Don't forget the Irwin Store when looking for presents.

I love my Hat; but Oh, you Cap! Johnston has both.

The lively, busy pullet is now sending joy to the hen plant.

J. K. Johnston surely has the prettiest line of Ladies' Long Coats and Jacket Suits.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

Ladies' silk knit scarfs, wool scarfs and fascinators, at J. K. Johnston's.

Herbert Carbaugh is singing "A Charge to Keep I Have." It is a dish washer.

Gloves and mittens, wool, cotton, or leather, can be had at a saving if bought from J. K. Johnston.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Charles E. Martin, a prosperous farmer, near Waynesboro, has four men at work planting 1700 peach trees. They will cover thirteen acres of his land.

36 cents a dozen is what John S. Wilson at Three Springs is paying for eggs; he is, also, paying 28 cents for butter, 10 cents a pound for chickens, 15 for turkeys, and 60 cents a bushel for potatoes.

Fowls love to thrash out a bundle of wheat or oats, and it does one good to step around to the door of the poultry house and listen to the merry chatter while the fowls are digging in the straw.

Teachers, and all those who are going to attend Institute next week, bring those pictures you have to frame along and have it done while you attend institute. Get it done at T. B. Stevens & Son.

The co-operating committee for Fulton county of the Men's Missionary Movement, will hold a meeting at the residence of Rev. J. L. Grove, on Thursday, December 9th, at 7 p. m. All the members are requested to be present.

The best pill is DeWitt's Little Early Risers—the safe, easy, pleasant and sure little liver pills. DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve is the original. Good for cuts, burns, or bruises, and especially for piles. Sold by Trout's drug store.

The last Legislature enacted a law which forbids the offering for sale or trade any horse which can not be regularly used and worked, without violating the usual laws against cruelty to animals. This will be very discouraging to the business of a certain type of horse traders.

It will be news to a great many ladies in this county to know that you can go to the store of A. U. Nace & Son, in McConnellsburg, have your measure taken, select your goods and style, and have tailor made suits with all the polish and finish that you would get if you made a trip to New York, and at a much less price than you would pay in the city. Go in and talk the matter over with them. The correct dresser wears Tailor-made clothing now-a-days.
