Thomas Bender, of New Bloomfield, Pa., and Edward, of Lexington, N. C., reached this place Tuesday evening on account of the death of their brother, Charlie.

J. S. Eitemiller and wife, of McKeesport, H. A. Comerer and wife, and L. A. Youse and wife, of this place—all spent last Friday very pleasantly at John Shaffner's.

Mrs. Grace Bender desires through the medium of the News to thank the many kind friends for their assistance during the illness and death of her husband, the late Chas. C. Bender.

Mrs. Mattie Stoutengale wishes, in this way, to express her appreciation of the sympathy of her friends and neighbors expressed on account of the death of her husband, the late Edward Stoutengale.

Our old friend William Alexander, of Lemaster, and grandson, Chester Bricker, of Harrisburg, spent the time from Saturday until Monday with the former's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rinedollar, in East End extension.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the pleasant, safe, sure, easy little liver pills. A salve you may always depend upon in any case where you need salve, is DeWitt's Carbolic Witch Hazel Salve—especially good for piles. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. W. M. Kile and Mrs. C. J. McNeat—both of Jacksonville, Fla., are visiting in the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wagner, at Knobsville. Mrs. Kile will be better remembered as Miss Ella Wagner, and is north a few weeks on account of her health.

A fire down the Cove Tuesday evening created a good deal of excitement in town until it was found to be a hay shed with a considerable quantity of hay, on the old Lump farm near Jugtown. It is owned by the Knauff heirs, and the fire was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Eitemiller, of McKeesport, Pa., are visiting among their Fulton county relatives and friends, after an absence of nearly four years. Jake is another Fulton county boy that has gone "out into the world" and made good, and his success is due largely to the fact that he has always been faithful to his employers' interest. Mr. and Mrs. Eitemiller are a pair of mighty nice people, and always receive the glad hand when they come to McConnellsburg.

Gilbert J. Mellott, one of Bethel township's bustling young citizens, was in town attending to business early Monday morning. Mr. Mellott has a splendid steam sawmill outfit, including a planer. He also has a good farm, and is improving it by putting new buildings on it. Finding that he has more on his hands than one man can well attend to, he has decided to offer for sale his sawmill outfit. If you know anybody that wants to go into the lumber business that would like to get a good outfit on easy terms, just tell them about this chance. Mr. Mellott's postoffice address is Warfordsburg, Pa., Route No. 1. See his ad in another column.

J. S. Eitemiller and wife, Mrs. Henry Comerer, Miss Harriet Eitemiller, and Miss Nellie Comerer, spent Tuesday at Knobsville, the guests of Abraham Wagener.

Mrs. Ed. D. Shimer and son Master Frank, returned home last Saturday, after a very pleasant visit in New York state, during which time she was at Niagara Falls and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Scott, of Chambersburg, are visiting among their Fulton county relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Scott were formerly residents of this place and have lots of warm friends here.

Mrs. Mary Kelly spent last week with friends and relatives in Thompson township and was accompanied to the Douglass-Hess wedding by her sister, Mrs. Isaac Culler, and two children, Mary and Lloyd.

There is some trolley talk about a line from Bedford to Chambersburg, but there has been so much hot air expended in this direction that we shall wait for further developments, before giving anything out through the News.

Take Kodol at the times when you feel what you have eaten is not digesting. Kodol digests what you eat, so you can eat sufficiently of any good, wholesome food, if you will just let Kodol digest it. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. D. S. Maun and her grand son, Willie Tritie, returned home last Saturday, after having spent two weeks very pleasantly in Waynesboro, visiting Mrs. Maun's brother, M. L. Rinedollar, and other Fulton county friends in that manufacturing town.

Rev. S. J. Pittenger, of Burnt Cabins, and Rev. C. W. Bryner, of McConnellsburg, exchanged pulpits last Sunday—the former preaching at Littleton in the morning, at Knobsville in the afternoon, and at McConnellsburg in the evening, and the latter, preaching and holding communion services at Burnt Cabins in the morning, Carrick in the afternoon; and at Fannettsburg in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed R. Shollenberger, and the former's mother, Mrs. E. B. Shollenberger, and Mr. Chas. Cull and Miss Louie Frey—made a trip in Ed's automobile from their home at Hamburg, Pa., to McConnellsburg last Sunday morning, arriving at the Washington House in time for dinner. They remained until after supper, leaving here about six o'clock, and drove home that night. The distance as registered by the speedometer is 147 miles, hence the round trip of the day is 294 miles. Ed is an enthusiastic automobilist, and last Sunday was driving an Overland.

Among those who attended the Walnut Grove campmeeting from this place last Sunday, were Earl Morton and Miss Mazie Mellott, Hal Grissinger and Miss Blanche Morton, Robert Alexander and Miss Joanna Morton, J. Scott Alexander and Miss Emma Doyle, George B. Mock and family, Mrs. C. R. Spangler and son Rudolph, Cloyd Everhart and Miss Etta Fields, Leslie Harr and Miss Val lance, Ed Stevens and wife and daughter Helen, Boyd Elzey and wife and daughter Hazel, Roy C. Cromwell, wife and child; Harvey Nesbit, Robert and Roy Fleming, Miss Nora Ritchey, and Prof. J. N. Deavor, of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Rachel Thomas.

Mr. Dyson F. Fraker, of Fort Littleton, and son Daniel W., a prosperous North Dakota farmer and school teacher, spent last Saturday in town. Daniel took advantage of the season between planting and reaping to visit the home folks. He left for his western home yesterday in order to be home for his wheat harvest. He owns a good farm, and is about to add another nine thousand dollar farm to his earthly possessions. He teaches school through the winter season at $60 a month, and finds time in summer to raise 80 acres of wheat. He plants his wheat the last of April or the first of May, and in 120 days it is ready for the reaper. One man with two horses can farm 80 acres of wheat there, as easy as fifteen or twenty acres in this county. Most farmers in North Dakota own automobiles, and have plenty of time to use them too.

Eat What

You want of the food you need
Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it.

Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength.

You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you.

This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you. It would bankrupt us. The dollar bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

For Sale at Trout's Drug Store.

Miss Bess Vanclve, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Reinbeck, Iowa, is spending this week, the guest of Miss Netha Nesbit, and visiting other friends and relatives in the Cove. Miss Vanclve is on her return home from a trip to the eastern cities and to the seashore.

Mrs. Rachel Margerum, son Frank, and grandson Timothy, of Princeton, N. J. were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Shives, of this place, from Saturday evening until Monday afternoon, when Mr. Shives took them down to Peter Kirk's at Big Cove Tannery. Mrs. Margerum is a native of Thompson township, and a daughter of Peter C. Peck by his second wife who was Betty, a sister of the late Shade Truxax and of Mrs. Thomas Humbert. Her father was a half uncle of the Editor, and she is a step-sister of P. P. Shives. The visitors expect to spend a day or two among relatives in the lower end of the county and return home by way of Washington, D. C.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD
The Greatest Newspaper of Its Type.

It Always Tells The News As It Is. Promptly and Fully.

Read in Every English-Speaking Country.

It has invariably been the great effort of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World to publish the news impartially in order that it may be an accurate reporter of what has happened. It tells the truth, irrespective of party, and for that reason it has achieved a position with the public unique among papers of its class.

If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $1.75.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.
