CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Seylar has the Drugs, and the price is right.

B. F. Daniels, of Belfast town ship, spent a few hours in town on business yesterday.

Robert Miller, of Chambersburg, is spending a few days this week in the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stoner of this place.

Frank C. Bare, of Fort Littleton, went down to Harrisburg Tuesday morning, and in the evening returned to Chambersburg and attended the Knight Templar's Banquet at the Hotel Wallace, returning home yesterday.

Appropriate Easter services were observed in the Reformed church last Sunday morning and in the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening. The exercises had been selected and prepared with much care, and reflected much credit on those who had the matter in charge. The decorations were especially beautiful.

Ex Sheriff W. H. Pittman, of Thompson township, and Richard Simpson, of North Carolina, were registered at the Fulton House last Friday. They had been over and spent the night before in the home of Michael W. Mellott in Belfast township. Mr. Pittman and Mr. Mellott were neighbors out on the Pacific Coast a few years ago.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the best known pills and the best pills made, are easy to take and act gently and are certain. We sell and recommend them. Trout's drug store.

If you wish to see really large lemons, you need not spend the time going to Florida or California—just come to McConnellsburg. Miss Jesse Linn, of East Main street, who in a small way is raising large lemons, has just gathered one from a tree in her home, that weighs twenty one ounces and a half, measures four inches in greater circumference, and contains juice enough to make lemonade for a circus.

Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It not only heals irritation and allays inflammation, thereby stopping the cough, but it also moves the bowels gently and in that way drives the cold from the system. It contains no opiates. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Earl Taylor, of the U. S. School Ship, Adams, is home for a short vacation. Earl sailed from Philadelphia on the 20th of last January, and in their voyage of almost three months, were in southern waters, going as far as the island of Trinidad, near the mouth of the Orinoco river, South America. They visited the island of Martinique, which was so terribly "earthquaked" a few years ago, and Earl says they saw plenty of evidence of the shake-up. Earl will return to Philadelphia in a few days, and will then sail for a five months' European cruise, during which time they will visit the British Isles, Paris, Mediterranean ports, and have altogether a very interesting voyage.

Public Opinion, one of Chambersburg's enterprising newspapers, will give three Franklin county ladies a free five weeks' trip to Europe this summer. Who the three ladies will be, will be decided by their friends. Any young lady may be named, and then it will be the three receiving the most votes. We notice among the candidates urged by their friends, the names of Miss Stelia Teeter, Miss Blanche Woodal, Miss Mabel Dixon—all of whom have lots of Fulton county friends.

Now, if you want to help one of these young ladies along, just send $15 to the Public Opinion for five years' subscription, and you will be permitted to chalk up 3000 votes for your favorite. If you do not feel like blowing in fifteen, send three dollars, and you will get the Opinion daily for one year with the privilege of 500 votes. Now, get busy, for the schedule named is good only to the 24th of April.

Letter From Philip Barton.

Shipman, Ill., April 12, 1909. EDITOR NEWS:—You will notice by the heading that I have moved. Shipman is a small town on the Chicago & Alton railroad, south of Springfield; and we are located on a fine farm of 400 acres, 1 1/2 mile east of town; so you see we are close to market, and with rural telephones and rural mails daily, we have no reason to complain of farm life. Myself and family have enjoyed good health since coming to this state, and though we often think of the friends we left back among the hills of Old Fulton, we do not think we could go back there to try to farm since we have gotten used to farming here where there are no rocks and no hills. I herewith enclose a dollar to renew my subscription to the old home paper, for fear it will stop, and we do not think we could get along without it. Please change the address from Middletown, Ill., to Shipman, Ill., R. F. D. 22. Yours truly P. J. BARTON.

DOTT.

Rev. Dr. Wade, of Chicago, was a very welcome visitor to this place last week.

Benjamin Bernhardt, near Pearre, Md., visited relatives at this place a few days ago.

Rose Henline returned to her home in Maryland last week, after having spent several weeks with the family of her uncle, J. C. Fisher, near here.

W. R. Garland, of Hagerstown, spent Easter with friends at this place.

Miss Lizzie Lafferty has returned after spending some time in New Jersey.

Several people from this place attended Easter services at Pleasant Grove Sunday morning. James Mellott and wife, near Franklin Mills, spent a day recently with their son Gilbert and family.

Chas. H. Hess expects to build a new house in the near future. Gilbert Mellott has improved his property by having a well drilled and has commenced his new house.

FORT LITTLETON.

Merchant F. C. Bare is in the City this week.

Elliott Fraker is improving his farm by building some good fence.

Ernest Fraker, of Pittsburg, is home on a visit. He says work is slack out there.

Landlord Wilson attended the horse sale at Everett.

Charlie Cowan, of Burnt Cabins, was seen on our streets last Sunday evening.

The sick in our vicinity are all better.

DUBLIN MILLS.

Ed Black and three little daughters spent Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Grissinger.

Our new preacher, Rev. Moyer, passed through Dublin Mills a few days ago on his way to the parsonage at Hustontown.

Frank and Bert Knepper are employed at Gum Clippinger's.

David Laidig, wife and son Jesse spent last Friday with William Miller and family.

Mary Benson spent last Saturday with friends in our town.

Charley Bolinger and family stopped a short time with his mother, as they were on their way to McConnellsburg.

Mrs. Wm. Miller's mother, Mrs. Berkstresser, has come to spend the summer with them.

Mrs. Peter Knepper and daughter Miss Lula spent last Sunday at Wm. Clippinger's.

Quite a number of our young people attended services at Oak Grove last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nancy Madden and son Loraine, passed through our town last Sunday.

Note Burned While Congregation Sang The Doxology.

A large crowd assembled at the Asbury M. E. Church, on the Harrisonville charge, Sunday afternoon, April 11, and were accorded the rare privilege of hearing choice music rendered by the Siloam and Asbury choirs, also a sermon by one of our prominent ministers Dr. Wm. A. Houck of Carlisle, Pa., and witnessing the beautiful and impressive ceremony of burning the note for the parsonage debt. Dr. Houck was presiding elder of this district in 1886, and recalled that he had preached his last sermon as presiding elder in the Asbury church. He gave a most excellent and instructive sermon on "The Resurrection."

A subscription was raised to pay the interest of $24 on the note. The people responded liberally, Asbury and Siloam choirs vying with each other for equal honors. Pauline Hann and Nellie Baer then held the note while Master Wm. Albert McGarvey, with the assistance of Rev. McGarvey, applied the match to the paper. Just as the note started to burn the choir burst forth with the triumphant strains of Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow, the congregation joining and making the walls of old Asbury ring with the joyful sound.
