

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents. Comrade M. D. Mathias, of Hustontown, was in McConnellsburg a few hours Monday.

Georgia Taylor, of Clear Ridge, was taken suddenly ill last Sunday evening of congestion of the lungs.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

A fine little 10-pound dishwasher came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Mellott on Monday night of last week.

Benjamin Wible, father of our former townsman, L. H. Wible, Esq., has been rather seriously ill during the last three weeks.

Samuel Gress and family removed from Franklin county Tuesday into one of T. J. Comer's houses on West Walnut street.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Sons pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

The store keeper who does not advertise and who does not systematize his business might as well put up his shutters. Judicious advertising means financial success. Never in the history of the commercial world has advertising held so dominant a place as it does today.

The Breeze-wood correspondent in last week's Bedford Inquirer says that Dr. J. G. Hanks, Postmaster S. J. Pee, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Truax, James H. Chamberlain, and E. G. Whetstone were numbered among the sick during the past week. Nearly every family in that community has one or more suffering from grip.

The balmy spring-like weather of the first seven days of March, closed with a violent thunder storm last Sunday night. The old saying, thunder in the fall is followed by warmer weather, and in the spring by colder, has been verified in last Sunday night's storm, for it was immediately followed by cold and freezing weather.

Wanted.

Apprentices to learn Machinists Trades. Favorable opportunity and good wages. Instructions in mathematics and drawing given. Write for particulars. LANDIS TOOL CO., Waynesboro, Pa.

Saving Fruit From Frost.

The very pleasant, balmy weather that we have had during the last few days, following a long season of unusual cold, is causing some uneasiness among Pennsylvania farmers and fruit growers, lest under the influence of sunny days for a considerable period, buds may develop, only to be killed by frosts later in the spring as freezing weather often comes in this climate when the season is farther advanced than it is now.

This fact lends timely interest to a little illustrated pamphlet issued by the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company, telling the fruit growers along its lines how to protect their fruit crops from early spring frosts.

As fruit buds are often killed by frost in Pennsylvania, the question of the feasibility of protecting orchards from frost by artificial heat, is as interesting here as anywhere. When it is remembered that estimates based on careful investigation place the annual loss by frosts to the fruit growers of the United States at fifty per cent., the importance of the experiments thus far made is apparent.

Most that has been accomplished has been within the last three years in the Grand Valley, Colorado, where it is asserted that it has been proved possible to maintain a safe temperature in orchards when the natural temperature is many degrees below the freezing point and where a fruit crop value at $2,000,000 was saved and marketed when the records show that the temperatures outside of the orchards in various places in the Valley were nineteen and twenty degrees above zero.

The method of orchard heating recommended by the author of the Oregon Short Line Company's pamphlet is by means of smudge pots with crude coal oil as fuel.

The total cost of heating a ten-acre orchard for eight nights by means of smudge pots is estimated at $510. This is for the first year and includes the cost of 500 pots, two 1,200-gallon storage tanks, wagon tank and oil pump, oil pails, torches, thermometers, &c., and 2,400 gallons of crude oil.

But after the first year the cost would be limited to the value of the oil used and this is estimated would not amount to more than one per cent. of the value of the fruit saved.

AN AWFUL ERUPTION of a volcano excites brief interest, and your interest in skin eruptions will be as short, if you use Bucklen's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst boils, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for Burns Cuts, Bruises, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Chilblains and Piles. It gives instant relief. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

A few days ago we received a dollar bill in a letter from Ray V. Dawney, formerly of Hustontown, but now in the United States Navy, serving on the U. S. S. Chattanooga, in the far Pacific. Ray says, that while the News is sometimes forty days old when he gets it, he does not miss any numbers, and reads every one with a great deal of pleasure. He says the copies have been delivered to him in China, Japan, Siberia, Manchuria, Corea, and in the Philippine Islands—all over the Orient, but they get there just the same. Ray says he wants the Hustontown reporter to get busy.

Saved A Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds. "For coughs, colds, jaundice, asthma, hemorrhage, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, and lung trouble, it's supreme. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Birthday Surprise.

You hear of ghost stories and great surprises, but the greatest surprise came to Miss Catherine Smith on her 49th birthday, which took place on the 26th ult., at her home in Belfast township.

Catherine was busy superintending the work of getting out posts for a wire fence, when her home was invaded by sixty-five of her friends and relatives. Imagine her surprise as she returned to the house, to find dinner ready, and the many smiling faces there to greet her.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hess and son Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mellott, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Mellott, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Diehl, Logue Hess, wife and children; Watson Peck and wife; Mack Mellott, wife and children; Mrs. Randolph Palmer, Mrs. Amos Palmer, Mrs. J. J. Palmer, Mrs. Luther Smith, Mrs. Alfred Mellott, Mrs. Bennett Mellott, Mrs. Bert Truax, Mrs. Frank Layton and sons; James Layton and wife, Besie Morton, Nellie Palmer, Corcha Truax, Ora Truax, Kate and Anna Smith, Lillian Youngblood, Catherine Hart, Mattie Funk, Blanche Smith, Bertha Truax, Orpha Snyder, Cornelia and Nettie Mellott, Earl Shives, Floyd Hart, Howard Peck, T. K. Downes, Walter and Frank Truax, Duffy, Russel, Clyde, Maple, and Alonzo Mellott; Guy Spade, and Raymond Plessinger.

After dinner was served, which was composed of the finest delicacies, of which a king might wish to partake—such as chicken, beef, salads, cakes, pies and puddings, and a variety of good things, the time was taken up by music and chatting and having a merry good time. About 5 o'clock, all took their departure for their respective homes, each wishing for many more such occasions. Catherine received many good useful presents, of which she is very proud. She also received more than a hundred post cards which she also prizes.

May we all meet again on more of these occasions.
