ROCKEFELLER'S NAME WILL LIVE
 Harriman's Will Fade From Human Mind, But Oil Magnate's Never.

Palo Alto, Cal.—In President David Starr Jordan's address to the graduating class at Stanford University, the subject of which was "The Wealth of Nations," reference was made to the lives of E. H. Harriman and other great financiers in drawing the lesson that man's success in life is not measured by what he does for himself, but rather by what he does for humanity.
 "In those matters in which the permanent wealth of nations is concerned, in the long future of mental and spiritual development, the name of Harriman," said Dr. Jordan, "finds no place. The name of Newcomb in the same connection will stand in larger letters among these who by life and influence have made this world a broader and a better one."
 Continuing, he said: "The name of Rockefeller will not suggest Standard Oil or the association of monopolies. The Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research represents one of the ways in which any man's name can ever be put."

His Point of Order.
 After Senator Heyburn had talked himself thirsty on the agricultural bill he called for a glass of water. "That reminds me," said a gentleman in the gallery, "of an incident that happened in the New York Legislature. A member had been speaking on a certain bill for more than an hour, much to the discomfort of his hearers, when he called for a glass of water and started off afresh. Another member on the other side of the chamber was on his feet in a jiffy and said: 'Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. State your point of order,' responded the speaker. 'Mr. Speaker,' said the objecting member, 'I make the point of order against the member from Schenectady County that it is out of order for him to run a windmill with water.'—Washington Herald.

'Twas The Stork.
 "A West Philadelphia teacher was talking about wild animals and birds to a class of little girls," said Herman S. Decker, of Philadelphia, relating the following amusing incident: "She had told them about the carnivorous animals and beasts of the jungle, and began asking questions about birds of prey.
 "Can anyone in the class tell me," she asked, "what bird it is that is so strong that it can fly down on top of the sky and carry off a small child of ease?"
 "There was a moment's pause, and then a little girl in the rear of the classroom frantically raised her hand.
 "I know," fairly shouted the bright pupil, under stress of great excitement; "it's the stork, 'cause one of 'em brought a baby to our house last night!"—Washington Herald.

 Here is an old anecdote, dressed up in new clothes and located in the liberal atmosphere of Cincinnati. Maybe you want to read it again if you don't; don't! Anecdote: "A guest in a Cincinnati hotel was shot and killed. The negro porter who heard the shooting was a witness at the trial. How many shots did you hear?" asked the lawyer. "Two shots, sah," he replied. "How far apart were they?" "But like dis way," explained the negro, clapping his hand with an interval of about a second between them. "Where were you when the first shot was fired?" "Shinin' a gemman's shoe in de basement of de hotel." "Where were you when the second shot was fired?" "Ah was a passin' de Big 'O depot."—Birmingham Age Herald.

Most Popular Joke.
 The most popular joke which has been published in any language in the history of the world is the one that which appeared in the obscure corner of the Punch Almanac for 1845. It read: "Advice to persons about to marry—Don't!" It would be interesting to know who was its author. Another, founded on a similar subject, was the "Advice to persons who have fallen in love"—"Fall out!" One of the most brilliant things that ever appeared in our contemporary was the brief dialogue between an inquiring child and his impatient parent: "What is mind?" "No matter." "What is matter?" "Never mind."—Westminster Gazette.

 "And did you go to the cafes?"
 "Sure, I was in all of 'em."
 "Well, tell me, Mike, and did you see any pommes de terre?"
 "No, I had the wife with me all the time."—Albany Argus.

FEED CHILDREN
On Properly Selected Food. It Pays Big Dividends.
 If parents will give just a little intelligent thought to the feeding of their children the difference in the health of the little folks will pay many times over, for the small trouble.
 A mother writes saying: "Our children are all so much better and stronger than they ever were before we made a change in the character of the food. We have cut using potatoes three times a day with coffee and so much meat.
 "Now we give the little folks some fruit, either fresh, stewed, or canned, some Grape-Nuts with cream, occasionally some soft boiled eggs, and some Postum for breakfast and supper. Then for dinner they have some meat and vegetables.
 "It would be hard to realize the change in the children, they have grown so sturdy and strong, and we attribute this change to the food element that, I understand, exist in Grape-Nuts and Postum.
 "A short time ago my baby was teething and had a great deal of stomach and bowel trouble. Nothing seemed to agree with him until I tried Grape-Nuts softened and mixed with rich milk and he improved rapidly and got sturdy and well."

COMMERCIAL
 Weekly Review of Trade and Market Reports.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:
 "Changes in the line of moderate improvement. Crop prospects are better, and this is plainly indicated by the downward tendency of prices. Visible improvement is taking place in the iron and steel trade, and this is the best development of the past few days. There is a larger demand for both pig iron and for finished products, especially in agricultural machinery. Demand from railroads for equipment is somewhat restricted by uncertainty regarding freight rates, yet some good business in rolling stock is regarded as certain, and rails have been taken in modern amounts."
 Bradstreet says:
 "Quota still rules in trade and many lines of industry, while speculation, except in grain, seems in a waiting stage, pending clearer views of ultimate crop and price outcome. Relatively most activity in jobbing trade is centered in meeting current demands, and fall business still lacks form. Retail trade has shown some gain at leading Western markets, but is still classed as below expectations. Unseasonably cool weather is very commonly assigned as the cause for backward trade, but there are still in evidence the signs that uncertainty as to prices hold back future gains."
 "Business failures in the United States for the week ended May 26 were 200, against 225 last week, 205 in the like week of 1909, 263 in 1908, 142 in 1907 and 127 in 1906.

Household Hints.
 It is surprising the many different appetizing ways that Corned Beef can be prepared for the family's meal. Every one likes Corned Beef and there is no more healthful or delicious dish than Libby's, carefully selected from prime beef and properly "cured."
 There is some waste, to be sure, when bought at the butcher's, but in the plan here suggested you may buy the finest corned beef in the world in which there is absolutely no waste and every particle of which can be eaten.
 Suppose you ask your grocer for Libby's Corned Beef. It represents all fall pieces and is cured and cooked to perfection in Libby's wonderful white enamel kitchens. A can of Libby's Corned Beef sliced and served cold with dill pickles and potato salad is a delightful meal and will be enough for four people.
 Corned Beef Hash—Take the contents of a can, chop fine, and add one-fourth as much butter or baked potatoes, a little fried onion and a small quantity of water. Cook slowly until thoroughly heated, then serve on toast with or without poached eggs.
 Corned Beef Omelette—Beat the yolks and whites of four eggs separately and add one-half of the whites to all of the yolks. Put in a hot frying pan and, when nicely browned on the bottom, sprinkle a cup of minced corned beef over the top. Cook over the remainder of the whites, put in the oven and brown on top. Then fold and serve.
 Creamed Corned Beef—Mince the contents of a can of Libby's Corned Beef. Put over this a dressing of cream gravy with the yolk of an egg beaten into it.
 New England Boiled Dinner—You may have this in one-fourth of the time it usually takes. Put a can of Libby's Corned Beef in boiling water and let it cook until the housewife using it is already cooked when bought and there is no necessity for the long, tedious and expensive boiling which is necessary with raw corned beef. The house is not filled with steam and odors and valuable time is saved. Libby's Corned Beef is ready at once if serving in any one of the many ways mentioned above, and you will find every convenience to try it next time. Be sure you get Libby, McNeill & Libby's Corned Beef.

Emancipation In China.
 Notwithstanding that part of the imperial rescript abolishing slavery in China is nominal rather than an actual manumission, consisting in prohibiting the retainers of the Manchou princes from being called slaves hereafter and the designating the household slaves of the Manchus as hired servants without changing their condition of bondage for life, its general terms will eventually lead to the freedom of millions of human beings and put a stop to slavery in the empire. A notable provision is that forbidding the sale of children in times of famine, an immoral custom, although still permitted as a compromise term of bondservitude until the age of 25.
 The issue of the rescript makes at least a significant beginning toward the ultimate freedom of the Chinese by official recognition of the impropriety of the barter and sale of human beings. Changes come slowly in that land, and while the extinction of slavery there may be deferred for years, the fact that it has at least been undertaken is that much gain for civilization.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.
 Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear or without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

 Sixteen Years of Skin Disease.
 "For sixteen long years I have been suffering with a bad case of skin disease. While a child there broke out a red sore on the legs just in back of my knees. It wasted from bad to worse, and at last I saw I had a bad skin disease. I tried many widely known doctors in different cities, but to no satisfactory result. The plague bothered me more in warm weather than in winter, and being on my leg joints it made it impossible for me to walk, and I was forced to stay indoors in the warmest weather. My hopes of recovery were by this time spent. Sleepless nights and restless days made life an unbearable burden. At last I was advised to try the Cuticura Remedies [Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills], and I did not need more than a trial to convince me that I was on the road of success this time. I bought two sets of the Cuticura Remedies and after these were gone I was a different man entirely. I am now the happiest man that there is at least one true cure for skin diseases. Leonard A. Hawtof, 11 Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., July 30, and August 8, 1909."

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.
 Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear or without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

 Sixteen Years of Skin Disease.
 "For sixteen long years I have been suffering with a bad case of skin disease. While a child there broke out a red sore on the legs just in back of my knees. It wasted from bad to worse, and at last I saw I had a bad skin disease. I tried many widely known doctors in different cities, but to no satisfactory result. The plague bothered me more in warm weather than in winter, and being on my leg joints it made it impossible for me to walk, and I was forced to stay indoors in the warmest weather. My hopes of recovery were by this time spent. Sleepless nights and restless days made life an unbearable burden. At last I was advised to try the Cuticura Remedies [Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills], and I did not need more than a trial to convince me that I was on the road of success this time. I bought two sets of the Cuticura Remedies and after these were gone I was a different man entirely. I am now the happiest man that there is at least one true cure for skin diseases. Leonard A. Hawtof, 11 Nostrand Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y., July 30, and August 8, 1909."

Southwest Train Crews.
 "The train crews of the Southwest, from sheer necessity are made up of men able to take and appreciate a joke," says former Councilman L. C. Carran. "Otherwise the dreariness and monotony of their lives might kill them."
 "I was on a train in Arkansas recently when the brakeman came through the car and bawled out some sort of gibberish as we came to a stop.
 "'What place is this, please?' I asked the conductor.
 "'Place? — This ain't no place,' he said, and stood naturally, too, at that. 'This is just one of the habits of the engineer. Whenever he sees so many yards he stops just from force of habit.'"
 —Cleveland Leader.
