CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

The Sheets-Stage Line takes you to Mercersburg for 50 cents. Samuel Kelso, of Knobsville, was at the County Seat on Saturday.

R. S. Wilson, of Big Cove Tannery, was a visitor in our town on Friday of last week.

Isaac B. Layton, of Pleasant Ridge, was in on Monday and advanced his subscription to the News for another year.

Mrs. Charles Bishop and Miss Stella Seigle, of Covalt, spent last Thursday and Friday with Mrs. Mary A. Kelly and Mrs. J. G. Alexander, in this place.

Reuben R. Sipes and wife, of Lacking Creek township, were in town doing some shopping last Friday. Mr. Sipes has just finished burning another hmeckin.

Mr. J. H. Craig in writing from South Wayne, Wis., says they have had dry weather out there this season, and that their crops are below the average.

A Western man says he hasn't had a bath in ten years and doesn't notice that the omission has affected him. Perhaps not; it is always the surrounding country that suffers from a glue factory.

John W. Rinedollar and daughter Miss Mary, of Lemaster, Franklin county, spent the time from Saturday until Monday in the home of the former's brother David M. Rinedollar in this place.

Mrs. Lillie May Fisher nee Cattlett, and her children Rose and John—all of Berkley Springs, W. Va., has been spending the past week with Mrs. Fisher's sisters, Mrs. Lib Shives and Mrs. Abbie Little in this place.

An ordinary case of diarrhoea can, as a rule, be cured by a single dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This remedy has no superior for bowel complaints. For sale by all dealers.

Those who spent last Sunday at Jacob Sharpe's, were Rev. Drake and wife, of Mannorville; Joseph Evans, wife and little daughter Thelma May, of Altoona; Wm. Gunnells and wife and George Sipe, wife and son Glenn and daughter Vera.

A well known Des Moines woman after suffering miserably for two days from bowel complaint, was cured by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all dealers.

A Massachusetts town is offering a wedding feast of canned tongue to the first couple of the borough that gets married. There is a real funny comment in that fact somewhere, but we prefer that each reader should dig it out for himself. We are married ourselves and our wife knows who writes this column.

After having spent two weeks in the home of his mother, Mrs. M. B. Trout, in this place, Maurice Trout returned to Philadelphia last Saturday. While Maurice is a professional pharmacist, he intends entering Jefferson College in a few weeks to take a four-years' course in the study of medicine.

Mrs. E. L. Smith and her niece Miss Jane D. McKelway, of Ithaca, N. Y., are staying at the Washington House a few weeks. While Mrs. Smith and her niece have traveled extensively both in this country and abroad, they find it pleasant to spend a few weeks almost every year in McConnellsburg.

The Peoples Register says that Samuel Rotz, formerly of this county is successfully cultivating the old Samuel Baker farm in Guilford township, Franklin county, now owned by Harvey Small. Mr. Rotz has been on the sick list a part of this summer, but his two sons came to his rescue and with help at the right time secured the crops in great shape. Mr. Rotz says the precipitation of the recent rains were not as noticeable or as beneficial in his neighborhood as farther north and south of him, and that corn shows need of rain.

D. H. Fraker, of Fort Littleton, was a visitor to the County Seat on Saturday.

A. J. Landig and wife, of Fort Littleton, were at the City Hotel on Saturday.

Amy Clevenger, daughter of Wm. S. Clevenger and wife, spent the past week very pleasantly with friends at Back Run.

Frank Mort and wife have returned to their home at Waynesboro, after having visited their parents, J. S. Mort and Harry Wilson, respectively.

Bedford has a handle factory that turns out daily from 900 to 1,200 handles for picks, axes, etc. Most of the wood comes from Arkansas.

Mr. Russell H. Runyan, of the United States Census Department, Washington, D. C., is spending a ten days' vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Runyan in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson and little daughter Helen and Miss Elsie Dalbey, who have been the guests of Geo. W. Reisner and wife for several weeks, left for their home in Philadelphia on Monday.

Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, noted throughout the world as an evangelist, will soon take unto himself a wife. The bride is Miss Mabel Cornelia Moulton, who is also an evangelist, and the couple will work together. The ceremony is set for next Tuesday, at the home of the bride's mother, near Providence.

The many friends of A. G. Mellett, of Pittsburg, will regret to learn that he has been seriously ill for some time, suffering from an attack of kidney trouble. He had not been able to sit up in bed for over four weeks, and could take only a little broth for nourishment. At last accounts, he was improving slightly. His many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

An exchange gives an incident that illustrates the impossibility of telling where the trouble resulting from a mortgage will end. A man mortgaged his farm to buy his wife a pair of ear-rings. The wife took in washing to pay the interest on the mortgage, and the first day lost one of the diamonds in the suds, and tried to hang herself in the barn, but the rope broke and she fell on a $150 Jersey cow breaking its back.

J. K. Johnston's place looks like a freight station this week, with wagon loads of big boxes stacked around and goods being unpacked every day. Mr. Johnston returned from the eastern cities a few days ago where he personally inspected each piece of goods he purchased for his rapidly growing business, and will be able to offer greater attractions than ever before. The line of ladies' suits, jacket suits, men's suits—in all the latest and best styles, is better than ever before, and will well be worth an early inspection.

After having spent two weeks very pleasantly among relatives and friends in this county, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Mumma and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Mumma and their children Pearl and Al, left for their home in Cbrwensville last Saturday morning. James is employed with the Curwensville Water Company, and William is farming. They say the prolonged spell of dry weather interfered seriously with the summer crops in Clearfield county, as well as elsewhere.

The farmer who owns a farm is the particular person who is fixed. Banks may fail and factories close, workmen strike and mines suspend, merchants fail and town burn, times may be panicky and even crops may be short—but the farmer who owns his acres will get along. He will live in comfort and quiet, with plenty to eat, drink and wear. He is the most independent man on earth. Yet there are lots of them who do not appreciate their situation.

Staggers Skeptics. That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald, wound or piles, staggers skeptics. But great cures prove it's a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it. 25c at Trout's drug store.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD

The Greatest Newspaper of Its Type.
It Always Tells The News As It Is. Promptly and Fully.
Read in Every English-Speaking Country.

It has invariably been the great effort of the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World to publish the news impartially in order that it may be an accurate reporter of what has happened. It tells the truth, irrespective of party, and for that reason it has achieved a position with the public unique among papers of its class. If you want the news as it really is, subscribe to the Thrice-a-Week edition of the New York World, which comes to you every other day except Sunday, and is thus practically a daily at the price of a weekly.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and THE FULTON COUNTY NEWS together for one year for $1.75. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.00.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

J. NELSON SIPES, President. WILSON, L. NACE, Assistant Cashier.

The Farmer and His Banker

Our bank never fails to give as good service to the farmer as it gives to any business man. As a matter of fact few banks could exist in this day and age of the world without the co-operation of the farmers. Often a farmer can make money by borrowing. Do not hesitate to call on us when you want money. We welcome a responsible borrower quite as heartily as a substantial depositor. It will pay every farmer to carry a checking account with us. Why not come in and talk it over with us to-day? Accounts may be opened by mail and monies deposited or withdrawn in this way with equal facility. We make a specialty of serving the farmer.

We Pay 3 Per Cent. Interest.
