifference and chilliness pervade the place. You do not feel at home. There is a lack of harmony, a sense of antagonism in the atmosphere. The employes make you feel that they are doing you a favor in letting you see the goods, or giving you the opportunity to purchase them with your money.

The man who thinks he is going to make a fortune without considering the man at the other end of the bargain is very short-sighted. In the long run the customer's best good is the seller's best good also; and, other things being equal, the man succeeds best who satisfies his customers not only come back, but always bring others with them.

The Care of the Eyes.

When one is using the eyes for close work it is wise to change the focus at intervals and gaze off at a distance; if the distant view is of green mountains and fields it will be most restful. If the air in the room can be frequently changed that will rest the eyes also. One should never use the eyes for study or work before breakfast or after the strength has been reduced by disease or a nervous strain. A book should be held about 18 inches from the eyes. The light for work should be steady and for an entire room diffused rather than spotty. Harper's Bazaar.

"INCURABLE" HEART DISEASE SOON CURED

By the Great Specialist in Treating Heart Disease and Dropsy, FRANKLIN MILES, M. D., LL. B.

Who Will Send $2.50 Worth of Special Treatment and New Book Free.

To demonstrate the remarkable curative powers of his new and complete Special Personal Treatments for heart disease, short breath, pain in the side, oppression in the chest, irregular pulse, palpitation, smothering spells, puffing of the ankles or dropsy, Dr. Miles will send, free, to every afflicted person, $2.50 worth of treatment. The worst cases soon relieved.

They are the result of 23 years of extensive research and remarkable success in treating various ailments of the heart, stomach and nerves, which so often complicate each case. So astonishing are the results of his treatment that he does not hesitate to offer all afflicted persons a two-pound Trial Bottle, free.

Certainly nothing could be more generous. Few physicians have such confidence in their treatments. There is no reason why all afflicted persons should not avail themselves of this liberal offer, as they may never have such an opportunity again. Delays are dangerous. No death comes more suddenly than that from heart disease.

Mr. J. B. Hann, 119 W. Maryland St., Indianapolis, Ind., cured after 23 physicians failed. Mrs. Elvina Sanders, Decatur, Neb., after 10 failed. Mr. P. W. Runyan, Spencer, Iowa, after 3 failed. Mr. L. A. Proulx, Lisbon Falls, Me., after 12 failed. Mrs. Mary DeWitt, Greenville, Pa., after 11 failed. Mr. C. E. Smith, Wayne, Mich., after 3 failed. Elizabeth Bond, Eagleport, O., after 4 failed. Other cures from your state sent on request. Many cured after 5 to 10 physicians and professors had pronounced them "incurable."

Send to Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. B, Elkhart, Indiana, at once, for Heart Book, Examination Chart, Opinion and Free Treatment. Describe your disease. Please mention this paper.

NEW GRENADA.

Martha Black is visiting in the family of Ex Commissioner A. M. Corbin in Taylor township.

Mrs. A. D. Keith is confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

B. F. Crider has sold the Crider homestead in New Grenada, to James L. Grissinger.

B. F. Crider and Norman, son of W. J. Crider, who made his home at Henry Rowe's, left for Kansas Monday morning.

Hon. James A. McDonough is no better and still confined to his room.

Our Village Blacksmith, Geo. Shaffer, has treated his shop to a set of new and the latest improved machinery—drill, forge, foot vise, bender, shrinker, etc. His son Harvey has purchased the other ones, and will move from Dublin Mills and open a shop in Fort Littleton on the first of April.

Dow flouck has been out of school and confined to his home for two weeks on account of a foot that he accidentally scalded.

Queen Houck is housed up with a cold, and a threatened attack of quinsy.

The ice houses in New Grenada are still empty, and it looks like they might remain empty for several months to come.

PLEASANT RIDGE.

Plenty of rain and mud. Rev. McGarvey preached to a large and appreciative congregation at Ebenezer last Sunday.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

It takes almost as much money to send a boy through college as it does to support him afterward.

A man's idea of patriotism is thinking he could run the government better than those who are elected to do it.

A girl sleeps with a love letter under her pillow so she won't be able to sleep for wanting to get up and read it again.

If a woman can't worry about anything else, she can about whether she is going to like the baby's wife when it grows up and gets married.

One of the most convincing things about a widow is how, having had all her faith in man shattered by one, she can have it so perfectly for all the others of his race.

The most awful thing to the average man about being cast away alone on a desert island is he would have nobody to lie to.

The queerest thing about women's fashions is how they can shift their waist from around their knees and hang it to their shoulder blades.

It can become irksome to do anything if it is made a duty.

The reason men like to spend money as if they could afford it is they can't.

The difference between a man and a woman is she likes to stand before a mirror openly; he on the sly.

What a girl likes about a love letter is how she wants to keep reading it over after she knows it by heart.

There's nothing makes a woman feel so neglected by her husband as for him not to let her buy his neckties.

The reason a woman brags about how smart her husband is in business is it kind of helps her to believe he is.

The man who wants to put on a girl's rubbers for her before they are married thinks she ought to want to put on his goloshes for him after they are.

Even a man who prefers a prize fight will lie about how he enjoys grand opera.

There's no way a man can help his wife to enjoy herself when she is having a good cry as to tell her to go right on doing it.—New York "Press."

Eat What

You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it. Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength. You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do it is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

For Sale at Trout's Drug Store.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you. It would bankrupt us.

The dollar bottle contains 25 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
