Letter to Wilson L. Nace,

McConnellsburg, Pa.

Dear Sir: North Dakota has a pure paint law, and is branding the paint manufacturers. Here's how one of 'em gets the hot iron. Almost half of his "oil" is benzine and water; more than half of his "pigment" is whiting, barytes, and such. Benzine and water dry out in a few minutes and hours; they don't do any harm. Those "pigments" don't dry out; and perhaps they don't do much harm.

Is that what paint is for: not to do much harm? Do you pay $5 a gallon for paint and putting it on, not to do much harm? The lead, zinc and oil in that "paint" is a little less than half and the trash is a little more than half.

How many gallons, half trash and half paint, will it take to paint a 10-gallon job two coats? how many coats, half trash and half paint, will it take to cover? and what'll become of those pigments not paint?

And reckon the costs; you can roughly. Half trash, 20 gallons, $5 a gallon, $100; 10 gallons Devco, $50. A gallon of trash or paint put on is $5.

There's one Devco; there are 8 pure paints; and over 200 adulterated and 100 short-measure.

Yours truly

F. W. DEVCO & Co.

P. S.—Hull & Bender, McConnellsburg; J. A. Boyd, Mercersburg, and Norman O. Huber, Chambersburg, sell our paint.

NEEDMORE.

Sept. 22.—Every body is busy seeding and cutting corn.

Mrs. John Lanehart has been seriously ill for several weeks.

Ireda Garland, who has been sick for some time, is no better.

T. W. Peck and wife accompanied Mrs. Peck's sisters, Mrs. Miller and Maggie Conner, to the home of their mother, in Bedford county, last Saturday.

Ellis Peck, who has been traveling for his health, spent a day recently with his mother.

Phil Schreiber will paint Dr. J. J. Palmer's barn.

The wall for our new school building was begun on Monday.

The Commissioners held a secret meeting Saturday, for the purpose of completing the unfinished monument, which they began a year ago. We hope the new bridge will not be less than 18 or 20 feet, so as to carry the large volume of water that overflows above the bridge.

Auction.

J. C. Sidors will sell at auction at Cito on Oct. 8th at 5 o'clock p. m., shoes, enameled ware, glass ware, lot of notions, and many other articles.

THOMPSON.

The farmers are all busy cutting corn and seeding. The corn crop is much better than was expected.

Miss Lillian Brewer, who had been visiting friends here for some time, left last Thursday for Lancaster, Pa.

Miss Lillian Pott, of Crestline, O., was the guest of Bess Simpson a short time last week. They visited the families of Mac and Willard Litton on Friday and Saturday.

Misses Laura and Mattie Winters have returned home from an extended visit with friends in Virginia and Ohio.

Mrs. Thomas Lewis after visiting her mother Mrs. Elizabeth Hess and other friends and relatives here and at Hancock has returned to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Brewer of Bushnell, Ill., is visiting her daughter Mrs. W. W. Douglass.

Moses Gordon and family have gone to house keeping in their new home the property recently owned by "Kelley" Strait.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Damascus will meet at 2:30 on next Sabbath. They are going to try to make this a "gala" year for the society.

On account of the pastor's absence at Conference this week there will be no preaching service at Damascus and Antioch.

A great many people from this vicinity contemplate attending the farmers show and picnic at Hancock on Saturday.

WHIPS COVE.

Dr. Fisher, of Needmore, and Dr. McKibbin, of Buck Valley, met in consultation last Monday, as the result of the serious illness of Leslie Hart, who has been unable to about and the most of the time confined to his bed, for many weeks past.

Our schools opened last Monday morning. We wish the teachers abundant success during the coming winter.

Some of the boys of the Cove pulled for Franklin county, where they will assist in taking care of the corn crop.

Billy Stetler had the road on the east side of Sideling Hill mountain blocked part of last week with his big engine, which was disabled, and to which was attached four wagons loaded with seven tons of phosphate for the Cove farmers. Some miscreant ripped nine of the bags open, wasting part of the phosphate.

Isiah Layton, Sr., threshed his buckwheat last Friday evening. Thinking of no one disturbing it, he left it set in the field over night. Next morning when he went to the field, he found that some scoundrel had emptied five bagfuls out on the ground. It is humiliating to admit that we have in our county people who possess such depraved natures as to lead them to do things like that. Persons of that kind should know that while they may escape justice here, there will come a time when they cannot escape the great Judge of Judges.

Rev. H. M. Spangler, of Altoona, and D. C. Mallot, of this place, spent most of last week selling Oliver typewriters in the vicinity of McConnellsburg. They report five sales.

Sherman Bernhardt, of Dott, was in the Cove Wednesday.

Emory A. Diehl and wife, and Frank Springer and wife, of Youngwood, and your scribe, spent Saturday evening in the home of D. C. Mallot.

Rev. Kaufman passed through the Cove Sunday evening, on his way to the Buck Valley Christian church.

Annie Plessinger is ill in the home of George Layton.

Our farmers have cut but little corn yet. Better hustle, or there will be some cold fingers before the nubbins are landed in the crib.

We have nothing special to say on the buckwheat crop, except one man got five bushels off of four acres.

Edwin Brant and Rei Sprowl have gone to Lemasters, Franklin county, where they have employment this week and part of next, cutting corn.

Wink and Mellott of Needmore, have drilled a well 37 feet deep for Casper Brant and one 72 feet deep for David Strait.

Wink and Shaw, of Hustontown, furnished the pumps for these wells.

Our farmers have begun cutting corn and buckwheat.

Saturday afternoon quite a heavy rain passed over Sandy Run and the Broadtop region.

Another heavy rain passed over this region on Sunday evening.

Anthony Reichley, of the Wells Valley Lumber Company, recently visited parts of Mifflin, Center and Lycoming counties. He reports the crops in the valleys of these counties the best for years.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Price and Mrs. Price's mother Mrs. Susan King, her sons Lloyd and Albert, and her daughters Margaret and Loella Price—all of Laidig, spent a few hours in town yesterday.
