

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Rotz very much appreciate the kindness and sympathy of their friends and neighbors during the illness and death of their darling little son last week.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

Miss Annie B. Frey is spending this week in the eastern cities purchasing her spring stock of millinery, and will have it ready for display in a few days. See her advertisement later.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

It was not our intention to unduly alarm any of our subscribers when we made a note of the great number of deadly germs in festing dollar bills, but S. S. Gaster, R. D. route, Three Springs, writes: "Realizing the great danger in harboring germs on dollar bills, I am enclosing one to the editor in exchange for the NEWS another year."

By referring to our sale register found elsewhere in this paper, it will be seen that Grant Baker is having a big sale of live stock on the 8th of April. Mr. Baker has a fine stock farm and handles more stock, year in and year out, than any other man in the county. This is his fourth annual sale, and it will be a rare opportunity to get fine stock at your own figures.

Juniata county has the distinction of being the only county in Pennsylvania having a woman filling a county office. Prothonotary H. H. Hartman recently died, and a few days ago his daughter, Miss Ada M. Hartman, qualified by filing her bond and will fill the unexpired term of her late father. A number of counties in the state have had women for superintendents of public schools, but this is the first time a woman has held a civil office of this character.

END.

AN AWFUL ERUPTION

of a volcano excites brief interest, and your interest in skin eruptions will be as short, if you use Bucklen's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst sores, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for Burns Cuts, Bruises, Sore Lips, Chapped Hands, Chilblains and Piles. It gives instant relief. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

SOUTH DUBLIN.

Peter Mellott was brought home, sick, from Kearney last week.

Mrs. Campbell and daughter Ruth visited her daughter, Mrs. Cline last Sunday.

Isaac Mellott and family and brother Silas, of Wells Valley, and Harvey Black, wife and son Paul, were recent visitors in the home of Caleb Mellott and wife.

A number of the folks around here attended the sale at Hustontown last Saturday.

Our farmers are busy ploughing for their spring crops.

Harvey Black expects to have a sale soon.

Saved A Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies, for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 175 pounds. "For coughs, colds, la grippe; asthma, hemorrhage, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, and lung trouble, it's supreme. 50c. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

DICKEY'S MOUNTAIN.

Edward Souders and wife spent Sunday with Andrew Souders and family.

Christian Endeavor societies have been organized throughout our township. We hope they will be detrimental to all evil tendencies, and prolific of much good.

Miss Mary Cattlett spent Saturday and Sunday the guest of her teacher Miss Jessie Truax.

T. H. Truax has been appointed Census enumerator for the 51st district. Mr. Truax is well qualified for the work.

Jesse Souders, a young business man of Johnstown, spent a few days recently with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Souders.

Miss Goldie Gordon, of Hancock, is spending this week with her mother Mrs. Moses Gordon.

The last meeting of the Bald-Eagle literary society for this season was well attended. Owing to the decision of our judges, no one was afraid to go home in the dark. A very interesting program was rendered which did much credit to those participating. This society boasts of being the last organized, and of holding the best meeting of any in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hess and little son Jack spent Sunday with Mr. Samuel Hess and family near Needmore.

Miss Mamie Gordon spent a few days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Gordon recently.
