All the money in the world will not save you from the troubles which living entails. If you are born into this state of existence, and you cannot very well help it, if it be so decreed, you must suffer its inconveniences. You must deal with flies, and mosquito toes, and March winds, and house cleaning, and fires that won't burn, and the pump frozen up, and your wife's "I told you so," and your husband's "That's just like a woman."

The Waterfall Base Ball Team will hold a festival in Bergstresser's Grove next Saturday evening. The festival will be first class, and there will likely be a game or two in the afternoon. Come and have a good time and help the boys along.

M. John Fix, one of Taylor township's hustling farmers, is wearing a smile that will not rub off, and all because the stork left at his home a few days ago a baby girl that weighed eleven pounds and a half. John is now the proud father of sixteen children and all living but one.

The festival held on last Saturday evening by the Mite Society of the Reformed church, was very successful, and the ladies wish to thank the County Commissioners for their kind permission to use the Court House Hall; also the Band for its appreciated music, and the public at large for their patronage.

The marriage license under the new act of Assembly recently signed by Governor Stuart, fixes the fee at $1 instead of 50 cents, which has heretofore been charged. Persons twenty-one years of age or over will be hereafter charged $1 for a license. Where an applicant is under age, the fee is $1.50, and when both persons are under age, $2 will be charged.

We had a pleasant call yesterday afternoon from M. A. Detwiler, the efficient Rural Free Delivery mail carrier on the route between Three Springs and New Grenada. Mr. Detwiler was returning from Philadelphia, where he had been in the Medico-Chit Hospital a few days for treatment. He hopes soon to be as "good as ever," his treatment being satisfactory.

Mr. William Stone, of Thompson township, met with a serious accident last week. He was cutting timber in Mac Litton's woods for Scott Johnson, and in some way the axe cut him in the fleshy part of the leg just below the knee. It is said the Doctor put seven stitches in the wound. It will likely be some time before Mr. Stone can have the use of his leg.

Editor and Mrs. Herbert L. McKibbin, and the latter's sister Miss Pauline Lisle, left Wednesday for Missouri. They went down to Buck Valley, where they will remain until Friday morning when they will go to Hancock, take a train, and expect to be in Clayton, Mo., by Saturday evening, where Herbert will join his brother Alex. in the management of the St. Louis County Standard a flourishing newspaper in a suburb of the city of St. Louis. Everything is in readiness for Mr. and Mrs. McKibbin to go to housekeeping as soon as they reach their western home. Miss Pauline will continue to have her home with them. They are excellent young people and carry away with them the best wishes of their numerous McConnellsburg friends.

Veteran D. R. Mumma passed through this place last Saturday on his way returning to his home in Hustontown, after having had a very pleasant outing of a week. He went over to Loudon on Friday preceding the Decoration, visited an old comrade, and went up to see Buchanan's monument, then went on to Gettysburg, saw the President and his daughter, heard the President make his speech, and afterward came back to Chambersburg, visited H. W. Karper and Pres Austin, went out with Mr. Austin to Mr. Austin's farm about five miles east of Chambersburg, took a look at Pres's potato patch, and had a good time generally. Mr. Austin has planted 120 bushels of potatoes, and, of course, expects to have enough for his family next winter.

ADVERTISE IN The Fulton County News.

Mrs. Aura M. Pittman.
Mrs. Pittman, more familiarly known as Aura Fisher, and whose sudden death was briefly mentioned in the News of the 27th ult., was the second oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Fisher, and was born in Thompson township, July 16, 1886, and died May 23, 1909, her age being 22 years, 10 months and 7 days.

She is survived by her father, mother and two sisters, Mrs. Scott Deneen, of Buck Valley and Pearl, a younger sister, at home. Aura's sudden and unexpected death was quite a shock to the whole community, as she was a young woman of excellent character, and was widely known throughout the whole county. It is stated that her short illness was one of much suffering, but she was conscious within two hours of her death. The last words spoken by the young woman was a farewell message to her mother to whom she had always been devotedly attached.

Her remains were laid to rest in the graveyard at Rehoboth church, of which church she had been organist for several years. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor Rev. Feltner, of Hancock, and six young ladies—members of the choir—were pallbearers. The grief stricken young husband, who has returned to New York, has the sympathies of his many friends.

THOMPSON.
The memorial services at Antioch were attended by quite a large crowd. The program was interesting and the speaking exceedingly so.
Mrs. Hill, of McKeesport, has been spending some time with her sister Mrs. W. C. Peck and other relatives here.
George Weaver, of near Hancock, and Goldie Waltz, of Sharpe, were quietly married at Berkeley Springs a few weeks ago.
Anna Comer, Mack Pittman, and Benj. Keefer all students of McConnellsburg Normal, spent Saturday and Sunday at their homes here.

Harry Atkinson and wife, of Mercersburg, spent from Sunday until Monday at B. R. Simpson's.
Mrs. Alvin Funk is seriously ill.
Mrs. W. W. Hewitt and little son, and Miss Elizabeth Souders, spent Sunday at Howard Pittman's.

The School Board of Thompson held their settlement on Monday. T. H. Truax was elected Treasurer.
George Sipes has purchased an organ, of L. W. Funk, for their daughter, Pleasant.
Miss Sadie Gordon, who has been in Chicago the past year is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon.

Several people from our vicinity attended Memorial Services at Gettysburg. All report having seen Taft and his daughter.

Continued Doubt.
"How many children have you?" said the tourist affably.
"I dunno exactly," answered the tired-looking woman.
"You don't know?"
"Not for certain, Willie's gone fishin', Tommy's breakin' in a colt, George's borrowed his father's shotgun to go huntin', an' Esmeralda Ann is thinkin' of elopin'." I never know how many I've got till supper time comes, so's I can count 'em."

HONOR FOR THE DEAD.

Interesting Exercises by Warfordsburg Council No. 913, Jr. O. U. A. M. at Mayes Chapel.

DR. WADE and REV. GARLAND ORATORS

The newly installed council of Jr. O. U. A. M. of Warfordsburg, No. 913, conducted the memorial services at Mayes chapel, assisted by the Mayes chapel Sunday school in honor of the Union dead, and brothers buried there. The beautiful weather was favorable to a large turnout, and it is probable that 600 or more persons visited the place during the day. Two addresses were made, one by Rev. Dr. Wade, and one by Rev. Thomas Garland.

The procession was very large, at 1 o'clock all the organizations, which had places in the parade, met at Mayes chapel school house. The march to the cemetery was in the following order: Ball Grove Band, Warfordsburg Council Jr. O. U. A. M.; Mayes Chapel Sunday School—consisting of probably 100 members, all carrying flowers. At the entrance of the cemetery the various organizations formed a hollow column, and through the double lines, the members of Mayes Chapel Sunday School passed, then followed the Council and the Band. Exercises were held in the cemetery prayer being offered by Rev. T. P. Garland, after which a circle was formed around the grave of the council's departed brother, "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung and also played by the Band. Flowers were strewn over the graves of the departed brother and fallen heroes.

From the cemetery the different organizations marched into the church, where services were held in the following order:
Music by the Belle Grove band
Rev. Thomas Garland was then introduced, who spoke along the line of what we owe our country, our flag, and our God.
Music by the band.
Recitation by Rvey Bishop.
Recitation by Lily Lanehart.
Singing Red White and Blue.
Recitation by Goldie Hiles.
Recitation by Vida Golden.
Music by the band.

Dr. Wade was then introduced was held the audience spell bound as he spoke of how impossible it is for our nation to stand if it is divided, and of the friendly relations that have grown between the north and south since the War. The closing piece was then sung by the Council, and the audience dismissed which retired to the grove for amusements, where all had "a dandy time."
This newly instituted Council surely deserves praise for its comfortable and business like arrangements for the accommodation of the public. The Mayes Chapel Sunday school made a nice display, and the Belle Grove Band was all that was expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoner left Tuesday morning for Philadelphia. Mrs. Stoner, formerly Miss Alice Hohman, daughter of our townsman, Leonard Hohman, has been a great sufferer from rheumatism for several years, and she is now being taken to Philadelphia for private treatment in the hope that she may be restored to health. While she has been afflicted for five years or more, during the last three years she has not been able to walk on the street, and much of the time has not been able to walk about the house. Her many friends hope that she may be speedily restored to perfect health.
