HOW GOOD NEWS SPREAD.

"I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B, F. Tolson, of Elizabethtown, Ky. "Everywhere 1 go I recommend Electric Bitters, because I owe my excellent health and vitality Miss Lizzie Watkins, and Prof. to them. They effect a cure ev. Rudy and Ed Kimmel-all of Sal ery time." They never fail to tillo, were visitors in New Grena tone the stomach, regulate the da last Sunday, kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. They work and women; restoring strength, vigor and health that's a daily joy. Try them. Only 50c. Satis faction is positively guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

NEW GRENADA. Miss Martha Mills, a trained nurse, of Philadelphia, daughter of F. G. Mills, of this place, is tome for a short vacation. Arthur Canningham and wife, of Mount Union, were recent vis tors in the home of the former's parents, N. G. Cunningham and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Long, who were married at Everett last week, spent a day, on their honeymoon trip, with the former's mother, Mrs. Samuel Stains. James Grissinger 18 seriously II with heart trouble.

William Shaw, of Clay township, has removed to New Grena ia, into the old hotel house, or Crider property, now owned by lames Grissinger.

Jacob S. Black moved from Robertsdale to the Plummer property last Tuesday.

Harry Plummer is improving. A mistake in the items last week made them say Harry had typhoid fever. It was scarlet fever he had.

Malcolm and Paul, two little sons of Richard Alloway, are the banner fishermen this season. Last week they went to the creek near their home, baited their hooks, spit on the bait, cast in their lines, and soon had four suckers aggregating a measure ment of forty-three inches in length. And your scribe knows how good the tish were.

Mr. Ephraim Yingling, of Shore Valley, who had pneumonia, 1s still in a very serious condition. Dropsy and lung trouble have de veloped, and his recovery is considered doubtful. Mr. and Mrs. John Mills, and Roy Bolinger, left Monday for East Freedom, Pa., where they will be engaged in a job of rail road concreting.

Mrs. A. M. Corbin and Miss Ida Gracey, of Taylor township, were guests in the home of Jacob S. Black last Sunday.

Thad Covert and his lady friend

Last Friday, Thomas Ramsey of our Valley, and George Boling er, of Shore Valley, had an excit wonders for weak, run-down men ing time with fire. Both were burning brush in fields on their respective farms, not far from the buildings, when the wind un expectedly rose, and started the fire over the fields, and it was with much difficulty that the fire was brought under control. Had it not been for the continued blow ing of the whistle at Wm. Deavor's sawmill near Ramsey's, which brought the neighbors to the rescue, both Mr.- Ramsey and his buildings would doubtless have been destroyed, as Mr. Ramsey's Icine is given, a little pinch of the clothing was on fire. Mr. Boling er's hair and face were singed, and both parties lost lots of fence and many fruit trees badly injur
