Mexico City (Special), - According to a dispatch received here, the rioting which occurred at Velardena. a mining camp in Coahuila, last Saturday, was more serious than at first reported, 32 men being killed and many injured.

The trouble was instigated by Father Ramon Valenzuela, parish priest, it is asserted, who lies in a hospital hovering between life and death. Fourteen of the rioters were executed by the government troops and many were imprisoned. Many Americans reside in Velardena, as the camp is controlled by American

The leaders of the mob, which was well organized, avoided attacking Americans or destroying American property.

The fighting occurred when the Jefe Politico of the town, an officer corresponding to an American mayor. attempted to stop a religious procession headed by the village priest, the laws of Mexico forbidding such parades. A thousand parishionera followed the priest, wishing to witness the annual burning of Judas and when the orders of the mayor later burned the house of the mayor, who with his wife escaped by climb ing a rear wall and seeking protection in the American colony.

The rioters then stormed a Chinese hotel, looting it of all liquora and foods and terrorizing the neighborhood during the night by drunken orgy. The police force fired on the mob, many members of which were well armed. The officers were forced to retreat, leaving six of their number dead in the main street.

Later troops arrived in a special train, and a short, fierce fight between troopers and rioters ensued, bringing the total deaths to 32, with a number injured. Father Valenzuela was arrested.

One of his followers smuggled a knife to his cell and the priest stabrestored.

Cobalt mines in the first quarter of the present year shipped a total of 7040 tons of ore. A large part of this is very high grade and the net output of silver is estimated at This country has exported so far this month 12,000 tons of copper and imported 500 tons. Shareholders of the American Milling Company, which absorbed Mari-den, held their annual meeting, reelected directors and voted to can-cel the $1,500,000 of preferred stock. The capital now consist of $3,500,000 common stock. No change in Amalgamated Cop-per's dividend of 50 cents quarterly. The refunding of Southern Railway's floating debt removes another financial cloud. An offer was made by bankers to buy at 100 ¼ and interest the 6 per cent, notes due two years hence.

The Atchison Railroad has secured the right from the Kansas Railroad Commission to issue $73,000,000 of

A Philadelphia firm of brokers was the largest single buyer in Wall Street of Southern Railway stock-It took 15,000 shares.

If Morgan joins the Guggenheims in copper and the Rockefellers an-tagonize the Guggenheims with their new smelting company, the metal aew smelting company, the metal situation will become extremely interesting. The Rockefeller party rule Amalgamated Copper, and it is their men who organized the International Smelting Company. Mr. Morgan has never taken a leading in Morgan has never taken a leading intierest in silver, copper, gold or lead mines, but, of course, the whole world knows that he was the father of the United States Steel Corpora-tion. His going into copper now "looks good" to the curb brokers.
