The following day he started for Ft. Loudon and in crossing the township bridge near this village it went down with a crash; fortunately no one was hurt. Methodist Day, Thursday, July 29th
Lakemont Park, Altoona.

The completed program for Methodist Day, July 29, presents one of the most attractive lines of speakers that the committee has been able to secure for years past. One of the noticeable features in the last years has been the presence of young men of the church who have been brought on for this popular annual gathering. This year two young men are engaged and the third is decidedly "youngerly," sprightly and buoyant to a charming degree.

Dr. Don S. Colt, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has made a name here years ago, sought for for more than six years, comes for the morning.

That irrepressible and vivacious orator, Secretary Robert Forbes, D. D., of Philadelphia, will make the afternoon address.

For the popular evening hour the distinguished and gifted president of the New York preachers' meeting, Dr. Allan Mac-Rossie, has agreed to come.

The musical feature has a departure. Instead of a combined chorus, Hollidaysburg choir will sing at the morning hour; Tyrone afternoon, and Juniata and Simpson, under Professor Williams, at night.

Must Keep Seat.

A decision of the court of appeals of New York, in a case which grew out of a dispute over the right to a car seat, holds that placing a piece of baggage in a seat does not pre-empt the space. The court rules that passenger cars are to carry persons, not baggage, and that filling a seat with luggage confers no title to the seat on the owner of the grip. In other words, if a traveler wants to make sure of sitting in an ordinary day coach, he or she must take a seat and hang on to it.

The Walnut Grove Campmeeting.

The Walnut Grove Campmeeting will be held this year from August 6 to 15. Rev. F. W. McGuire, Saxton, Pa., is the General Manager. All persons desiring information should write to him at above address. Admission will be charged all teams and a silver offering will be lifted on Sunday. Footmen will be admitted free unless they ride near the ground on a hack that does not enter. Special tickets will be sold to tent holders. Hooks must pay special rates. Regular rates, ten cents for one horse; fifteen cents for two. The management has been driven to this because certain persons have been trying to make revenue from the campmeeting. The General Manager of the campmeeting, does all his work free. Not a single person draws a salary except the police. Work has been done cheap and the religious workers who are present will work for their fare and board. Notwithstanding this, the expenses of the camp will be nearly three times as great as they were three years ago. We are trying to give the public better accommodation. We have a good boarding house; the ground is well lighted. We have fine water and grounds well cleaned. We ask the public for their support. Drunkenness will not be tolerated but all sober people are invited to attend. All roads leading to the camp will be closed in order that toll may be lifted at gates but any person desiring to use the roads during camp can get a pass to use them for his "lawful and ordinary business." Having built up the campmeeting, we believe that we have the right to all legitimate revenues. We want to give all their lawful rights; we ask all to give us the same. No one is receiving a cent of revenue from the camp. It is a place of religious worship only and all we desire is revenues enough to carry on the work. We appeal to the public for their support. We ask you to attend and we ask you to patronize our boarding house and restaurants. We will do the best we can for you; we ask the same in return.

Presbyterian Reunion.
The Pen-Mar Presbyterian Reunion, Thursday, July 29th, promises to be a great success. The Rev. Charles Stelze, "The Apostle of Labor," Superintendent of the Department of Church and Labor of the Northern Presbyterian Church, born in the tenement house district of New York, Sweat Shop Worker at eight, Newsboy, Mechanist, Author, Lecturer, Preacher; Member International Association of Machinists; Director Department of Christian Sociology in Bible Teachers training school, New York; Chairman Committee on Church and Labor, Federation of Churches and Christian Organizations, New York, will speak on "The Church's Opportunity." The following statements will tell who he is: Philadelphia Press—"Plainly, he is the man for the job."
Trenton Gazette—"Such a man would gain an audience most anywhere, which would follow him to riot were he in such a business."
William T. Ellis—"This man Stelze, is the liveliest wire in the present day organized Christianity."
John Mitchell—"I am very much interested in the work you are doing."
The music will be of the very best character; solos will be sung by Mr. A. G. Shontz, of Harrisburg; Mr. W. G. Underwood, Chambersburg, Pa., and Miss Rose McKeegan, of Carlisle. There will be a trio by the Misses McKeegan, Dunkinson and Mowers of Carlisle, a number of beautiful selections by the Verdi Male Quartette of Carlisle, and a splendid orchestra program, by the Pen-Mar Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. John C. Bohl. A College Hour for a conference of these interested in this section will close the afternoon program.

Presbyterians, be loyal to the denomination, and happy in a beautiful day at glorious Pen-Mar.
