SAVED FROM THE GRAVE.

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work, but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obsolete coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, the grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to this wonderful medicine. Try it. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Census Commissioner Durand is figuring on a return of 90,000,000, as the population of our great nation. In all probability this estimate will be reached and if all make fair, full and honest reports of all else that is inquired into, the returns along all industrial and educational lines will be equally as great, and our country will be in the front line of the world's great nations.

WHIPS COVE.

"April showers make May flow-ers." Yes, and it shuts the traps (for a few moments) of those chronic grumblers, who never have any crops unless there is a frequent shower of those heavenly drops splattered over their old persimmon heads.

Mrs. Julia Wertzand Mrs. Caleb Mellott went to Hollidaysburg last Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mellott's son-in-law, Mrs. Blanche Mellott and Nancy Layton, who accompanied Mrs. Flattie Starr to her home in Maryland—after spending a week with former Fulton Countians, returned to Baltimore Wednesday, where Mrs. D. C. Mellott purchased a stock of spring goods, and came home Thursday. They report having found all those good people who left Fulton some years ago as being situated amid Nature's grandest.

Alfred Layton moved to Locust Grove postoffice Monday, where in connection with the postoffice, he will carry on a mercantile business.

Albert Deneen and wife passed through our Valley one day last week.

Simon Layton and son George left Sunday for Altoona, in answer to a message that Ed Layton's youngest child was dead. Measles and pneumonia had done the deadly work.

Mary Plessinger and daughter Achsah were visiting friends over Sideling Hill last Sunday.

A new fence has been purchased to enclose the cemetery at the Whips Cove church, the old board fence having fallen down, leaving the graves unprotected. A similar movement is in progress at the Jerusalem church.

A vote was taken at the Jerusalem church last Sunday, to ascertain if they were in favor of the proposed pastorate as set forth by the Conference. The movement was kicked clear out of existence, as far as the Jerusalem church was concerned. Sister churches will be wise to follow their example, and not leave even a rumor that it was ever proposed.

Sunday school met Sunday morning at both churches. Preaching services at the Whips Cove church Sunday evening.

SALVIA.

The fruit trees are all out in full bloom, and it is said that rye heads were seen in March. The prospects are fine for a full fruit crop if frost does not come along later.

Emory Hessler purchased a fine work horse the other day.

Frank Norris has moved to the McDaniel farm.

Ned Mellott has moved his saw mill to the J. W. Hoop farm, where he will proceed to saw out a large lot of lumber.

Leonard Hockensmith has moved his sawmill to Thomas Hollinshead's.

On the 29th of March as Uncle John Hann and his wife were busy making garden, they were agreeably surprised by the appearance of a number of their friends and neighbors carrying well filled baskets of good things to eat, and presents for Mrs. Hann; for in some way they had found out that it was her 70th birthday. A delicious dinner was served and everybody had an enjoyable time. Those present were Howard Hann wife and son Freddie, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kline and daughter Goldie, Mrs. D. E. Mellott, Mrs. Maria Mann, Mrs. John Moore and daughter Susie, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wible and son Clyde, Lottie Rohm and May Enslay.

Mr. Ross, of Everett, has moved into the house with John Khne.

William Bare bought Ed Kline's driving horse.

L. R. Swartz has gone to Kearney to work.

Miss Nellie Baker, who had been in Altoona, has returned to her home at Clear Ridge.

THEATRES PAY BIG RENT.

Broadway Houses Pay from $35,000 to $70,000 a Year.

Many theatres are operated under old leases made when the theatre itself was the factor, and the rentals of these are usually very low. The renewals always see a big advance. For instance the Broadway Theatre, which is at Forty-first street, in New York, was leased for ten years at a rental of $40,000. This year the new lessees are paying $70,000 a year.

The Empire Theatre, which is almost across the street, was leased for $35,000 until recently, when the rental was jumped to $50,000 a year. The New York Theatre rents for $60,000 and the Criterion for $35,000 a year, both being under one roof but under different management. Recently $3,500,000 was refused for the site, no account being taken of the building, which cost considerably more than a million dollars.

There are still class theatres in New York which still rent for as little as $30,000 but under the old leases. In Chicago, according to Everybody's, the Colonial Theatre rents for $50,000, and the Forrest Theatre in Philadelphia commands the same amount. In Boston the range is from $30,000 to $45,000. In Cincinnati, Detroit and St. Louis from $20,000 to $40,000 a year—and so it goes.

An Ungrateful Sufferer.

Steady nerves, strength and gentleness had all been included in nature's gift to Miss Harmon, and she made an excellent nurse. But when she saw a patient in what she called "the glums" she never failed to speak a few admonitory words.

"Now see here," she said, in her clear, pleasant voice one morning to Squire Lathrop, slowly recovering from an attack of gout which had been severe enough to send him to bed, "see here! I know you've had quite a struggle, but you just look at some of your mercies, square."

"What, for instance?" demanded the squire, who knew her ways.

Miss Harmon bent an accusing gaze on him.

"Take this bed, for instance," she said. "Have you thought how few there are that have the privilege of being sick in a handsome black walnut bedstead like yours, and have their clean sheets taken out of such a mahogany linen-press as you've got? That ought to cheer you up some, anyway, to think of such privileges."

Science of Roads.

At the recent Road Conference in Paris it was decided that the proper spreading of tar on macadamized roads is an effective means of preventing dust. The method is largely used in France. About one-third of a gallon of tar is used for each square yard of surface. The roads last longer, and the cost of maintenance is reduced. In the United States oil is employed to a considerable extent to prevent dust and preserve the surface of roads. The oil is spread from carts, during the making of the road, to the amount of one or two gallons per square yard. The French road engineers recommend the planting of trees along roadsides as a means of preventing dust. In France all roads not less than 35 feet wide are required to have a single line of trees on each side, at distances apart varying from 15 to 25 feet.

The Point of View.

Jean Paul Laurens, the famous French painter, was the son of an honest cart-driver of Toulouse. At one time, when the painter was at the height of his Parisian reputation, it happened that two old women at Toulouse were talking about the Laurens family.

"Let me see," said one, "there were two boys, weren't there?"

"Yes."

"What became of them?"

"Oh, one's a grocer right here in Toulouse. He does a very good business."

"And the other one?"

"The younger one? He went off to Paris and became an artist."

"Dear, dear! And his father such a good, worthy man!"

Controlling Flower Colors.

By the use of chemicals, such as potassium hydrate, potassium carbonate, potassium sulphate, aluminum sulphate, calcium hydrate and lead acetate, Prof. Henry Kraemer of Philadelphia has produced a red color in the petals of the white Kaiserin rose, and has caused hydrangeas, naturally red-flowering, to produce blue blossoms. The chemicals are fed to the plants in the form of solutions, or added to the soil in the solid form, solution then taking place gradually in the earth. The manner in which the chemicals act on the plants is not yet fully understood.

Could Not Eat Excuses.

A school-teacher in a rural district left her boarding-place suddenly and could not be prevailed upon to return. Her landlady asked the committee to find out why her boarder had left her, and to them the young woman said plainly that the food was so bad she could not eat it.

This explanation was in turn conveyed to the landlady who expressed the greatest surprise.

"Why," she said, "I don't see how that could be. I knew the bread was bad two or three times, but I was always careful to excuse it."

Daily Thought.

See that all the hours of the day are so full of interesting and healthful occupation that there is no chance for worry to stick its nose in.—Luther H. Gulick.

A Revelation to the Cook.

A happily married woman, who had enjoyed thirty-three years of wedlock, and who was the grandmother of four beautiful little children, had an amusing old colored woman for a cook.

One day when a box of especially beautiful flowers was left for the mistress the cook happened to be present, and she said: "Yo' husband send you all the pretty flowers you gits, Missy."

"Certainly, my husband, mammy," proudly answered the lady.

"Glorious!" exclaimed the cook, "be suttenly am holdin' out well."

The Cyclone
Robs Housecleaning of Its Terrors

There is usually a cyclone in the home during house cleaning time that makes the "lord of creation" wish he was in Texas; but since the introduction of the CYCLONE HOUSECLEANER everybody about the house is happy. No taking up of carpets or matting; no wicked thoughts made by mashing fingers with tack hammer. The CYCLONE CLEANER just takes every bit of dust out of carpets, matting, rugs; takes it out of the upholstery; off the walls; out of the crevices; from the curtains, and leaves the rooms sweet and clean—and does it easy. It does away with the old-fashioned way of taking carpet out in the backyard and destroying it more by an hour's beating, than the wear of a year on the floor—to say nothing of the disagreeable work.

Save time; save money; save temper, by buying a Vacuum Cleaner from GEORGE B. MELLOTT, Agent, McCONNELLSBURG, PA.

Call and see it work.

WEST DUBLIN.
The Laidig boys were practicing baseball on Saturday afternoon.

Fires on the mountain engaged the attention of our men and boys on Friday and Saturday. If the person or persons who started the fire on Friday were known, there would likely have been a trip to McConnellsburg for them.

Arrangements preliminary to taking the census of this township are being made.

Harvey Clevenger and Harvey Berkstesser, who have been employed in Pittsburg the past winter have returned to farm during the summer.

S. H. Hockensmith is employed at J. E. Lyon's.

Mrs. Margaret Stevens is spending a few days with relatives in this township.

The rain of Sunday was much appreciated by the farmers.

There was a fair attendance at preaching on Sunday forenoon.

We hope Rev. McGarvey's pastorate will be successful.

THE SECRET OUT.
"What made my lovely complexion? I do not like to tell, for it was medicine, but the nicest a woman ever took. It was Lane's Family Medicine that did it." This is a pleasant herb tea which acts favorably on the stomach and bowels, purifying the blood and cleansing the skin like magic. It cures headache and backache. Druggists and dealers sell it, 25c.

NEEDMORE.
We are having a beautiful rain for which we are very thankful.

Mrs. T. E. Wink came up Friday evening to join her husband at their new head quarters here.

John Mann is visiting his sister Mrs. Jno. McClellan.

Uncle Billy Wink is much better and Ed. is still very ill.

The series of meetings held here Saturday and Sunday by Eld. A. J. Garland, of Front Royal, Va., was well attended.

Eld. C. L. Funk will preach here next Sunday evening.

We are glad to say that the attendance of the Sunday school under the leadership of Mrs. J. J. Palmer, is increasing.

John Hess sold a fine driving horse last week.

Jeff C. Mellott and Harvey Snyder swapped horses one day last week.

Austin Lynch and wife, of Gem, spent Sunday with friends here.

The Repository says that C. B. Hege, of Marion, a co-operative observer of the weather for the United States Weather Bureau shows by his daily record that this March was the driest for seven years. On the 1st day of the month there was a precipitation of .20 inch, a slight fall again on the 6th and on the 10th 7 inches of snow and but eight days of the month were cloudy. The temperature ranged from 22 degrees on the 15th and 18th up to 88 degrees on the 8th.
