CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

C. M. Brant and son Edwin, spent a few hours in town yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Henry, of Huntington, is spending the holidays with relatives here.

Clarence Hoover, of Dane, spent Tuesday with friends at West Dublin.

Fare one way between Mercersburg and McConnellsburg 50 cents. Sheets Stage Line.

B. F. Simpson and son Samuel L., of Dickey's Mountain, were among the visitors at the County Seat yesterday.

Mrs. Albert King and children who had been staying in Altoona during the past two months, have returned to their farm in Taylor township.

Rev. S. B. Houston and son Erskine, of Eau Claire, Pa., are spending this week among their many friends in the Cove. The wedding of Miss "Nell" Johnston had something to do with Mr. Houston's visit at this time—for he performed the ceremony.

Reed M. Simpson, who has been conducting a general store at Dickey's Mountain, has sold out to John Hess, who recently took possession, and Reed has gone to Hancock, where he is engaged in the grocery and confectionery business.

Harry Aller, who spent the past summer working on a farm near Leona, Kansas, is at home for the winter. Harry says that farm hands out there get from 25 to 30 dollars a month, and do not have to work as hard as they would on a farm in the eastern states.

Joseph B. Chambers, formerly of the Cove, in renewing his subscription to the Fulton County News, writes that out at South Wayne, Wisconsin, where he lives, the thermometer registered 14 degrees below zero, last Saturday morning.

The symptoms of kidney trouble are urinary disorders, weak back and backache, rheumatism and rheumatic pains and twinges, pains in the groin, etc. There is nothing as good for kidney and bladder trouble as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills. You may depend upon them to give entire satisfaction. They are antiseptic, act promptly and soothe pain. Sold by Trout's drug store.

While in town on business last week, Jacob Cutchall, of Waterfall, found time to come in and have a little chat with the Editor. Mr. Cutchall informs us that his son John, who graduated from the Shippensburg Normal last Spring, is now principal of the schools at Macungie, Pa., at a salary of seventy dollars a month and a nine months' term.

Mrs. Joseph Steeckel, wife of a Wilmington brewer, went over an embankment in her automobile near Chester and both she and the chauffeur landed in a pool of water. They escaped injury although they were drenched to the skin. The machine struck a rut and the driver lost control of it.

Miss Catharine Woods, daughter of Judge J. M. Woods of Lewistown, Pa., has sailed for Huanan, China, under commission as a Missionary from the Presbyterian Board. A multitude of friends will wish Miss Woods a safe voyage, and the greatest success in the gracious work to which she has devoted her life.

"Hard Shower."

The long continued dry "spell" was to some degree broken on Tuesday the seventh instant, by a heavy shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hess in Belfast township. It was a shower that did not spoil any umbrellas, nor give any one damp feet—it was a shower of ninety four beautiful post cards sent by relatives, friends, and schoolmates to their little son Blair S. Hess, in honor of his seventh birth day. Blair feels very grateful to his friends, who were thus so thoughtful.

FIRES IN WELLS VALLEY.

Dwelling House of Austin Stevens. Near the U. B. Church, Destroyed. Also, Shanty at Will Deavor's Saw-mill Burned.

On Friday afternoon, the 10th inst., the dwelling house of Austin Stevens, near the United Brethren Church, in Wells Valley, was destroyed by fire, together with most of its contents. The afternoon was windy, water was scarce, everything dry as punk, so that when the fire was discovered, it was already beyond control.

A few things on the first floor were gotten out by Harry Foster, who fortunately happened to be passing along the road at the time. The family were left with very little on their persons to start out on a cold, stormy, windy day. All the clothing saved, was what the members of the family were wearing at the time the fire was discovered. They are now at the home of J. Cal Foster. Mr. Stevens has some insurance; but even this does not compensate for the inconvenience of being turned out of a home in midwinter.

Later on, the shanty at the Will Denisar sawmill, near Thomas Ramsey's, caught fire and was destroyed, together with its contents, and it was with much difficulty that the mill and a large lot of lumber were saved.

Surprise Party.

Last Sunday morning, while D. D. DeShong was reading the morning paper—not thinking about it being his sixty-fifth birthday, he was very much surprised to see several buggies driving up. It then dawned upon him that there was a surprise on hands; and, sure enough, a very enjoyable surprise it was. At 12 o'clock, the dining room doors were thrown open, and everybody was invited in to the table which was laden with all the good things any person might wish to eat. Mr. DeShong received many very useful presents. About 3 o'clock the people began to depart for their homes, wishing Mr. DeShong many more birthdays.

Those present were D. D. DeShong and wife, Mary E. Mellott, Abram DeShong and wife, Jordan DeShong and wife, George DeShong and wife, Mrs. John Hollenshead, Mrs. James Fagley, U. S. DeShong and wife, John G. Ewing and wife, Mrs. Elmer Imbler, Geo. W. Sipes and wife, Scott Mellott, James Mellott, Sadie Truax, Blanche, Eva, Dessie, Olive, Gladys, Nora, Ethel, Mabel, Mattie, and Ada DeShong; Geo. Judson, and Harrison DeShong; Arthur and Herbert Ewing, John Hockenberry, Blanche Fagley, Thomas Hollenshead, and Glen and Vera Sipes.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

Do You Feel Like This?

Does your head ache or simply feel heavy and uncomfortable? Does your back ache? Does your side ache? Do you feel fagged out? The tonic laxative herb tea known as Lane's Family Medicine will clear your head, remove the pain in side or back and restore your strength. Nothing else is so good for the stomach and bowels. At druggists' and dealers', 25c.

Local Institute.

The fourth local institute of Tod township was held at McGovern's school, last Friday evening.

The meeting was called to order by the teacher, after which the chairman, A. D. Peightel, presided.

The following topics were ably discussed. 1. Reviews; value of and how conducted? 2. Reading; how taught to obtain best results? The teachers present were: Mary Ott, Nell Barmont, Blanche Brant, A. D. Peightel, Prof. Emery Thomas, Russel Mock, D. K. Chesnut, John Woodcock, Blanche O. Peck, and Supt. B. C. Lamberson. The questions were interspersed by some literary work by the school. Excellent order and attention were given. The meeting adjourned to meet at Summers' school, Friday evening, January 17, 1910, to which all friends of education are invited.—Blanche O. Peck, Sec.

Oil Heat Without Smoke

No matter how sensitive your olfactory nerves may be, or under what working conditions you encounter the

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

you'll not detect the slightest odor of smoke.

The Perfection Oil Heater neither smokes nor diffuses odor. The new Automatic Smokeless Device positively prevents both. Repeated tests during its incipency and development, innumerable trials after it had been pronounced perfect by the inventor, demonstrated its utility and sure effectiveness.

The wick cannot be turned up beyond the point of its greatest effectiveness. It locks automatically and thus secures the greatest heat-yielding flame without a sign of smoke or smell. Removed in an instant for cleaning.

Solid brass font holds 4 quarts of oil—sufficient to give out burning heat for 9 hours—solid brass wick carriers—damper top—cool handle—indicator. Heater beautifully finished in nickel or Japan in a variety of styles.
