

Trespass notices at this office.

Rev. Diehl will preach in the Presbyterian church in this place next Sunday morning and evening.

HIDES WANTED.—Highest market price paid for beef hides, horse hides, wildcat skins, and all kinds of greases, at Paul Wagner's Tannery, McConnellsburg.

The Odd Fellows and Rebekahs of Harrisonville will hold their annual picnic at Harrisonville, Saturday October 16th. All members of the Orders are cordially invited to come and bring their friends and enjoy the day.

A few days ago a blacksnake about 5 feet long was seen in front of the colored Methodist church in Shepherdstown, and it was killed by some colored persons. Noticing a protuberance amidship of the reptile, it was cut open, and a china egg that it had swallowed was found.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

If you know any news, tell us and we will tell the rest of the people. We are always glad and willing to print news of local interest. Bring it or send it. In the latter case be sure to sign your name, as unsigned correspondence cannot be published.

A Hollidaysburg policeman who was too fat to chase an escaping prisoner, shot at him several times but failed to hit his quarry. He has the right idea, however, for it is the inalienable right of every policeman to wound, maim or kill any fugitive from justice even though the latter be about to be arrested only on suspicion.

FRIGHTFUL FATE AVERTED.
"I would have been a cripple for life, from a terrible cut on my knee cap," writes Frank Disberry, Kelliber, Minn., "without Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which soon cured me." Infalible for wounds, cuts and bruises, it soon cures burns, scalds, old sores, boils, skin eruptions. World's best for piles. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

NEEDMORE.
We are thankful for the glorious rain that fell Monday. Miss Olive Peck, of Hancock, came home last week on account of her brother Ellis having typhoid fever. Mr. and Mrs. John McClellan went to Friend's Cove Friday to attend an Association. Ira Fohner, of Hustontown, who has been spending some time with his uncle William Wink, fell from the top of the cider mill, while repairing the roof. He was unconscious for a time but is reported better. He was able to start home last Sunday.

Miss Esther Peck is very low at this writing. W. A. Peck and family, of Pittsburg, returned to our town last Sunday. A number of our young people attended the Institute at Philip Morgret's last Friday evening. Eld. Funk preached here last Sunday evening. E. B. Fisher will begin hauling cement this week for the new concrete bridge which is to be completed by December first. It is rumored that there will be a "frolic" next Wednesday to build a bridge across Barnett's Run. Almost all our young people expect to attend Hagerstown fair Wednesday and Thursday.

The winter should not have any terrors for our friend A. W. De shong, of Lacking Creek township, for he has just threshed out his crop of buckwheat, and the machine gave him 371 bushels, which means that he easy has a crop of 400 or more. Just think of the fun eating the cakes from four hundred bushels, when they are spread with plenty of good butter and honey, with all the good sausage and gravy you want—wow, wow!

20 Famous Authorities.
This is the number on the staff that compose and make up the Women's Section of The Philadelphia Sunday Press. Every fashion illustrated is drawn by a celebrated artist. Every article is written by a recognized expert. A number of fashion artists will keep you abreast of the fashions. Another will contribute a series of "Smart Talks on the Ways of Women." A great weekly feature is the original embroidery patterns by Sarah Hale Hunter. This department is famous. Miss Hunter saves stamping bills by designing shirtwaists, collars, cuffs, bureau covers, and everything women make. In all there are 15 departments by 15 experts, not including the famous artists. The Woman's Magazine is a regular section of The Philadelphia Press every Sunday, and should enter every home.

It's a Top Notch Deer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and colds and la grippe vanish. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. More, Black Jack, N. C. writes, "it cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.
