As an evidence of the prosperity of Iowa farmers and their reckless disregard of the germ-laden dollar bills, J. E. Johnston, of Albia sent a postoffice money order the other day to advance his subscription to the Fulton County News away into the year 1913. Thank you, Elmer.

A few years ago, Dr. McCarthy, an enterprising physician in visiting Mercersburg noticed that the town depended upon cisterns and old wells for their water supply. He obtained permission from the Council to put in a plant and give them wholesome mountain water. This plant was put in at an expense of $85,000. Last Friday he closed out the plant to Harry Bryon and H. H. Spangler, substantial business men of that town for $60,000.

J. C. Barton takes this means of contradicting the report, maliciously circulated, to the effect that he would not permit persons who drive to the Crystal Springs Campmeeting to tie their horses in the timberland he recently purchased from the Hanks' estate. The report is entirely false and Mr. Barton never intimated anything to that effect to anyone, although he would like to be treated fair and hopes patrons of the Campmeeting will not destroy his property.

Pennsylvania leads the Christian Endeavor hosts of the world in the number of members. General Secretary A. J. There are now 5,076 societies in the State as follows: Junior, 1,410; intermediate, 131; Young People's, 3,495.

THE VIRGINIAS TO BRING CROWDS.

Tri-State League of Odd Fellows Looks Over Arrangements For Reunion at Pen-Mar, August 4.

From the Waynesboro Daily Record of July 8th 1910.
A committee representing the Tri-state league of the I. O. O. F. came to Waynesboro, Thursday afternoon, met the local committee on the Odd Fellows reunion at Pen-Mar, August 4, found the arrangements and outlook altogether to its liking, definitely decided to abandon its own reunion and join with the local committee in making the Pen-Mar reunion the greatest gathering of Odd Fellows this section has ever witnessed.

The representatives of the Tri-state league were E. T. Licklider, Shepherdstown, W. Va., president, and A. T. Russler, Martinsburg, W. Va. They were very much pleased with the entertainment they received here and convinced that the outlook for the August 4 reunion is such as to make it advisable to omit their annual gathering this year.

Their league had made considerable progress in its preparations for its reunion. The date had been selected—August 2—and the place—Winchester, Va. Speakers had been engaged and the railroad arrangements were under way. Notwithstanding all these completed details, the league will cancel everything it has done toward its reunion and will even bring along with it to Pen-Mar the two speakers who had consented to deliver addresses at Winchester.

These speakers are: Dr. D. P. Kessler, Cowen, W. Va., grand master of West Virginia, and A. J. Wilkinson, Grafton, W. Va., grand secretary of the state. They will participate in the Pen-Mar reunion.

The Tri-state league is composed of forty subordinate lodges. It has been in existence six years and has held five reunions at Inwood or Island park, near Harpers Ferry. These reunions have been attended by 8000 to 10,000 people.

This year, however, inquiry developed the fact that probably not one-tenth of that number would be present, owing to the purpose of the great majority of the members to attend the Pen-Mar assemblage of Odd Fellows.

The local committee has engaged the Wayne band for the day. It will give a concert program at 1:30 in the afternoon in the large auditorium, preceding the literary program.

The speakers for the occasion will be: Grand Master E. E. Cranmer, Pittsburg; Grand Master J. S. Green, M. D., Baltimore, and Rev. B. H. Hart, D. D., Harpersburg, former grand master of this state.

Watson R. Davison, Esq., this place, may preside over the exercises.

After the formal program in the auditorium there will be competitive drills by a number of cantons (the uniformed rank) and drills by the Rebekahs, the women's auxiliary of the order.

All arrangements now look to a very large crowd and preparations are being made by railroads for carrying great numbers of people to Pen-Mar on that day.

Notice.
A middle-aged man—American—good moral character, kind-natured, sober and industrious, comfortably situated financially, would like to make the acquaintance of a good protestant lady 35 to 40 years of age, matrimonially inclined. She must be of good character, and a good house-keeper. To such a one is offered a home good enough to be appreciated by any lady. Early marriage, the object. No misrepresenting. Those interested should address:

The Care of Butter.
When the ice supply gives out, or you cannot get it, invert a large unglazed crock or jar over the butter plate and keep it in the dark until time for using. The vessel being porous will keep the butter solid especially if a little water is poured around it in the dish where you have it and a damp cloth is wrapped around the crock or jar.

FOR FALLING HAIR.

You Run No Risk When You Use This Remedy.

We promise you that, if your hair is falling out, and you have not let it go too far, you can repair the damage already done by using Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, with persistency and regularity, for a reasonable length of time. It is a scientific, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal preparation, that destroys microbes, stimulates good circulation around the hair roots, promotes hair nourishment, removes dandruff and restores hair health. It is as pleasant to use as pure water, and it is delicately perfumed. It is a real toilet necessity.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic with our promise that it will cost you nothing unless you are perfectly satisfied with its use. It comes in two sizes, prices, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Leslie W. Seylar, McConnellsburg.

Places To Hang Things.

Many a home is hard to keep neat and presentable, simply because there is no place to put a coat, hat, or pair of shoes, unless in a chair, on the floor or upon even hooks or nails along the kitchen walls. We have known plain farm houses to be built without a single closet or place of any kind in which the men, women, or children, could put a thing of wearing kind unless as described above.

There is no excuse for this. Ample and frequent closets should be made in every house worthy of the name. It is nice to have a roomy one handy to the kitchen door coming in from the barn way. Better still, perhaps, is a place reserved for the coarser things in a closet in the wood-house near the kitchen door.

Letter to D. L. Grissinger, McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: We make you and every property owner in McConnellsburg this offer:

Yours truly
F. W. DEVOE & Co.
