The Pleasant Ridge Sunday school was re-organized last Sunday with the following officers: Superintendent, John Mellott; Assistant Superintendent, J. C. Garland; Secretary, J. G. Mellott, and Treasurer, I. W. Garland. It is hoped that the surrounding community will take a deep interest in the school, and help to make it a source of much power for good.

Monday morning, the peanut-roasting plant of Henry C. Heckerman, at Bedford, was destroyed by fire, evidently of incendiary origin. Up to this time, Bedford has enjoyed the distinction of having the largest peanut-roasting and packing establishment in the United States, and the product was shipped to every State in the Union. The capacity of the roasters was 120 bushels of peanuts an hour, and 60 men and girls were employed there, and 25 at a branch packing house in Everett.

The Walnut Grove Campmeeting.

A meeting will be held on the Walnut Grove campground, Tues day, May 3 at 2 p. m. for the purpose of organizing an Association which in the future will control and conduct this camp. Stock is being sold at $10 a share to bear 5 per cent interest. Subscriptions should be sent to C. H. Forney, D. D., Harrisburg, Pa.

The Walnut Grove Campmeeting was started by David Ashton in 1894. In 1896 the ground was deeded to the East Pennsylvania Eldership of the churches of God. In 1898 the ground was presented to the Eldership. The Eldership accepted the gift and elected J. S. Reihart, Dockers Locke and Silas Cutchall trustees. In 1902, the Elders elected J. S. Reihart, David Ashton, and J. R. Linn trustees and gave them full control of the camp as well as the grounds. In 1906, the Eldership elected Rev. F. W. McGuire and Rev. L. C. Sollenberger trustees. Rev. McGuire has served since that time. The present trustees serving with him are Revs. J. T. Flegal and J. M. Waggoner.

The trustees asked the Eldership recently to relieve them of the burden of conducting the camp. This led to the forming of an Association. This Association will protect the rights of all. It will be under the control of the Eldership and all permanent tent holders and others having rights in the ground, will be fully protected. All are invited to the meeting of May 3d.

Persons desiring information or desiring to rent tents for camp of 1910 should write to Rev. F. W. McGuire, Saxton, Pa.

THE DEMON OF THE AIR

is the germ of LaGrippe, that breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthened the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

The Sunday school at Spring House Valley was reorganized last Sunday afternoon and the following persons elected to serve as officers: Superintendent, John Hendershot; Assistant Superintendent, Mrs. Hendershot; Treasurer, Wm. Bivens; Secretary, Mrs. Bivens; Librarian, Cyrus Wagner. The school will be held in the school house at 2 o'clock ever Sunday afternoon during the summer. It is to be hoped that the people in the community will give it encouragement and help, and that it may be a center of influence for much good.
