It is sometimes quite fascinating to contemplate what we would do if we were somebody else. What great things we would accomplish and what reforms we would inaugurate and complete. To the imagination it is all so easy and effective. This idea must have possessed those Chicago ladies who told with much emphasis "what they would do if they were men." Inasmuch as there is no possibility of their becoming men the question was purely academic and not practical, but doubtless in was a beautiful day dream, for the time being.

When Editor J. P. Soassman, of Corneliuss, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema, or piles. 25c at Trout's drug store.

It is said that three of the stingiest men in the state were in town yesterday. One of them will not drink as much water as he wants unless it be from another man's well. The second forbids any of his family from writing anything but a "small hand" as it is a waste of ink to make large letters. The third stops his clock at night in order to save wear and tear on the machinery. All of them decline to take their county paper on the ground that it is a terrible strain on their spectacles to read newspapers, even in the day time.
