

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents.

A Sunday school recently organized at Bald Eagle School house, in Thompson township, adds one more to the total number of Sabbath schools in this county. It begins under auspicious circumstances, and has a good field for usefulness.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

Billy Nelson, son of Hon. D. A. Nelson, succeeded in "bringing down" with his trusty rifle, an immense fish hawk in Jimmy Kendall's meadow last Thursday. The bird measured 55 inches from tip to tip, and weighed four pounds.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Son pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

By reference to the sale register, it will be seen that Grant Baker will have another stock sale on the 14th of this month. His sale last Saturday, while not so largely attended was one of the best he has yet had. People who want stock are learning that it is a good place to go.

There is a Stork living in Mercersburg. That stork's first name is Swartzwelder. That stork was at Foltz a few days ago. He left two little dishwashers—one in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Baty, and one in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Funk. The parents are very proud. They say the stork left "1910" models.

The Lutheran congregation of this place last Sunday extended a formal call to Rev. Clifford E. Hays, of Hagerstown, Md., to become pastor of the church to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Rev. Fassold. Mr. Hays is a student in the Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary, and will graduate with the present class.

J. A. Stewart has resigned as toll collector and Supervisor for Chambersburg and Bedford Turnpike Co., at No. 2. Other gates will collect for the present, until other arrangements be made. Mr. Stewart has engaged with a Chicago firm at a good salary, and expenses paid. Mrs. Stewart and daughters will continue to manage the hotel.

Dannie Mumma, of Licking Creek township, becoming impatient with the inroads made by hawks on his mother's chickens, shouldered his gun Monday and went after them. In less than an hour's time he had the satisfaction of killing two of them and so badly scaring the third that it has not been seen in the neighborhood since. Of the two he killed, one measured 36 inches from tip to tip, and the other 38.

The several religious congregations of town united in a service in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening in which the principal feature was a lecture delivered by Prof. Burton L. Lockwood, of Franklin, Pa., on Christian Courage. The lecture was given in the interest of the crusade against the great evil of intemperance in the use of intoxicating drinks. Prof. Lockwood possesses a strong personality, which coupled with consecrated earnestness, and a thorough familiarity of the subject in hand, makes his lecture one of unusual power.

Household Remedies.

Sufferers from sleeplessness should try a hot salt bath before retiring. It refreshes and often induces sleep.

An unseed poultice should always be applied next to the skin. The oil from the meal has many healing properties.

To clean children's teeth use a little precipitated chalk once a day. Camphorated chalk should be avoided, as it makes the teeth brittle.

Hangnails are usually the result of a dry condition of the skin. Soak the fingers in warm water at night and then rub in an emollient.

Soft corns are exceedingly painful. Apply a small piece of cotton wool saturated in castor oil between the toes, where the corns mostly come, and it will give speedy relief.

Bruises should be bathed immediately in hot water. This will not only ease the pain, but often save discoloration of the skin. In severe cases a compress of hot oil is found to give relief.

Church Services.

On next Sabbath at 10:30 a. m., Miss Annie O'Beirne, of New York City, will present the claims of the Jewish Mission of that city in the United Presbyterian church. All are cordially invited.

Also at 7:30 p. m., a union service embracing the churches of town, will be held in the same place. Affording an opportunity for all to hear Miss O'Beirne.

J. L. GROVE, Pastor.

A REGULAR TOM BOY

was Susie—climbing trees and fences, jumping ditches, whittling always getting scratches, cuts, sprains, bruises, bumps, burns or scalds. But laws! Her mother just applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and cured her quick. Heals everything healable—Boils, Ulcers, Eczema, Old Sores, Corns or Piles. Try it. 25c. at Trout's drug store.

Sweet Breath and Clean Teeth.

A sweet breath and clean teeth can hardly be expected while there is a tinge of white on the tongue, denoting evidence of indigestion. Drink sour lemonade, eat ripe fruit, etc., as purgatives, exercise freely, use plenty of water internally. Use as counter acting powers for unpleasant breath, cinnamon, mint leaves, cloves, orris root, spruce gum or mastic resin. Ten ounces of myrrh in a glass of water will sweeten and refresh the mouth. A tablespoonful of camphor or peppermint used in the same way is among the best antiseptics, and a few drops of myrrh and camphor in the water are recommended in cases of colds and throat trouble.

McConnellsburg Normal.

The undersigned intend to begin their Summer Normal in the new school building at McConnellsburg on Monday, May 9, 1910, at 1:30 p. m. Length of term, eight weeks. Tuition $5.00. Special attention given to teachers and those preparing to teach. Good board can be secured at reasonable rates. School will close July 1st. Examination by County Superintendent for provisional certificates June 30, and July 1st.

Birthday Surprise Party.

A birthday surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hann, near Saluvia, on the evening of April 20th, in honor of the 19th birthday of the daughter Miss Edna. The routine of work progressed throughout the day without any indication of a surprise being in store for any one and Edna had received presents from the immediate family as usual. When the evening mail was received it contained a card from Rev. McGarvey and wife bearing their regrets that they could not be present to spend the evening. This was the first intimation of anything unusual. In a short time some neighbors called to spend the evening, and about 8 o'clock there were other neighbors and friends arrived bringing plenty of good cheer which always means a pleasant time. Supper was served at 9:30, after which the company was favored with music by Mrs. Melven E. Bobb and Miss Mary Mumma. The time was spent very pleasantly until about 1 o'clock, a. m., when all left for their respective homes, leaving Miss Edna many presents as tokens of respect and good will. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sipe and daughter Goldie; Mrs. Fannie Mumma and daughters Mary and Julia; Mrs. May Barr and daughter Nella; Mrs. Melvin Bobb and daughter Scottanna; Edgar Hann, wife and daughter Viola; Ada and Lois Decker; Louie and Gertrude Kegerise; Grace Hann, Blanche Schooley, Eleanor Betz, Pauline Hann; Goldie, Russell, George and Lee Decker; Harry Kline, Charley Schooley, Thomas and Percy Deshong, Carl Hann and Clem Sipes.

LION FONDLES A CHILD.

In Pittsburg a savage lion fondled the hand that a child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. They slay thousands that Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. "A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of Croup," writes Mrs. George B. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C., "We always give it to him when he takes cold. Its a wonderful medicine for babies." Best for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hemorrhages, Weak Lungs. 50c. $1.00 Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Trout's drug store.

Wildcat.

In this game but one person should know the secret. If there are others they should feign ignorance, not to spoil the fun. The one person in the secret announces that he will first give each member of the company the name of some wild animal and that afterward, when one of the names given is called, the player having it must do whatever he is told.

Then the names are given to each in a whisper, with the strict injunction not to reveal them until the proper time. Instead of giving different names, however, everybody has been given the same—"wildcat."

When the leader, taking his stand at the door, says: "Now, all ready. The first animal whose name I call must get to the opposite side of the next room before I do or pay a forfeit." Then, calling "Wildcat!" he rushes through the door, with, of course, the whole company in hot pursuit, all realizing when too late that they have been sold.

MRS. A. F. LITTLE'S Summer Millinery.

Easter, 1910, has come and gone, and with it winter and spring millinery.

The Good Old Summer Time, is here, with its wealth of flowers and fruits, and the discriminating buyer waits her hat trimmed in unison with the season.

It was to meet this demand that we made the second trip to the eastern cities, and are now busy unpacking and marking the finest, freshest, and most up-to-date millinery attractions it ever has been our pleasure to offer.

"Just too lovely for anything" is the involuntary expression of every one who sees them.

Maybe you want a large hat. We have them—just what you want. Then, our flowers and fruits and ribbons and all that go toward making seasonably trimmed hats. Peaches, apricots, grapes, cherries so natural that they fool the robins.

Then, finally and lastly, the price is right. Just about half what you would have to pay if you went to Harrisburg or Philadelphia; and it would not be a bit better in quality or style either.
