Francis M. Taylor, C.E.
SURVEYING & MAPPING.
McConnellsburg, Pa.
FOR STATE SENATOR.
Primaries Saturday June 4, 1910.

The Sheets Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents.

You can buy all the Binder Twine you want—both Sisal and Standard—for eight cents a pound, at George B. Mellott's.

Rev. J. Calvin Garland will preach in the Back Run school house Sunday, June 5th, at 10:30 a. m.

Capernaum—Love in the Hospital and Sanatorium, will be the subject of the sermon in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

50 cents pays the fare one way between McConnellsburg and Mercersburg. Sheets stage line.

Memorial services will be conducted at Cedar Grove church in Bethel township on Monday, May 30th, commencing at 9:30 a. m., and continuing in the afternoon.

HIDES.—James Sipes & Sons pay the highest market price for beef hides at their butcher shop in McConnellsburg, also highest price paid for calf skins, sheepskins and tallow.

Howard Weld removed from the farm in Tod township, formerly the Abram Wagner farm south of Knobsville, into Billy Clevenger's new house on West Market street.

The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Geo. W. Reiser on Friday evening of this week, at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members of the society is requested.

Rev. Clifford E. Hays, of Hagerstown, has accepted a call from the several Lutheran churches composing the McConnellsburg charge, and will begin his labors in that field Sunday, May 29th, by preaching in McConnellsburg, morning and evening, and at Big Cove Tannery, at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Elmer Ramsey's friends will learn with regret of an accident that happened to him last week. Mr. Ramsey keeps a boarding house at Jacobs, Huntingdon county, and to give one of his friends who works at the mines an opportunity to be off a day or two, Mr. Ramsey took his place, and in attempting to couple cars, his hand was caught in the coupling, and so badly crushed that it became necessary to amputate the thumb of his left hand.

Virtue in Hot Coffee.
It is asserted by men of high professional ability that when the system needs a stimulant, nothing equals a cup of fresh coffee, while those who have tried it state that malaria and similar epidemics are avoided by those who drink a cup of hot coffee before venturing into the morning air. Put on hot coals coffee is a disinfectant for a sick room. By some of our best physicians it is considered a specific in typhoid fever.

Letter to David Maun,
McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: A certain paint manufacturer advertised "Waldorf-Astoria painted throughout with my paint." A part of the basement was s. painted; not satisfactory; painted Devoe next time.

There's a certain paint, a big concern, very proud and ambitious, that hated to see so big a job of another paint; so it went for that business.

That former paint was about two thirds not paint, but this proud and ambitious paint was only about one third not paint. It succeeded in getting a trial: 25 gallons, 5 kits of 5 gallons each.

When the painter had used one kit, he called the manager; not satisfactory; 4 of the kits returned. A paint, one-third not paint, is not good enough to displace Devoe.

This was several years ago. That proud and ambitious paint is better now; it is nearer honest; it isn't short-measure at all and only 15 per cent. adulterated. It's a pretty good paint now; 13 or 14 gallons of it goes as far as 10 of Devoe.

Judge I. D. Farchild owns two houses alike in Lufkin, Texas. J. M. Torrence painted both houses one Devoe, and the other with that proud and ambitious adulterated 15 per cent. paint. It took 15 1/2 gallons Devoe and 25 gallons of the proud and ambitious paint.

It takes a pretty good paint to disturb Devoe.
Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & Co.
61 P. 3.—Hull & Bender, McConnellsburg; J. A. Boyd, Mercersburg; and Norman O. Huber, Chambersburg, sell our paint.

Midsummer Conventions.
The Fulton County Sunday School convention and the Fulton County Christian Endeavor convention will be held conjointly in McConnellsburg during the third week in June—the Sunday school convention of Tuesday and Wednesday, 21st and 22nd, and the Christian Endeavor convention on Wednesday and Thursday, 22d and 23rd. The week preceding these conventions, County President, County Secretary, and State Worker Reel will make a tour of the County, visiting the Sunday schools and holding local institutes.

WILSON FOR CONGRESS.
Congressman Focht and Wallace Wilson, yet they seem to be unanimously of the opinion that Benjamin K. Focht would lose at the primaries. One man, who has a near relative, state senator, in the Focht camp, believed that Junata and Mifflin counties would split even. Others, less likely to be biased, were certain that Focht would be beaten in both counties.—Waynesboro Public Opinion.

All sorts of ridiculous yarns are being set afloat, the object of which is to stem the tide that has been going towards Wallace Wilson, of Huntingdon county, Mr. Focht's opponent.—Waynesboro Evening Herald.

The people, the great masses of people, who have no office, and desire no office, would like to have one of their own kind in Congress. They are tired of the Quay methods of getting and holding power. Some of these will vote for Wallace Wilson because they like him and some will vote for him because they dislike the system of which Benjamin K. Focht is a willing party.—Mt. Union Twice-A-Week Republican.

Wallace Wilson, Esq., of Alexandria, Huntingdon county, announces his candidacy for Congress. Mr. Wilson is a first class business man and a leading citizen. He has a pleasing personality and makes friends wherever he goes. His political platform is "anti-Cannanism." While he is a party man, he claims some latitude for individual judgment.—New Bloomfield People's Advocate and Press.

Wallace Wilson on the other hand is a new man in politics. He has not before been a candidate for political office. He has no political enemies except those he is making in the present fight. His business record is all in his favor and his own county speaks extremely well of him. He is a man of strong personality and is sure to make many votes on his ability and make friends wherever he goes.—Chambersburg Public Opinion.

Here is a sample of the replies we have received to our inquiries:
Editor of The Gazette,
Lewistown, Pa.

My Dear Sir:
I desire to say a word to you in regard to Mr. Wallace Wilson, of this county, who is a candidate for nomination on the Republican ticket for Congress in this district. While I might say much that would be complimentary to Mr. Wilson, I simply wish to bear testimony to his integrity and that what he states concerning himself is true. He is an intelligent, honest man, and his record is clean here. His word is solid. We purpose giving Mr. Wilson our support for what he is himself, and what he represents in the campaign, true representative government. We trust that he may have your support in Mifflin county.

Very respectfully,
The writer of the above is one of the most prominent men in Huntingdon, well and favorably known throughout the county, and if we were to give his name it would carry conviction to the minds of all our readers, as it has to ours.—Waynesboro Evening Herald.

Wilson is very favorably regarded in Huntingdon county. He has shown business ability there, and his campaign is being waged on an anti-Cannanism platform.—Selmsgrove Times.

Wallace Wilson, the man who gave the people of Huntingdon the cheapest electricity they have ever bought.—Waynesboro Evening Herald.

Wallace Wilson is a prominent and successful business man of Huntingdon. Mr. Focht has therefore had clear sailing and secured his nomination and election on two different occasions, under unusually favorable conditions. This time it looks as though he will have a foeman worthy of his steel.—Chambersburg People's Register.

Mr. Wilson is a first class business man and a leading citizen. He was a pleasing personality and makes friends wherever he goes. His political platform is "anti-Cannanism." While he is a party man, he claims some latitude for individual judgment.—Thompson Junata Globe.

Summer Millinery.
Easter, 1910, has come and gone, and with it winter and spring millinery.
The Good Old Summer Time, is here, with its wealth of flowers and fruits, and the discriminating buyer wants her hat trimmed in unison with the season.
It was to meet this demand that we made the second trip to the eastern cities, and are now busy unpacking and marking the finest, freshest, and most up-to-date millinery attractions it ever has been our pleasure to offer.
"Just too lovely for anything" is the involuntary expression of every one who sees them.
Maybe you want a large hat. We have them—just what you want.
Then, our flowers and fruits and ribbons and all that go toward making seasonably trimmed hats. Peaches, apricots, grapes, cherries so natural that they fool the robins.
Then, finally and lastly, the price is right. Just about half what you would have to pay if you went to Harrisburg or Philadelphia; and it would not be a bit better in quality or style either.
Just opposite the Postoffice, McConnellsburg.

strong personality, splendid business ability and has established a reputation that will stand inspection; honest, fearless in all things and one that would be respected in the National Congress and a credit to his constituents and the Republican party.—Lewistown Chronicle.
Mr. Wilson is well received in all parts of the district. His genial personality secures him an audience everywhere and the revolution running against Cannanism and the stand patters opens the hearts of the people to one who has a record free from bossism.—Mt. Union Republican.
Bill to Increase Pensions.
In order that the old soldiers may better meet the increased cost of living, a bill was introduced in the house at Washington, D. C., to make an increase in all pensions not to exceed $20 monthly. The bill was prepared by Theodore P. Rynder, of Milesburg, Pa., and is highly endorsed. Increasing pensions as proposed by the bill would raise the pension expenditures of the government $20,000,000 annually, but more than a half a million old soldiers would be benefited. The reason this bill is being urged now is that a great number of the pensioners are declared to be in actual want because of the increased cost of living.
