One great evil is to be suppress ed, so far as the strong arm of the law can supress evils, as by an act of Congress which went into effect on April 1, no opinion, nor any mixture or compound containing or representing opium, nor any form, can legally be brought into the United States or any of its outlying possessions, except tor strictly medicinal purposes. Smoking opium will be seized as an illegal importation. The opium habit, and especially opium smoking, has become very contmon, particularly in large cities and those who have become addicted to it are complete wrecks, bodily and mentally, so that the effort to suppress i's use comes none too soon.

Another important element of hope, the Bishop said, lies in the power of social influence.—Har-risburg Patriot.
