Miss Lamb, of Cincinnati, refused to become Mrs. Beefsteak, so a tenderhearted court has allowed the gentleman to take the bride's name on marriage. No doubt he vows and swears to be as gentle as a lamb in the matrimonial harness, and assumes the name to prove his entire sincerity. Besides, the lady will continue to be his "pet Lamb" after the ceremony as well as before.

The pupils of a certain school were asked to write original compositions on "kings." The prize was carried off by a youth who handed in the following: "The most powerful king on earth is Wor-king; the laziest, Shir-king; the one of the worst kings, Smo-king; the wittiest, Jo-king; the quietest, Thin-king; the thirstiest, Dri-king; the slyest, Win-king; the noisiest, Tal-king."—Ex.

Ruth, aged five years, daughter of District Attorney Frank P. Lynch, was visiting her little playmate down at Ahmaaz Clevenger's in the Cove last Monday, and a ladder standing against a strawstack offered a temptation that was too much for Ruth, and she ascended it about ten feet, when the tricky ladder turned with her throwing her to the ground. While pretty badly shaken up, she was not seriously injured, and is now "good as ever."

Mission Debts are Settled. Baptists of the United States are jubilant over their successes in liquidating within a year an indebtedness of $156,000 incurred by their Board of Foreign Missions, and $96,000 incurred by their Board of Home Missions. They attribute their success to the "budget plan" adopted at the Oklahoma Conference one year ago, which recommended a better system of missionary collections.
