Arrange your work so that you can attend Saturday, August 21st at the Redmen's Carnival at McConnellsburg, meeting your friends and neighbors and enjoying yourself seeing and hearing the excellent program arranged. Watch for the big bulls. Remember for the day and date.

Take Kodol at the times when you feel what you have eaten is not digesting. Kodol digests what you eat, so you can eat sufficiently of any good, wholesome food, if you will just let Kodol digest it. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mat Montgomery, coming to town from Waterfall, with J. L. Grissinger, yesterday, lost his coat some place between James Chesnut's and Grant Baker's. The finder will confer a favor by returning the same to A. N. Witt's store at Waterfall.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the pleasant, safe, sure, easy little liver pills. A salve you may always depend upon in any case where you need salve, is DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve—especially good for piles. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. George Smith, of Belden, Bedford county, was badly injured by a bursting glass jar, Wednesday evening of last week. She was putting up fruit, when the jar which had been filled burst. The fragments of glass struck her on the right forearm inflicting an ugly wound. The arteries were severed and the muscles and tendons cut completely off.

J. L. Grissinger, of New Grenada, came to town yesterday with a heavy load of people for a day's outing. The party consisted of H. H. Bergstresser and wife, of Waterfall; W. L. Eisaman and family, of McKeesport, and Mat Montgomery, of Pittsburg, Pa. Mr. Eisaman and family have been camping near Zion church during the past six or seven weeks, and they thought they would not like to return to the western part of the state without first making a pilgrimage to the County Seat of Fulton.

The death knell of the peach basket hat has been sounded, and there is coming into fashion from Paris the toque russe. Into the tomb of fashion will go with the peach basket hat all the rats and puffs now decorating the heads of women. But dear man need not shout with joy because of the demise of the peach basket hat. This new Russian toque or turban will obstruct the view almost as much as the style of last year. It will set a foot and a half high on a woman's head, the brim will half cover the ears, and will fall in the back to the shoulders of the wearer. It is somewhat on the style of the Cossack hat, and has a resemblance to the tall fur hat of the Hussars.

Frank C. Mumma, of Wilkensburg, recently visited his relatives in this vicinity. The picnic in Edwards' grove on Saturday was a pleasant event and much enjoyed by those present. Picnics present visions of fried chicken, apple pie, sweet cakes, watermelon, ice cream, lemonade, and other good things. Your scribe, not being present, had to be content with the visions and wish that for any others who could not be there, at some other time realization may succeed anticipation.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

Miss Ethel E. Edwards Becomes the Bride of William H. Barnett—Both Residents of Wells Valley.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amon Edwards, near Eid, on Wednesday evening of last week, when Miss Ethel Edwards became the bride of Mr. William H. Barnett, Rev. Martin C. Fleagle of Three Springs, performing the beautiful ceremony that made the happy young people husband and wife. Quite a number of the relatives and near friends of the contracting parties were present to help celebrate the joyous occasion. On Friday evening, of the same week, the groom's parents; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett gave a brilliant reception at their home at Wells Tannery, in honor of their son and his bride. A sumptuous dinner was served at six o'clock at which the following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barnett, W. H. Sweet, J. H. Sweet, Jesse Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. H. Shannon and son Spencer, Mrs. J. A. Eichelberger, Mrs. W. E. Hoke and son Howard—all of Saxton; Mr. and Mrs. Amon G. Edwards, son George and daughter Mabel; Mrs. Jehu Edwards, Miss Bessie Willett, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bergstresser—all of Eid; Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bergstresser, of Waterfall; Dr. R. B. Campbell, of New Grenada; Rev. Fleagle and daughter Joyce, of Three Springs; D. L. Barnett and lady Miss Mary Davis, of Robertsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Ross King, of Laidig; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Baker and son Frank, Misses Elizabeth and Mary Baker, Miss Belle Witter, Mrs. Catharine Spangler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Spangler.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Later in the evening the company was entertained with some fine music—Miss Davis presiding at the organ. George Edwards sang a solo that was much appreciated. As a fitting climax, the caltumpians made their appearance, and amused the assemblage. Everything passed off most delightfully, and the young people embarked on life's voyage under the most auspicious circumstances.

That Lame Back Means Kidney Disease

And to Relieve the Lame and Aching Back, You Must First Relieve the Kidneys

There is no question about that—all the lame and aching back is caused by a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder. It is only common sense, any way—that you must cure a condition by removing the cause of the condition. And lame and aching back are not by any means the only symptoms of derangement of the kidneys and bladder. There are a multitude of well-known and unmistakable indications of a more or less dangerous condition. Some of these are, for instance: Extreme and unnatural lassitude and weariness, nervous irritability, heart irregularity, "nerves on edge," sleeplessness and inability to secure rest, scalding sensation and sediment in the urine, inflammation of the bladder and passages, etc.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder disease to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail postpaid.
