THE NEWS.

Domestic

John D. Rockefeller has disposed of a sixteen-story building in Cleve-land to his son for a consideration of one dollar, declaring he would not be bothered with the care of it.

Mrs. Fremont B. Chesbrough. owner of a line of steamers out of Boston, was indicted for smuggling a double bottom having been found in her trunk,

Rev. Morris M. Kemp, former rector of Protestant Episcopal churches in New York, was arrested on a charge of being intoxicated

George N. McCubbin has filed suit at Towson against the P., W. & B. Railroad, claiming $10,000 damages for alleged false arrest. Fire broke out in the residence of George L. Potter, vice president of the B. & O., near Towson, and caused about $500 damages. The proposed merger of all the telephone corporations of the country calls for a capital of $970,000.

Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the leader of the Christian Scientists, was 88 years old yesterday. Glen H. Curtiss, the acronaut, made a flight lasting 31 minutes in a heavier-than-air machine. Leonardo Gebbia, a Biack Hander, was hanged in Hahnesville, La William L. Mellon, of Pittsburg, preferred stockholder of the Missis-sippi Wire Glass Company, filed a bill to have the company enjoined from payment of dividends on com-

Through the efforts of Congress man William Sulzer, of New York, and a large New York bonding syn-dicate President Cabrera is negotiating for the refinancing of Guate-

Only the poor aim of his assailant prevented the assassination of Thomas W. Benoist, a wealthy manufac-turer and club man, of St. Louis, who was attacked in his automobile. Theodore S. Whitmore, acquitted a year ago on the charge of having murdered his wife, was sentenced in York to imprisonment for grand larceny. James A. Patten, who is said by Trade to have made a profit of $300,000, is now on top of Evanston taxpayers. The steamer Prinz Friedrich Wilbeim, which left her New York pler for Bremen, ran aground in the Ambrose Channel. Col. Daniel Moriarity was elected colonel of the Seventh Infantry for life at Camp Deneen, Chicago. The son of a Cuban millionaire committed suicide by shooting after his allowance was discontinued.

National President Thomas L. Lewis, of the United Mineworkers has ordered the 18,000 miners of the Pittsburg Coal Company to disregard the orders of Local President Francis Feehan and not to go on a

A commissioner appointed by Governor Hughes has reported that Louis F. Haffen, president of the Berough of the Bronx, has subordinated his public duties to his political and personal interests.

Nearly a million school children are doomed to die of tuberculosis before they are of age, according to a report of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

Fireman William Parry Brakeman William Brown were killwhen a New York, Susquehanna and Western train was wrecked in a cave-in over a mine near Scranton, Pa. Howlitt Hill was burned to deat and nine persons were injured when gasoline tank exploded and scattered burning oil over an auto par-

Frank E. McMillen, of Altoona, Pa., shot and killed his wife while firing through a window at William E. McDowell, who was calling on Mrs. McMillen.

Foreign

The miners' confederation of Great Britain will ballot its million members as to whether or not a national strike shall be declared in support of the Scotch miners.

The Canadian-St. Lawrence Navigation Company's steamer Profontaine was wrecked in Lake St. Peter. Quebec, but all on board were say-

Several persons were killed or in jured by the earthquake in South-ern Greece. In the town of Havari, 400 houses were destroyed.

Scotland Yard detectives are searching London for a Chinaman who an American identified on the street as Leon Ling.

The widow of Jean Joseph Benjamin-Constant, the French artitst, committed suicide at Versailles. Eight anarchists were exiled by the Swedish government for having conspired to kill the Czar. Miss Grace Johnson, of Buffalo

N. Y., was one of four suffragettes

King Frederick of Denmark and Queen Louise arrived at Peterhof, Russia, and were cordially welcomed by the Czar and Czarina and the Queen of Greece.

The cholera epidemic in St. Petersburg is interfering with the sum-mer tourist travel. The number of new cases varies between 60 and 120

As Mulai Hafid, Sultan of Moroc. co, is a prisoner in the capital, it is believed that international intervention cannot long be delayed. President Compers, of the American Federation of Labor, has been showered with attentions by the French labor leaders in Paris. President Diaz of Mexico will ask the Mexican Congress for permission to meet President Taft at El Paso, Tex., next October.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt was nearly mobbed by Swiss peasants at Uss-

It is reported that Baron Rosen, Russian ambassador to the United States, is to be transferred to Vien-

A British submarine was sunk by the steamer Eddystone off the English Coast and 13 of the crew per

The Nationalists are in control of Teheran, the resistance of the Roy-alists being practically at an end. Many persons were killed and injured in an earthquake in Southern making.

SLOOP CAPSIZES AND TEN PERSONS DROWN

TWELVE ARE SAVED FROM DEATH.

The Little Vessel Ran Into A Terrific Squail While Returning From An Outing And Turned Over -Tug Larmont Rushed To The Rescue And With Life Lines And Buoys Saved Ten-The Survivors Exhausted.

New York (Special) .- Ten persons sized by a sudden squall in lower New YER Day.

The captain of the Roxana and the 12 survivors were picked up under great difficulties in a rough and choppy sea by the tug Lamon The Roxana, with her skipper aptain Samuelson, was chartered a Ulmer Beach, Brooklyn, by a party of Swedes from Brooklyn for a sai across the bay to Midfand Beach. Staten Island, and back. The first leg on the voyage was made without mishap, and all hands piled asnore to make merry. Beer was served, and some of the survivors could give but a hazy account of the accident. All afternoon there was a stiff breeze from the southwest, which a nasty cross sea. Toward 4 o'clock the Roxana, reeling home-ward across the bay under all the sail good judgment would permit to be carried, slipped into a squall. She lay over until the copper plates glis-tened in the sun, as the angle of the deck steepened to the boiling water in her lee. The women screamed and bulky envelope containing papers.

scrambled for the upper rail.

The captain struggled to slack away his sheet, but there was no time for measures of relief. In one mo ment the Roxana was bottom up and the foam was black with bobbing In another the Roxana had vanished, and one by one the heads began to follow her.

Fortunately the tug Lamont was keeping sharp lookout. Captain vault. Keyes saw the sloop heel over in the light o gust and failed to come back. In-stantly he headed for the spot where the key, and will open the box later. the Roxana had been, but before he could reach her 10 of the passengers had gone down. Life lines and buoys were thrown to those still affoat, and after a few minutes of were taken aboard the Lamont.

hospital on Staten Island.

Few coherent accounts of the scene after the capsizing of the boat could Among the latter was Willis Sayler be obtained. All hands it seems a brother of the slain man. tried to cling to the overturned boat, but as the little vessel sunk their only when attacked by the banker plight was precarious. Of the sur- with a hatchet. Evidence casting a

A Rescue Off Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J. (Special) .-Keeper Bowen, in charge of the Cedar Creek Life-saving Station. ing his meals at the Sayler table and sleeping at his own home. There Nix, in which Capt. Charles Haddon and his family were making a sea time of the shooting John C. Grun-policemen, on foot as well as mount-trip, broke down two miles off shore. den, father of Mrs. Sayler, and Ira

Captain Bowen was watching the Grunden, her brother. The older little boat through his glasses, when Grunden came recently from Ardhe saw the craft stagger in the seas. more, Ok., to become an inmate of duty ministering to the injured or the dragged the surf boat down the Soldiers' Home at Danville, Golassisting the searchers in their work through the breakers and rode alone die Sayler was sent away by her out to the launch. With the assist-ance of the lone lifesaver Captain Sunday evening John Grunden Haddon was able to hold his boat went to ask Mr. Sayler, who was oc- as the oppressive dust from the de-up into the seas until a line was cupying a rocking chair on the bris. Fighting hard to penetrate the passed to the lifeboat, when the two lawn, to come in and play cards ruins were an army of people, men towed the disabled boat to Isagainst Dr. Miller and Mrs. Sayler. The crowds gathered quickly and Launch Upsets; Four Drown. Cincinnati.-A report says that at least four persons were drowned in the overturning of a launch at Coal Haven, above Fort Thomas, Ky. Several persons are also reported miss-

NO BIG BOND ISSUE NOW,

But Treasury Has Authority To Float Securities When Needed,

Washington, D. C. (Special) .-The bond resources of the Treasury Department are ample, declares Secretary McVeagh in a statement issued to the Treasury, and even if a London news bureau from Athens ticket seller, terrified by the crash of Congress authorizes 3 per cent. bonds says that a violent earthquake has to cover the entire cost of the Pana- occurred in Southern Greece, resultma Canal less the amount already issued the bonds "will only be issued as required."

The Secretary states that the bond resources now include $45,000,000 of unissued Panama bonds and $100,000,000 of unissued 3 per cent. certificates.

There will be no issuance of the entire amount immediately, and it was even stated that while the present situation warrants immediate steps to safeguard the Government by securing authority for the bond issue no decision has been finally reached as to issuing any amount of the bonds, and a change in the tide of the revenue might make it unnecessary to put any of them on the

Jefferson Davis' Daughter Dead Colorado Springs, Colo. (Special).

-Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, died at her home after an illness of six months.

Fatal Row Among Thieves, Columbus, O. (Special) .- A man giving his name as John Brown and his home as Nebraska died in St. Francis' Hospital from a bullet wound sustained in a quarrel with two confederates after a street holdun. They had stolen a watch and a small amount of money and had gone to a rear room of a saloon to divide the spoils. John Nolan, a bartender, who tried to head off the two fleeing men after the shooting of Brown, was himself wounded.

Kisses In Divorce Court.

New Castle, Pa. (Special) .- Kisscided they are unable to live happily but Louis and Sophia Kiss have deafter trying it for more than five years, and Sophia has applied for divorce. They were married May 10, 1994, and lived together until June 17 of this year. The wife alleges Rail home, was killed. Following 1994, and lived together until June 199 cided the yare unable to live happily 1904, and lived together until June 17 of this year. The wife alleges her husband treated her badly, in-stead of living up to his rather un-usual name, and declares that her name is only a mockery in her pres-ent plight.

A BANKER SHOT SEVEN PEOPLE KILLED BY HIS WIFE'S ADMIRER

Dr. J. B. Miller.

Wife Fled From Home During The Shooting-Admits She Is Fond Of The Physician-Doctor A Frequent Visitor At The Sayler Home. Banker Had Endured Conditions To Protect Daughter From Scandal-Had Expected A Tragedy For Sometime Past.

Watseka, Ill. (Special) .- Idolizaion of his daughter Goldie, 17 years were drowned, two of them little old, is said to have caused J. B. girls, when the excursion sloop Rox- Sayler, vice president of the First ana, carrying 22 passengers, was cap- National Bank of Crescent City. Ill., to suffer in silence the domestic ragedy that led to his death Sunay night at the hands of Dr. R. Miller, who for many months had aid ardent attention to the bank-'s wife, mother of Goldie Sayler

While the real story of the slay ng of Sayler will not be decided on intil a jury passes on the case was intimated that Sayler had made himself something of a martyr to rotect the name of his daughter and had, at last, it is alleged, been im molated by the man who invaded his ome.

According to W. R. Nightingale eashier of the bank of which Mr. Sayler was vice president, the devoted father determined to suffer in silence rather than take any action which would involve his child in no

"He seemed to fear some tragic olution of the situation," said Mr. Sightingale. "Whenever he left the Nightingale. city during the last year or so if vas his habit to seek privacy, after which he would reappear with a Should anything happen to me, always told me, 'open this packet and follow to the letter the instructions contained therein.' After each trip but the last, he destroyed the paper upon his return. He was away a little while ago, but when he came back he falled to follow this practice. That packet, I believe, is ed in his private box in the bank's Whether it will shed any light on the tragedy which ended his possibly after the funeral tomorrow

That Dr. Miller stood in real danger of lynching is asserted by Nightingale and many others. More than a hundred men thronged the More brisk and anxious work all in sight streets of the usually quiet village of Crescent City trying to organize The survivors, thoroughly exhausted an attack on the jail at Watseka. taken to his home by cooler persons whose counsel finally prevailed

Dr. Miller's defense is that he shot vivors, seven were men and six were shadow on this statement was given at the inquest. Sayler was slain about 10 o'clock Sunday night, Mrs. Miller, wife of the doctor, had left a few days pre-viously to visit her parents at Sharon, Pa., and Dr. Miller was tak-

His refusal, Mrs. Sayler states. was due to his belief that she and the doctor attained success at the game by a system of signals

Grace Davis and other girls and Godfrey Ruhle stopped to chat for a moment with Mr. Sayler at the front just a few minutes before he was slain. He was in a good humor. and Eleventh Street were roped off They had left Sayler about three minutes when they heard the fatal

EARTHQUAKE IN GREECE.

Many Persons Killed And Injured And Villages Destroyed.

London (Special) .- A dispatch to ing in considerable loss of life and damage to property.

Twenty persons are reported dead and 100 injured in one village, three other villages suffered heavily. The dispatch adds that when details are learned it is likely that the casualty list will be greatly increased.

earthquake has occurred in the Province of Elis, the capital of which is Pyrgos. Several villages were destroyed and many people perished. The material loss heavy.

A Black Hander Hanged.

Hahneville, La. (Special) .- Leonardo Gebbia, an Italian, the first person ever sent to the gallows in Louisiana for a crime committed in Europe.

A Philadelphia iron man said.

A Philadelphia iron man said. Society, was hanged here. He received the last sacraments of his keener than at any time for over religion from a priest.

Disease Caught From Cows.

Ogdensburg, N. Y. (Special) .-The family of George Edwards Prescott, of Ontario, near here, are all down with an illness believed to be anthrax. Prescott recently lost three cows by anthrax, and in caring for them developed all the symptoms himself. Now his wife and their two-weeks-old babe, two other children and a hired man are iii. A government inspector has ordered the carcasses of the cows dug up and Lightning Hits House 11 Times Sante Fe, N. M. (Special) .- News of a remarkable play of lightning at an isolated point in Chaves County Sunday has just reached here.

er for Europe. Trade Review: portant company operating all its open hearth furnaces full capacity Rail home, was killed. Following this at intervals of 1 minute 11 more bolts struck the house, each shock-ing an occupant, mough not fatally cannot produce enough steel to sup ply its finishing mills. No large ton age can be bought anywhere in the There were 13 persons in the house at the time of the storm.

SAY ELSIE SIGEL BY FALLING WALLS

Flying Bricks.

HEAT OVERCOMES THE RESCUERS.

Building On Busy Philadelphia Corner Collapses With Terrific Roar

Killing Workmen And Injuring

Passersby-Nurses And Physicians

Work For Hours With The Victims - Market And Eleventh

Streets Are Roped Off And Traf-

VICTIMS OF TRAGEDY.

Philadelphia on Market and Elev-enth Streets, killing seven and injuring twenty-five persons, one sub-foreman of carpenters,

The dead are: Charles Larsen, 45 years old,

Peter Fritz, 56 years, carpen-

Paul Hanning, 49 years, labor-

Alfred Davis, 18 years old, ne-

Sigmund Lansberg, 23 years

Unknown man terribly man-

James Haggerty, 30 years old,

Philadelphia (Special) .- In one of at a time when thousands of pedestrians were passing to and fro, the northeast corner of Eleventh and Market Streets, which was being reconstructed for the United Gas Im-

a terrific roar shortly after 1 o'clock burying or pinning beneath the and 23 more or less seriously in-floors were shored up by heavy tim-structure was loosened.

The crash came without warning and narrow escapes were many. The roar of the collapse was heard for fled in desperation to points of refuge, as it was thought that an explosion had occurred. When rea-flocked to the ruins and began a series of thrilling rescues. Before professional aid could be mustered automobiles, teamsters' wagons and all sorts of nearby vehicles were fill-ed with the dead or injured and hur-

and nurses responded, and for hours after the accident they remained on of rescue. It was a sweltering bot day and several of the rescuers were overcome by the heat as well the injured was the task of keep ing the congested masses of people wreckage. The walls which were left standing looked unsafe, but the people surged forward, heedless of the arrived, however, both Market Street and traffic for the afternoon was diverted to other thoroughfares form and on the tracks.

When the police reserve of the entrance on Market

Street and rolled out over the plat-bricks and stones that poured down

A 3-TON "HIPPO" GOES DOWN.

Colonel Roosevelt Fells Him With

His Big Gun.

Naivasha, Africa (Special) .- The odore Roosevelt, who is at present

Naivasha from the ranch of Capt.

bringing down a big hippopotamus.

IN THE WORLD OF FINANCE

"Best crops the country ever had,

000,000 of new 4 per cent. preferred stock in London at 102.

ket for 50,000 tons of rails.

burg Railroad.

the stairway, fainted in her office.

from surrounding too closely ministering to the injured or ried to hospitals danger.

three tons.

Bystanders and passersby

Those killed were workmen em-

The fatally injured:

-, 50 years old, a

A brick building collapsed in fic Ceases,

of them fatally

gro laborer.

old, laborer,

Alvin -

fractured skull,

Swede.

gled.

jured.

ENDED HER LIFE Tragic Ending of a Day of Merry- J. B. Sayler Killed in Kis Home By Twenty-Five Others Are Injured By Officials, However, Scout Idea She He is Given Refuge in Russian Ensign Alken Killed On the North Took Poison.

ernment And Masons Are Shielding Leon Ling, But Chinese Consul At New York Ridicules The Story-Leon Supposed To Have Fled To Escape Blame,

Denver, Col. (Special) .- It is stated by Chinese here that the Chinese government, following the report of the Chinese consul at New York upon the Elsie Sigel case, has set the seal of official approval upon the protection of Leon Ling by the Chinese Masons and that he will never be found with the assistance of his countrymen.

A Chinese newspaper having the unofficial sanction of the Chinese government has reached Denver, which the alleged report of the Chinese consul in New York is printed in full. This report followed an investigation made by the consul at the direction of the authorities at The report, after citing the facts of the case as generally known, states that it has been discovered that Elsie Sigel was Ill and went to Leon Ling's room seeking medical aid. In a moment of desperation she took her own life by poison. Ling, the report states, was absent at the time, and found the dead body of the girl upon the bed on his return. Frightened by the discovery, he called Chung Sin, says the report and advised him that should be tell the truth to the police regarding the finding of the body he would not be believed and probably would be the busiest sections of the city and lynched. Frightened by this view of at a time when thousands of nedes. the case, Ling, it is stated, adopted desperate efforts to dispose of five-story brick building at the abouts.

The report of the Chinese consulat New York embodying these statements was sent to Peking more than provement Company, collapsed with three weeks ago. The report evidently is regarded by the Chinese au-thorities as revealing the truth of the ruins 32 persons, 7 of whom are dead, 1 is missing, 1 fatally injured case, and the Chinese Masons are given permission and encouragement to conceal Leon Ling.

A member of the Chinese colony here said:
"Only God can find Leon Ling now. He is under the protection of ployed by Sax & Abbott, contractors. The building had a frontage of about 25 feet on Market Street and Masons and is being aided by them extended about 75 feet on Eleventh in his effort to escape the police Street. The two lower floors had been torn out and the three upper Unless further facts come to light proving his guilt he will never be delivered to the officers by his own Steel girders were bracing the people. shoring. It is supposed that by moving one of the girders the entire The Chinese here intimate that ### any assurance by the Chinese government that the Chinese of this country will aid in the search for the fugiof salt.

GIRLS AS FOOTPADS.

Rob Victim Of Dime At Point Of

Revolver. Chicago (Special). - Two sisters, the elder 16 years old, held up Charles Natel in South Chicago and with an empty revolver forced him to give up 10 cents under penalty

A general alarm was sounded and of death. Natel gave up the dime and then ran to a nearby police station. returned with a police escort, which captured the holdup girls. When taken before the sergeant the sisters treated the whole affair as a the last year. joke, laughingly recalling the nerv-

Between giggles they gave their names as Helen Derowska, 16 years old, and Bertha, 13 years old. They Natel under threat to kill him, de-claring they wanted an ice cream The girls, both small, stout and good looking, said they recently had visited a Wild West show and had become imbued with the idea that robbery was an easy way to obtain money.

BEE STING QUICKLY FATAL.

Iowa Woman Bitten On Temple, Dies Twentz Minutes Later.

For a time service on the subway line, which runs along Market Street a few feet distant from the cellar of the building, was tied up. Some of the debris tumbled down the Mason City, Iowa (Special) .-Mrs. Mary J. Buck, a resident of Garrison, died 20 minutes after being stung by a bee.

A hive of bees belonging to neighbor swarmed and one stung Mrs. Buck as she was sitting on the porch of her home. She called for help, and was carried into the house. Physicians were summoned, but be-fore they could reach her she was dead. Doctors here say that it was the first instance they knew of death resulting so quickly from the sting

Killed By Stepdaughter, Raleigh, N. C. (Special) .- Joe

on the south shore of Lake Pulley was killed with an ax at his home near Selma, His skull was crushed in several places. It is Richard Attenborough, succeeded in ringing down a big hippopotamus. charged that his 12-year-old step-daughter, Marie Pulley, struck him as he lay sleeping, as he threatened to whip her and drive her from

London (Special). - What is be-

says President Garling, of the St. lieved to be the highest price ever President W. E. Corey, of United paid here for a domestic cat, namely States Steel, has arrived home from $5.25, was given by Mrs. Lynas, of an American citizen at N Chicago, for Rob Roy II., England's nec had been exterminated champion male chinchilla Persia, the "The demand for steel billets is now winner of numerous prizes. The animal will be sent to the United States on the steamer Majestic Canadian Pacific marketed $5.

A Dirigible Torpedo.

Stockholm (Special). - A new Cambria Steel has received an ord- dirigible torpedo recently patented scheme er for 1,000 all steel hopper cars by a Swedish inventor, has aroused Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsgreat interest in Swedish naval cir-The projectile is operated by Of the 38,000 Connellsville coke electricity. It is said to have a range ovens almost 30,000 are now in blast of 5,000 yards, and its course can which is a larger number than in any week since the middle of 1907. be altered, while submerged, from the point of departure at A movement is on foot among of the operator. Furthermore, it Philadelphia banks to request Concan be exploded whenever desired, gress to exempt them from the pro- and it has a speed of 30 knots an posed corporation tax of 1 per cent. hour at any depth. Western Rallroads are in the mar-

A Yacht Burned At Sea. Vineyard Haven, Mass. (Special)

"We would have more and better While leading the fleet of 14 seabusiness if we had less politics in this country," remarked President E. B. Thomas as he boarded a steamgoing motor boats into Vineyard Sound, in the long-distance power boat race from New York to Marble-The following is from the "iron head, the 40-foot cruiser Kitcinque, Trade Review:" "There is almost a billet famine to the East. One imof the Crescent Athletic Club and Ney York Motor-boat Club, caught fire at miduight three miles south of Vineyard Sound Lightship and was destroyed. The crew of six men took to the tender and later were rescued by a passing schooner.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA IS DETHRONED

Protection For Deposed Shah And His Family Furnished Under An Arrangement Between British And Russian Legations - Cossacks To Join The Nationalists In Hunting Down Looters - Persian Capital Still Agitated.

Teheran (Special). - Mohammed All, Shah of Persia, was dethroned and men of the American warships and the Crown Prince, Sultan Ahmed in this port united in paying solemn Mirza, was proclaimed Shah by the military honors to the late Ensign National Assembly, composed of the Hugh Kerr Alken, of the armored chief Mujtehids and the leaders of the Nationalist forces, in the presence of an immense crowd in Parliament Square.

Mohammed All has taken refuge in the Russian summer legation, at Zerzende, where he is under the protection of detachments of Cossacks and Sepoys, dispatched to Zer-zende by the Russian and British diplomatic representatives. The new Shah is yet in his minority, and Azad Ul Mulk, head of the Kajar family, has been appointed regent. Sipah-lan investigation of whether dar, one of the most active leaders | generated in the coal hold. of the movement, has taken office as minister of war and governor of Teheran

General Liakhoff, through whose negotiations with the Nationalisis the surrender was effected, was escorted by mounted Bakhtlari rifle men to the Parliament Building and was greeted with loud applause by the people. He was informed that he might remain temporarily in command of the Cossack brigade, provided he strictly obeyed the orders of body and conceal his own where-abouts. Russian legations.

The shops and private houses oc-cupied by the Shah's soldiers have been plundered and the residence of the manager of the Indo-European Telegraph Company has been looted. but no other homes of foreigners were invaded.

With the exception of desultory firing by a handful of loyal Bakhtiaris in a lane near the British legation. Teheran is quiet. The townspeople are taking quite calmly the sudden change in rulers, while the Nationalists are resting, after four sudden change in rulers, while the Nationalists are resting, after four days of incessant fighting in the streets of a second only became known on his death. The body will be embalmed and seri streets of a strange town.

Russian and British legation guards are stationed at the Russian summer legation, where the Shah has sought safety, and the Cossacks have placed guns around the building as a precaution against a possible attack should be taken with a grain by the Nationalists, who, however, declare that they have no intention of taking a step which might cause serious complications.

BY TELEGRAPH

The postal money-order business who attempted to seize him and business grown very noticeably during ied the knife in his own breast. Some friction has risen between the White House and the Capitol, President Taft resenting the effort of the Republican leaders to induce old, and Bertha, 13 years old. They admitted taking the money from corporation-tax amendment.

Natel under threat to kill him, de-Baitimore Surety Companies are him to consent to the defeat of the Deficiency Bill which requires > rates for government employes or The War Department announced the assignment of the West Point graduates to the various branches the army service Representative Vreeland was injured while practicing for the ball game between the Democratic and Republican congressmen. President Taft discussed the gov ernment's financial situation with Senator Aidrich and Representative Payne. The State Department announce to appointments in the consular serv and President Diaz, of Mexico has been practically arranged. The Department of Agriculture candidates who have become eligible has instituted 13 prosecutions under the Pure Food Law. The sessions of the Sutton court of inquiry will undoubtedly be public. Assistant Secretary of the Navy

The two chauffeurs have been subpensed to attend. Capt. James C. Gilmore, U. S. N. who is now in command of the bat-tleship filinois, has been assigned to command the armored cruiser Maryland

Albro L. Burnell, American vice consul at Barranquilla, Colombia, said the insurrection against the ex isting government had been termina-James Bryce said that the band of pirates which recently captured an American citizen at North Bor-In the conference on the tariff bill the representatives of the House agreed to accept the Senate cus-toms court provision.

President Taft conferred with Mr Payne and Senator Aldrich relative to the future of the corporation tax

Calfornians have objected to Mexico's agreement with American races and the concession may be rescind-man treaty for the reciprocal protec-.The Interstate Commerce Commisful discrimination to charge for bag-

E. C. Brockmeyer, of St. Loius, was appointed to a confidential position in the Postoffice Department.

Jewell H. Aubere, for the past seven or eight years Washington representative of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, died in Washington of beart disease.

Commissioner Williams visited Secretary Nagel and described the work at Ellis Island.

Out of the 472 employes at the immigration station at Ellis Island 139 have been declared inefficient.
W. Bayard Cutting, Jr., resigned as secretary of the American Legation at Tangier. Morocco.

EXPLOSION ON BIG BATTLESHIP

Carolina

Denver Chinese Hear Chinese Gov- HIS SON IS CHOSEN AS RULER. A CANDLE IGNITES COAL GAS.

Accident Nearly Causes The Destruction Of An American Warship In Italian Waters-Captain Marshall's Prompt Action Keeps Flames From Magazine - Aiken Kept Sailors From Going Into Danger With

Naples (Special). - The officers cruiser North Carolina, who died as the result of injuries sustained in an explosion on board the cruiser. The religious ceremony was conducted on board the North Carolina by the Rev Greenman. Marshall, commander of the squadron, delivered a touching address, highly praising Ensign Aiken, who was a victim to duty.

From an investigation which was instituted by Captain Marshall it was learned that Ensign Alken attempted an investigation of whether gas was Wishing to face the risk alone, he instructed the sailors to keep behind him. When he entered he was not able to detect any odor of gas, and one of the men carrying a lighted candle, came forward. Unfortunately he slipped and his light in contact with the gas that was lying in a low level. Eusign Aiken dragged out by the men, but died some hours later. An alarm was immediately given after the explosion, and the commanding officer with a force of men stamped out the fire, which otherwise might have communicated to the received the full force of the explosion which followed. He was powder magazine. Aiken was picked up in a pitiful condition. He was terribly burned about the whole body and head. The North Carolina was anchored at the Santa Lucia Harbor, half a mile from the docks, and so the explesion passed unnoticed. Aiken was carried to the infirmto New Orleans.

HIS TERRIBLE REVENGE. A Russian Soldier's Attack Upon

His Torturers. St. Petersburg (Special) .- The system of flogging, which is still used as a means of punishment in the socalled disciplinary battalions of the Russian Army, led to a tragedy at Miedyied, Novgorod Province, A soldier was condemned to 50 lashes for stealing. After the first few blows, with the blood streaming from his shoulders, the man begged to be released. This was refused and he wrenched A bulletin issued by the Bureau of Statistics shows some queer articles that form an important part in international commerce.

The was refused and he weekled himself free, at the same time drawing a concealed knife. He leaped upon the supervising officer, Captain Kavalerosky, and stabbed him to death. Then he slashed two soldiers who attenued to sake the world but the same time drawing a concealed knife.

> JOHN D. MAKING OIL BUTTER. Standard Now Turning Out Brown who attempted to seize him and bur-

Paste That Doesn't Get Rancid. Alton, III. (Special). - The first roll of petroleum butter, the Standard Oll's latest turned out at the Wood River rebonding companies to reduce their finery near here.

Preparations are being made to manufacture the product here and the machinery has been shipped The new product will be known petrol butter." It is said "petrol to be of the same consistency as lacteal butter, but brown in color. It does not become rancid with age.

Town Named For Cleveland

Washington, D. C. (Special) .-"Clevelandia," in honor of former President Cleveland, is to be the name of the municipality of Bella Vista de Palma, Brazil, according to news received at the State Department. This homage is paid to Mr. Cleveland because of his services as arbitrator of the question of boundary lines between Brazil and the Ar-

For Airship-Railroad Line. Berlin (Special) .- Count Zeppelin is in Berlin negotiating with the is strongly in favor of wide public- Prussian railroad administration for a working arrangement between his proposed airship passenger lines and gentina.

the railroads by which railroad sta-tions are to be enlarged to serve as shelters for airships. This is considered less costly than the erection of special airship sheds in the principal cities of Germany. Lightning Strikes Ball Crowd. Lead, S. D. (Special) .- While watching a ball game between the Deadwood and Lead teams, Weston Fry and Thomas Harvison were killed, and eight others were seriously hurt by lightning during a passing thunderstorm. A panic was narrowly averted in the crowded grand-

Missionaries Warned

Lagos, British West Africa (Special).-The native chief of the town of Oyo, in Nigeria, whence the Rev. S. G. Pinnock, a missionary of the Foreign Mission Board of the South Ratification of the American-Ger- Baptist Convention, was expelled recently, has sent a letter to the American missionaries notifying them that if they desire to return to Oyo sion decided that it is not an unlaw-ful discrimination to charge for bag-gage in excess of 150 pounds. they must enter into a written agree-ment with bim not to interfere with his methods in governing his people.

> Shot By His Flancee. Tolede, O. (Special). - Joseph

Stasklewcz, aged 21, was shot and killed by Helen Mackowiak, aged 18. The couple were to have been married within a month, and Miss Mackowiak was at Staskiewcz's home, when he handed her his revolver for inspection. In some manner the weapon was discharged and the shot was fired into the man's brain.

Chao Ping-chun, vice president of the Chinese ministry of interior, has been ordered to retire, owing to his onium habits.