A Delightful Social Time.

Knowing the tendency of Mrs. Mac Sipes to enjoy a good time, her husband and daughter quietly slipped around among their many friends and apprised them of the fact that Mrs. Sipes would reach the 35th milestone of her life, on Saturday, March 8th, and about 60 persons gathered at her home, and so completely surprised Mrs. Sipes that she was scarcely able to do justice to the bounteous supply of good things which her generous friends had brought with them. Richard Schooley and George Sipes tried to get away with a generous supply, but some say that a great quantity of cake stopped on the end of the table where the preacher sat. Who ate the most would be hard to tell. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves, and especially those who engaged in a game of baseball, and those who witnessed the defeat of the "Parson's team" by the "Fatterson Run team," by a score of 27 to 11.

Mrs. Sipes received many useful and beautiful presents, and the departing guests wished their hostess many more such happy events.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mac Sipes and family, U. R. Sipes, wife and son Milton; Rev. and Mrs. McGarvey and son Albert; Roland Sipes, wife and son Paul; Mrs. David Strait and children; W. S. Strait, wife and daughter Olive; David and William Sipes, Mrs. Elme Sipes and son Russell, Lenora and Regina Decker, Wishart Decker, Mrs. John Deshong and children, Gilbert Deshong, wife and son Floyd; Mrs. Nevin Laidig and children, R. P. Schooley, wife and children; Elias Deshong, wife and son Albert; Madeline Palmer, George W. Sipes, wife and son Glenn; Cleveland Strait and wife, John and Harvey Schooley.
