There will be an Ingathering of the Guild at the home of Mrs. Geo. W. Reiser, next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

J. S. Wilson at Three Springs, is paying 25 cents a dozen for eggs, 25 cents a pound for butter, and 10 cents a pound for chickens.

Rev. and Mrs. Powers take the method of extending through the News, their thanks to Miss Jessie Bard for the finding and careful return of the lost purse, by the hand of E. R. Mellott.

HIDES WANTED.—Highest market price paid for beef hides, horse hides, wildcat skins, and all kinds of grease, at Paul Wagner's Tannery, McConnellsburg.

That same Old Stork went to Ohio and left a baby girl with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Schreff. Mrs. Schreff was Catherine, daughter of J. S. Eitemiller, of McKeesport, Pa.

Money order service has been established in the Western Union telegraph office in this place which will be an added convenience to the patrons of the office. Any sum of money not exceeding $250 may be transferred to any part of the country in a few minutes at a nominal price.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

In sending a dollar to renew her subscription to the Fulton County News, Mrs. Amanda Wolford, of Bedford county, says: "I just love the paper; it brings back so many pleasant recollections of my visit to Fulton county last year. When I read the paper I think of the many kind friends and relatives I have there. We had a delightful visit from my sister, Mrs. Joseph Sipes, and her husband, and hope they may not put it off so long until they will visit us again."

When you have a cold the first thing to do is have the bowels move. Do not take anything that may constipate—and most old fashioned cough cures do constipate. Try Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. It drives the cold from the system by a free yet gentle action of the bowels; it stops the cough, it is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Trout's drug store.

At the twentieth annual convention of the Epworth League chapters, Junata district, Central Pennsylvania conference, which was held during the past week in Lewistown, Hon. Harry A. Thompson and Miss Mary C. Hays, of this place, were elected vice presidents. At the Wednesday morning session, Mr. Thompson took up the topic of "Bible Study" and presented it in his usual very able manner. The Daily Sentinel, of Lewistown, says that the convention was so well pleased at the development of this subject, that a motion was passed authorizing Mr. Thompson to publish his idea of Bible study in pamphlet form to be distributed among the various leagues, which is quite a compliment to him as a student of the Bible. — Altoona Tribune, Oct. 30th.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Dunca, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c. at Trout's drug store.

New Charges For Registered Letters.

The new charges of ten cents instead of eight cents for the registry of letters went into effect on Monday, November 1. It is an increase of the fixed rate that has been in vogue for many years practically since the registry division of the post office was established. The new rate of charges for registering mail also brings an increase in the indemnity for the loss of a letter from $25 to $50, the amount being doubled for the additional two cents that have been added to the rate. The registry charges were charged by the department with a view to wiping out the deficit that results with the closing of each fiscal year and to make the division self-sustaining.

GEM.

Our farmers are all done seeding.

Russell Sipes is working on Rowe Mellott's sawmill.

The Dunkard love feast was well attended.

Henry Sipes, the accommodating mail carrier, is happy over the arrival of a new mail carrier at his home. That's right, Henry; Uncle Sam must have new boys coming on.

Dr. Job Mellott has the contract for the cutting of the wood for the Crossroad school.

Pott McKee has purchased a new surrey.

Corder Snyder sold a nice mule to Pott McKee the other day for sixty dollars.
