FALL FASHIONS FOR OCTOBER 4.

North American's Special Edition to Be Issued on Monday.

The North American announces that its Fall Fashion number will be issued on Monday, October 4, in conjunction with the regular news edition for that day.

In the esteem of The North American, fashions are legitimate news, and therefore the latest word about fashions is quite as worthy of circulation as the reports of the latest experts of aviation.

The paper maintains a large special staff in Paris, and from these experts comes a striking array of photographs and drawings of the very latest creations of the foremost dictators of Parisian styles.

Undoubtedly there will be a big demand for this issue of the paper. It will be a regular bargain day, the buyer getting the news as well as all the latest fashions of the day.

WELLS TANNERY.

Our K. G. E. order, and the Ladies Temple were well represented at the Annual Reunion held at Everett last Saturday.

Capt. Harvey Wishart who had been in doors with a severe cold is able to be out again.

A. F. Baker and wife drove to Trough Creek last Sunday to attend the funeral of the former's brother William.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY FOR PIMPLES.

It is surprising how quickly and easily pimples and black-heads can be cured with the following prescription, which was made known to the public a short time ago by a celebrated specialist on skin diseases, now retired, who used it in a long and successful practice with wonderful results.

IT NEVER PAYS TO DO WRONG.

Trouble Seldom Leaves The Door-Step of Wrong Doers.

Under the caption "A Fearful Price," the Altoona Tribune comments as follows:

"In Franklin county not many weeks ago a public official was convicted of having taken produce from the poor farm and appropriated it to his own use. He was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the eastern penitentiary for a period of not less than one year or more than six weeks."

When it was proposed to him to make an effort to prevent the execution of the sentence he is reported to have made the following reply: "I shall not appeal my case because I am down and out. I have lost my position, my reputation, my money, and my wife, she having started a suit for divorce and she deserves it. I am going to the penitentiary."

"The man who made that sad speech once possessed the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. They made him one of their officials. In a moment of weakness he yielded to temptation and fell. He did like many others before him, but he was not so lucky as some, for his wrongdoing was discovered. Now he is about to undergo the punishment which fits the crime."

Whether he will recover from the melancholy which has evidently taken complete possession of him and carve out a new way for himself after he has been restored to freedom we cannot tell. At present it looks as though he has nothing left worth living for.

"Of the men accused of robbing the state in connection with the construction of the new capitol building at Harrisburg, three are dead and others are but wrecks of their former selves. Worry drove those who have gone hence into their graves. Trouble seldom leaves the doorsteps of wrong doers. They may have been no worse than their predecessors, but they were caught and the penalty was enforced. Not the legal penalty, indeed, but the penalty resulting from an accusing conscience, from the loss of self respect, from an agonizing apprehension of what the future held in reserve for them. It never pays to do wrong."

Night On Bald Mountain.

On a lonely night Alex. Benton of Fort Edward, N. Y., climbed Bald Mountain to the home of a neighbor, tortured by asthma, bent on curing him with Dr. King's New Discovery, that had cured himself of asthma. This wonderful medicine soon relieved and quickly cured his neighbor. Later it cured his son's wife of a severe lung trouble. Millions believe its the greatest Throat and Lung cure on Earth. Coughs, colds, croup, hemorrhages, and sore lungs are surely cured by it. Best for hay fever, grip, and whooping cough. 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groin and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, worn-out feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as an efficient, beneficial in all such conditions of female organism—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Bray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case, produce any deleterious effects upon the system—as syrupy, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail post-paid. Do it to-day.

For Sale at Trout's Drug Store.

Moonslayers at Needmore.

Last Monday night Rev. A. G. B. Powers, not feeling very well, went to bed rather earlier than usual; and, while in a doze, he was disturbed by a racket on the outside. Going to his window and looking out, he saw that about twenty of his many friends had entered upon his premises where there was about three acres of standing corn, and beneath the beautiful light of the Moon, they began at the east end of the field and going westward like a cyclone, in less than two hours there were 144 shocks of corn standing in the field—well tield. When they returned from the field, the Preacher met them at the yard-gate, saying, "Come in I want to shake hands with all of you. Eli Peck and Elijah Wink were the first to come; and instead of shaking hands, they lifted the Reverend up between the earth and the moon, and carried him back into the house and seated him in a chair. Then came the constable and said, "We took a collection among ourselves to buy twine and this little package which I now present to you." Upon examination the package was found to contain candy. After taking a little lunch they bade the Reverend good night, and then they entered the lot of Mr. J. W. Powers, our Village Blacksmith—and cut his crop of corn.

In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal of the Senate."

Section 20. Amend section one, article eight, which reads as follows: "All elections for city, ward, borough and township officers, for regular terms of office, shall be held on the third Tuesday of February, so as to read as follows: "All judges elected by the electors of the State at large may be elected at either a general or municipal election, as circumstances may require. A judicial office which he is or may be authorized to fill; if the vacancy shall happen during the recess of the Senate, the Governor shall nominate to the Senate, before their final adjournment, a proper person to fill said vacancy; but if such vacancy shall occur in an elective office, a person shall be chosen to fill said office at the next general election, unless the vacancy shall happen within the recess of the Senate, in which case the election for said office shall be held at the second succeeding general election. In acting on executive nominations the Senate shall sit with open doors, and, in confirming or rejecting the nominations of the Governor, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and shall be entered on the journal of the Senate."
