The Lackawanna Steel Company is one of them.

The advances will enable steel manufacturers to make some profit on their increased business. At the prevailing schedules some of the companies have suffered an actual loss. Improvement, however, in avery branch, but particularly in structural steel, is reported from all quarters. The better conditions are reflected in the stiffening of the price of pig iron, which has recent-y shown an advance of 50 cents. The only inactive feature of the ndustry is the steel rail business n which no cut has been made, or will be made. The railroads have been holding off in the expectation hat a new tariff bill may lead to ome change in the arbitrary price hat has been maintained for several years, but recent events in Washington have given them little hope. The steel men haxe sent photographers ill over the country to take pictures of the roadbeds of the various rail-roads, and some of these pictures show the rails so badly worn that their corporations will be compelled

Weekly Review of Trade and Lates: Market Reports.

Bradstreet's says: "Trade conditions are without much change and irregularity is still the leading feature in business and industrial lines. Results of spring business are as a whole disappointing. There is, however, more doing in wholesale lines for next fall and winter, and the tone in this branch is fairly optimistic.

"In the leading textile industries there is little change to note. Cot-ton goods are reported firm, with most woolen goods strong and raw wool prices hardening. Foreign Foreign wools are in increased sale, and Eastern buyers are reported contracting more freely for Western clips. There is a better tone in the leather market, where prices are firmer both for the finished product and for hides. "Business failures in the United States for the week ended were 247, against 201 last week, 254 in the like week of 1908, 158 in 1907, 177 in 1906 and 193 in 1905. "Wheat, including flour, exports from the United States and Canada for the week aggregate 1,585,778 bushels, against 1,475,506 bushels last week, and 2,417,003 bushels this week last year.'
