The subjects for discussion were: "Possibilities of the country boy and girl," "Preparation for the recitation," and "Local Institutes; Value of, and How conducted."

The following teachers were present and took an active part in the discussions; Bessie Morton, Daisy Strait, Nelle Morton; Orpha Snyder, S. L. Wink, Blanche Smith and Eva Bedford of Belfast, and Thomas Truax, of Union.

Ex Judge Morton, of McConnellsburg; Dr. J. J. Palmer, Blair Truax, and directors Scott Baumgardner were among those who took part in the discussions.

The school gave a number of songs, recitations and dialogues in a manner that speaks well for both teacher and pupil. Albert and Isaac Peck entertained the crowd with a number of selections on their guitar and violin.—Eva Bedford, Secretary.

Local Institute.

The fourth local institute of Taylor township was held at No. 3 school last Friday evening. Neatness, Accuracy and Thoroughness, Tardiness and Irregularity of attendance, and How to Teach Pupils to Study, were topics ably discussed by the following teachers: D. K. Chesnut, Russell Gracey, Miss Strait, Dean Bergstresser, W. G. Wink, and John Woodcock—all of Taylor, and by Messrs Black and Rohrer, Huntingdon county teachers.

The program was interspersed with literary work by the school which reflected much credit upon both teacher and pupils.

The next institute will be held at Winegardner's school, on the evening of the last day of the year, Anno Domini, 1909.

Little Things Annoy or Please Us

Little things annoy us—the little curl of smoke that, if left alone, would soon smudge the furnishings and make work for the house-wife.

PERFECTION Oil Heater

They've been banished by hard thought and tireless work. In their stead there are little things that please—that make for comfort and satisfaction.

Automatic Smokeless Device that actually prevents smoke—the little lock on the inside of the tube that holds the wick in check—keeps it below the smoke zone, so accurately adjusted that it cannot go wrong—these are some of the little things that please—that have contributed to the name and fame of the Perfection Oil Heater.

The most satisfying heater you can buy—always ready—easy to manage—always dependable—quickly cleaned. Brass font holds 4 quarts—burns 9 hours. Attractively finished in Nickel or Japan in various styles and finishes.
