110 Miles From London-White Aroused, Starts In Pursuit-Race Resumed At Sunrise.

Manchester (Special), - Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, reached here safely in his aeroplane. London (Special) .-... The struggle for the coveted aviation prize of $50,000 for a flight from London to Manchester, donated by Lord Northcliffe, took a dramatic and unexpected turn by reason of the Frenchman, Louis Paulhan, stealingamarch on his English rival, Graham White, which placed him 20 miles ahea in the race when darkness compelled both to alight for the night. White, however, tried to make up for the start Paulhan had on him and returned the trick. Starting again in the darkness, while Paul and han was resting and waiting for daylight

Paulhan's magnificent flight of 117 miles without descent in two hours and fifty minutes compares favorably with his flight on April 18 from Orleans to Arcis-Sur-Aube, a distance of 118 miles, in three and one-half hours. The following table shows the progress of the race: Paulhan-Hendon, Start, 5.20 P. M.; Bletchley, 47 miles, 6.27 P. M.; Roade, 58 1/2 miles, 6.40 P. M.; Rugby, 83 miles, 7.21 P. 7.55 P. M. Second start 2.50 A. M.; descends at Polesworth.

Paulhan's machine only arrived in London at 6 o'clock in the morning. and both he and White were busily engaged all forenoon in fitting up their aeroplanes and perfecting arrangemetns for the start. The weather was favorable, but owing to the heavy work involved in pre-paring the machines, it was sup-posed that the start would be deferred until Thursday. The two aviators had met early in the morning and discussed plans, expressing the hope that they would meet each other in Manchester. During the course of the day con-stantly increasing crowds gathered at Park Roya) and Hendon, the respective headquarters of the two men, in the hope of witnessing the trial flights.
