

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents.

Rev. Diehl will preach in the Presbyterian church in this place next Sunday morning and evening.

Charlie Carbaugh, in the Corner, has a good cabinet organ that cost $97.50 that he will sell for $65.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

Revs. Powers and Garland will conduct a series of meetings at the Siding Hill Christian Church beginning next Sunday morning and evening.

FOR SALE.—William Hershey, living near Hiram, in Taylor township, has a span of splendid young mules for sale.

Drunkenness in Indiana county has been decreased considerably as the result of the order made last year by Judge Telford a license court forbidding treating at liquor bars.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son, pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

There will be a bazaar and oyster supper at Knobsville, next Saturday evening (Feb. 5th) for the benefit of the church. Every body welcome, and invited to be present and have a good time.

Our brother editor, Mr. Harry A. Thompson, of Tyrone, who has served two terms in the State Legislature, we learn has concluded to be a candidate for a third term. Mr. Thompson is active and affable, and makes friends wherever he goes. The people of Blair county have had in him an able and useful Representative, and would make no mistake by electing him again.

Capt. A. Dotterman will hold preaching services at the Salvation Army Church near Big Cove Tannery next Sunday at 10:30 a. m., Subject: The Lord shall judge. Preaching services in the evening at 7 o'clock, Subject: I will put you in remembrance. All are welcome to these services.

Abram Taylor, of Cresson, has brought suit at Ebensburg for $10,000 against the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He claims that he sustained severe injuries while he was foreman of the Cresson Foundry and Machine company plant, as the result of being hit by cars shifted contrary to his orders and was unable to work for thirteen months.

Of late there has been an unusual number of tragic deaths, involving scandal, among sons of some American millionaires. While the young men were to blame for their wrong course of life it is in order to ask whether the greater blame does not attach to their parents? It is notorious that oftentimes the example set by the parents is not good, that parental authority and discipline are not imposed, and that the sons have an almost unlimited money to spend as they please, which they generally please to spend in foolish and vicious ways. Under the circumstances the downward path with its abrupt and mournful ending is made easy for them.

Voters of Belfast Township. Having recently learned of my nomination for the office of "Justice of the Peace" by the Republican primary in Belfast township, I desire to state that not being a registered voter or taxpayer in this State, I am not eligible for the office; and as a "squire" is badly needed in our community, I advise everyone to vote for Mr. Funk, Democratic nominee. However, I wish to express my appreciation to the members of my party, who so kindly remembered me. BLAIR TRUAX.

Farmer Wanted. Married man, to work by the year, house-rent, wood, &c. free. Good wages for right kind of man. Call on or write to C. L. HENRY, Clear Ridge, Pa.

Notice. I hereby notify all persons not to trust my wife Jessie Winegardner, as she has left my premises without my consent, and I will not pay any debts made by her. IRWIN WINEGARDNER, 1-20-31.

PLEASANT VISIT.

Fort Littleton Odd Fellows Entertained by McConnellsburg Lodge Last Friday Evening.

Without any warning, twenty members of Fort Littleton Lodge No. 484 I. O. O. F., swooped down upon McConnellsburg Lodge No. 744 last Friday evening. Toward evening it began to snow, and the weather was not auspicious for a large turn out of the members of the local lodge, and as the word did not get around in time, only fifteen members of the home lodge were present. This, however, did not keep those who were there from having a good time, and about nine o'clock the visitors were informed that the closing exercises of the very pleasant affair would take place at the City Hotel. At nine thirty, the members of the local lodge together with their visitors were ushered into the spacious dining room at the City Hotel, and there served to oysters, coffee, and the other accessories that go to make a complete oyster supper.

The only thing to, in any way, mar the pleasure of the trip, was the snow storm through which the visitors had to go on their return home.

The visit from the Fort Littleton brethren was greatly appreciated by the McConnellsburgers and it is hoped that these very pleasant occasions may happen more frequently.

The names of the visitors are: S. L. Buckley, Dyson F. Fraker, J. W. Fraker, David Fraker, Beaver Fraker, D. W. Cromer, John Foreman, F. C. Bare, Hayes Locke, Geo. Sheffield, A. S. Jones, McClellan Cisney, Chas. Cowan, John Gillis, Levi P. Morton, Charles Richardson, C. L. Henry, Cleveland Henry, A. L. Wible, and Scott Hershey.

SAVED FROM AWFUL PERIL.

"I never felt so near my grave" writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio, R. R. No. 3, "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive to-day is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infallible for coughs and colds, it's the most certain remedy for lagrippe, asthma, desperate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

DUBLIN MILLS.

Sleighting, sledding, coasting are "all the go" of the day. Martin Grissinger of this place, has found employment at Kearney.

Newton Black, who had been employed in Franklin county, has returned home.

Harry Locke, of this place, lost a very valuable horse a few days ago. Spasmodic colic was the cause of its death.

Ed Black and Frank Knepper have found employment at Jacob's coal mines.

Miss Julia Grissinger, who has been visiting relatives in Trough Creek Valley, returned to her home in this place, last Friday.

The carpenters of this place are very busy just now. What doing? Building sleds.

Brint Miller and wife were seen in our town last Sunday.

W. G. Wink is getting along nicely with his school.

Mrs. John Hess and family and Mrs. Ed Black and family took advantage of the fine sledding and moonlight nights a short time ago and visited James Benson and family at Oak Grove. After having a good time, they returned home at rather a late hour.

Martin Bollinger is recovering rapidly from the bruises caused by an upset and runoff some time ago.

Allen Grissinger, wife and sons John, Philip, and Ira, visited their son Jesse, in Trough Creek Valley, last Sunday.

B. B. Booth left a few days ago for East Pittsburg.

Besides her own family, those that enjoyed themselves at the home of Mrs. John Hess last Sunday evening were, Lester, James, Pauline, Lizzie, and Netha Locke; Julia and Clara Grissinger, and Martin Bollinger. Both vocal and instrumental music was rendered in plenty.

STAY ON THE FARM.

Said Governor Stuart in an Address Before The Delegates at the State Convention Last Week.

More than four hundred members of Farmers' associations throughout the State, among whom was J. Lind Patterson, of Ayr township, member of the State Board of Agriculture from this county, assembled in Convention at Harrisburg last week. Among the very many other interesting and instructive addresses, was one delivered by Governor Stuart, in which he reiterated remarks he had made on former occasions to the effect that the farm is the place for the boy to stay and that commercial success can be obtained in the country as well as in the city.

"The boy should be kept on the farm," said the governor. "He should be shown that it is to his best advantage. He should be taught to get the best out of his farm, and the modern agricultural school is the place to teach him.

"What is true of every branch of industry is true of the farm. Three things are necessary and three only—work, industry, and application. There is no such thing as luck. I care not what any one may say, the success of the individual depends entirely upon the efforts of the individual.

"If the farmer raises something at a cost of $1 and sells it to someone else for $2 or $3 or more, he is going to make money. What is necessary is for him to learn what product he can best produce at the lowest price. Then he will succeed.

Affords Him Pleasure.

EDITOR OF THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS:—I want to say through your paper how much surprised I was to receive a subscription for the Fulton County News, a paper of my dear old home county, for a Xmas present from my family. It surely has done me more than a dollar's worth of good already; for I cannot express to you what pleasure I derived from those back numbers you sent me; they brought so many past memories back to me. I left Fulton county 33 years ago for Ohio. There have been many changes since, and many have gone to their reward, but will never be forgotten; for I never will forget my dear old mountain home. I expect to visit there again. I would be glad to hear from any of my old friends.

Woe't Need a Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Sossman, of Cornellus, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema, or piles. 25c at Trout's drug store.

SALUVIA.

Mrs. C. T. Dixon, who fell and injured herself while visiting relatives in Pittsburg, has returned to her home, and is able to be around again.

Howard Dixon is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. T. Dixon.

Our champion fox hunter, D. E. Mellott, succeeded in capturing two gray ones, one day last week.

N. A. Mellott has gone to Altoona, where he expects to secure employment.

Lumbering had been on the decline in our community for the past year, but the business is reviving again. Scott Kegaris is getting out a large quantity of timber. Len Hockensmith will do the sawing. A. J. Sipes sold a tract of timber to J. Mellott. Seth Mellott is sawing this. It is also reported that W. W. McDaniel, of Everett, will start two large mills on his farm near Saluvia, in March. B. F. Deshong has been engaged in sawing the timber off the Cutchall farm.

A number of our young people have been attending services at Fairview during the past week.

R. R. Sipes' family, accompanied by Mary Mellott, visited A. J. Sipes last Sunday.

A daughter was added to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pix, of Tod township last Saturday.

Extraordinary BIG BARGAINS AT J. K. JOHNSTON'S.

Men's Overcoats.

Look these over. Surely, you will find some large values, and rather than carry them over to another season, we will close them out

BELOW COST.

We still have a few RAIN COATS on which we can save you some money. There are still left a few that are going at a Great Sacrifice. It has been our custom for years not to have any "left-overs" so that we may begin each season with fresh late style goods, and we mean to clear the deck at any price—they shall go!

Now, is the time to get busy, if you want some of these goods; for there are always people who wait for Reduced prices, and then there is a rush. We have but a few Ladies' Jacket Suits left. They will go to the first callers—below cost. Yes, they will! Our line of are going at a bigger sacrifice than ever before. They must be cleared out to make room for the big stock of Spring Suits that will be in early. These, too, will go below cost.

We can still furnish you the Sanitary Full Fleeced Under wear at the old price—35 cents. Plenty of good Shoes. Rubber goods at last year's prices. Dry Goods and notions at old prices.

Come Quickly. We mean business.

J. K. JOHNSTON.
