We have before us on our desk a catalogue of the Y. M. C. A. Night School, of Omaha, Neb., and note with pleasure that our young friend Prof. W. Don Morton occupies a prominent place in the faculty of that institution.

Do not be deceived by unscrupulous imitators, who would have you believe that the imitation pills are as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. There isn't anything just as good as these wonderful pills for the relief of backache, weak back, inflammation of the bladder, urinary disorders, and all kidney complaints. Any one can take DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills as directed in perfect confidence of good results. Sold by Trout's drug store.

Mrs. N. P. Martin of Upton, Franklin county, sold from the first of last January to the first of September, $215 worth of eggs. Of course this does not include eggs for family use, and for hatching. Mrs. Martin made this record from 150 hens.

Reverends Rice and Diehl exchanged pulpits last Sunday evening—the former preaching in the Presbyterian church, and the latter in the Reformed—to the mutual pleasure and edification of the respective congregations.

The person who sends the first snake with a horned tail found in Pennsylvania to State Zoologist Surface, at Harrisburg, will be paid $50. Professor Surface says that numerous reports come to him about such snakes having been seen but he has never seen a specimen and he does not believe that there are any. Here now is the snake hunters' opportunity.

One day last week, Miss May McClure, of Licking Creek township, and her sister, Mrs. Hockenbery, went to the orchard after apples, and noticed on one of the trees an animal which they at first thought a rabbit. Miss May decided to find out what it really was and picked up a stone and threw it striking the animal square in the head, when down came a fine big fat groundhog, which had been feasting on apples.
