INVALID FOR YEARS

Made Well by Curing the Weakened Kidneys. R. A. Davis, 700 Third Ave., Col-ambus, Ga., says: "A slight irregularity of the urine accompanied with pain in the back made me aware that I had kidney trouble. I neglected it, and finally got so bad I had to stop working.

My back ached terribly. I could not rest well at night. I had rheumatic pain and lost all energy. The urine was in an awful condition. I ran down and down until I was an emaciated wreck and an invalid, in bed and out of bed, but in it most of the time. At the time I started with Doan's Kidney Pills I weighed only 125 lbs. As they helped me I kept on until well again and up to my old weight, 170 lbs. In five years I have had no return of kidney complaint."

What's In A Name?

One of the anecdotes which Andrew Carnegie is fond of telling concerns a crabbed bachelor and aged spinster, who one day found them-selves at a concert. The selections were apparently entirely unfamiliar to the gentleman, but when Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was begun he pricked up his ears. "That sounds familiar," he exclaimed. very strong on those classical pieces. that's very good. HOW TO KILL THE ANT.

Exterminate Colony.

A request for information as to how to rld plants and trees of black ants, which was received at the Penn-Division of Zoology, elicited the following from Prof. H. A. Surface, State. Zoologist:

"You can do this by finding the nesting places of these pests and making holes into the interior of them with a sharpened stick like a broom handle, and pouring into each for board and lodging, but were retole one-half tea cup of carbon bisulshide. Fill the hole with earth and cover it with a wet cloth or blanket to keep down the fumes, and the ants will be destroyed at once. This 's the best possible method for destroying ants of any kind.

"After the nest is found, and the queen destroyed in the manner stated, the colony is broken up. Ants in the household are best treated by following their path to the place where they live and pouring in the earbon bisulphide. If it be at the side of a wall, or elsewhere where they cannot surely be located, one can destroy them by pouring a considerable quantity of gasoline, or benzine into he hole made by the side of the

As an egg gets older, says the Spatula, the water contained in the white of an egg evaporates and this causes the empty space at the thick end of every egg to become enlarged. The larger that empty space becomes the more the egg rises in the water, till in course of time it floats.

Eggs, Fresh and Otherwise,

Information comes from Secretary of Agriculture Wilson that henceforth eggs styled "fresh" or "strictly fresh" must live up to their profession. Storage eggs must be labeled as such. If this rule is rigidly enforced-and the States of Nebraska, Minnesota and Pennsylvania are leading the van in punishing violators of the law-there will be some queer experiences. It is a well known fact that many persons have been eating eggs two years old under the caption of "strictly fresh." While any person of sense realizes that "strictly fresh" eggs are almost unobtainable in midwinter and that the development of cold storage facilities has been a boon to the consumer, it goes without saying that free-born man has a right to know what he is getting for his money. "One Kitchen" Houses Fail.

Berlin's "one-kitchen" house, which scores of families living in the same building were to be supplied with meals from a central cooking establishment, are in difficulties after a brief career of a few months.

According to the Tageblatt, the fami-lies of dwellers in these Utopian palaces have had to content themselves with Spartan fare, because the crediprovement. In the iron and steel tors of the proprietary company trade the progress made is, indeed, gradually despotted the buildings of almost everything which was not nailed down. A gang of laborers who were getting anxious about their wages recently raided one of the model kitchens, and took possession of all the provisions. Some of the tenants, who are still loyal to the "one-kitchen" idea, have formed a cooperative union to keep the e tablishments going, but the creditors of the original company have depleted the houses of most of their essential furnishings.—Berlin Correspondence of London Mail.
