

AFTER SUFFERING FOR YEARS

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Park Rapids, Minn.—"I was sick for years while passing through the Change of Life and was hardly able to be around. After taking six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I gained 20 pounds, am now able to do my own work and feel well."—Mrs. E. LA Dou, Park Rapids, Minn.

Brookville, Ohio.—"I was irregular and extremely nervous. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I have become regular and my nerves are much better."—Mrs. R. KINNONSON, Brookville, Ohio.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaint, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

TRY MURINE EYE REMEDY
For Red, Weak, Watery, Watery Eyes and GRANULATED EYELIDS
Murine Doesn't Smart—Soothes Eye Pain
Removes All Soreness, Itching, Swelling,
Stinging, Redness, and All Eye Troubles.
Murine Eye Salve, in Asseptic Tubes, 25c, $1.00
EYE BOOKS AND ADVICE FREE BY MAIL
Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago

HARD LUCK, INDEED.

"Yep, Bill fell inter a beer vat an' nearly drowned; but dat ain't de worst of it. De pumped him out when dey rescued him!"

NO HEALTHY SKIN LEFT

"My little son, a boy of five, broke out with an itching rash. Three doctors prescribed for him, but he kept getting worse until we could not dress him any more. They finally advised me to try a certain medical college, but its treatment did no good. At the time I was induced to try Cuticura he was so bad that I had to cut his hair off and put the Cuticura Ointment on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body that was not affected. He was one mass of sores. The bandages used to stick to his skin and in removing them it used to take the skin off with them, and the screams from the poor child were heart-breaking. I began to think that he would never get well, but after the second application of Cuticura Ointment I began to see signs of improvement, and with the third and fourth applications the sores commenced to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but it finally yielded to the treatment. Now I can say that he is entirely cured, and a stronger and healthier boy you never saw than he is to-day, twelve years or more since the cure was effected. Robert Wattam, 1148 Fort-eighth St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 9, 1909."

CONSERVES HER JAW POWER

Nebraska Man Has Device by Which Mother-in-Law's Maxillaries Run Machine.

New York.—"By a system of differential pulleys and strings I have devised a scheme to make my wife's jaws do useful work when she chews gum," says a man who avers he is J. Montgomery Gubbins, Omaha, Neb. "With this device attached to her jaws," he continued, "my wife runs her sewing machine and thoroughly enjoys herself while doing so. I invented this simple machine because my wife has rheumatism in both ankles and has a stiff wrist. With a similar machine I have set my mother-in-law to work running a churn. It takes more power to run a churn than it does a sewing machine. I came east to look over the field with the view of trying my invention on the New York public if I found gum chewing popular.

Puzzled by Wireless.

"Mistah Jenkins," asked an old negro of Atlanta of his employer, "would y' be so good, sah, as to explain to me 'bout this wireless telegraph business I hears 'em a-talking 'bout."

"Why, certainly, Henry," responded the employer, "though I can do so only in a general way, as I myself know little of the subject. The thing consists in sending messages through the air instead of over wires."

"Yassah," said Henry, "I knows 'bout dat; but, sah, what beats me is how dey fatten de air to de poles!"

No Friend of His.

"Is Mrs. Gossip a friend of yours?" "No; she's a friend of my wife's."

"Isn't that the same thing?" "Not at all. She feels very sorry for my wife."

TO DRIVE OUT NALARIA

Take the old standard DRUGS' EXTRACTS called QUINA. You know what you are taking. Quina is plainly driven out every body, because it is simply Quina and Iron in a water-free form. The Quina drives out the malaria and the iron builds up the system. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents. Price 50 cents.

Submarine's Toll of Lives.

In the last five years about fifty lives have been lost in France in submarine boat disasters.

For COLDS and GRIP
Hicks' CAPSICUM is the best remedy—relieves the aching and feverishness—cures the cold and restores normal conditions. It is liquid—effects immediately. 50c, 25c, and 10c. At drug stores.

The wise know better than to try to live on the spice of life alone.

CHIEF OF INDICTED BEEF BARONS

Three of the seven Chicago millionaire packers who are under heavy bonds on the charge of violating the federal anti-trust laws.

TALK ONE TIQUETTE SHE HAD 1,001 PROPOSALS

Beau Says United States More Polite Than France.

World's Most Famous Cotillion Leader Calls on Youth of His Nation to Recover Lost Science of Politeness.

Paris, France.—M. Fouquieres, who is called the world's most famous leader of cotillions and is also known as the "last true dandy of the Beau Brummel type," finds that the United States and England are now more polite than France, thus contradicting F. Hopkinson Smith, who has held up France as a model in matters of etiquette. The noted society leader has issued a stirring appeal to Parisians in which he describes the decline of courtesy, calls politeness a most useful quality and urges his fellow citizens to regain their reputation for good manners as they are recovering in aeronautics their reputation for heroism.

"Politeness is disappearing," declared M. Fouquieres. "It must be admitted that we are no longer the most courteous people in the world. The politeness which was formerly a national virtue, and the former gallantry which always characterized Frenchmen are today neglected, ridiculed and almost despised."

"Look at our young folk. They are formal, stiff, indifferent and disdainful; their movements are identical and bombastic like a funeral ballet, and they affect a phlegmatic ennui which it is vain to criticize, for it is the mode."

"Foreigners trusting to our reputation for courtesy are astonished to find themselves inspected insolently when they venture into public places. Women do not escape sly, gay looks and vulgar murmurings and whoever makes malicious jokes at their expense is applauded with the laugh of approbation. Lack of tact is considered witty. Our savants, aviators, and automobilists and sailors perform heroic deeds daily and their glory is undiminished. Only politeness is lost. "Yet there is no quality more useful in a democracy. It incites and wins indulgence. All ambitious persons ought to be polite, but foolish persons cannot be, for politeness is a science requiring an understanding of psychology. An opportune compliment can create a precious ally. "During centuries we ridiculed English manners. Now we think we are following the phlegmatic English fashion, but we are wrong, for in the meantime England has changed. The modern Englishman, although he has a true compassion for all not born on English soil, is always perfectly courteous. Even America is improving in this respect and only France is deteriorating."

CONSERVES HER JAW POWER

Nebraska Man Has Device by Which Mother-in-Law's Maxillaries Run Machine.

New York.—"By a system of differential pulleys and strings I have devised a scheme to make my wife's jaws do useful work when she chews gum," says a man who avers he is J. Montgomery Gubbins, Omaha, Neb. "With this device attached to her jaws," he continued, "my wife runs her sewing machine and thoroughly enjoys herself while doing so. I invented this simple machine because my wife has rheumatism in both ankles and has a stiff wrist. With a similar machine I have set my mother-in-law to work running a churn. It takes more power to run a churn than it does a sewing machine. I came east to look over the field with the view of trying my invention on the New York public if I found gum chewing popular.

Puzzled by Wireless.

"Mistah Jenkins," asked an old negro of Atlanta of his employer, "would y' be so good, sah, as to explain to me 'bout this wireless telegraph business I hears 'em a-talking 'bout."

"Why, certainly, Henry," responded the employer, "though I can do so only in a general way, as I myself know little of the subject. The thing consists in sending messages through the air instead of over wires."

"Yassah," said Henry, "I knows 'bout dat; but, sah, what beats me is how dey fatten de air to de poles!"

No Friend of His.

"Is Mrs. Gossip a friend of yours?" "No; she's a friend of my wife's."

"Isn't that the same thing?" "Not at all. She feels very sorry for my wife."

TO DRIVE OUT NALARIA

Take the old standard DRUGS' EXTRACTS called QUINA. You know what you are taking. Quina is plainly driven out every body, because it is simply Quina and Iron in a water-free form. The Quina drives out the malaria and the iron builds up the system. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents. Price 50 cents.

Submarine's Toll of Lives.

In the last five years about fifty lives have been lost in France in submarine boat disasters.

For COLDS and GRIP
Hicks' CAPSICUM is the best remedy—relieves the aching and feverishness—cures the cold and restores normal conditions. It is liquid—effects immediately. 50c, 25c, and 10c. At drug stores.

The wise know better than to try to live on the spice of life alone.

Paris, France.—M. Fouquieres, who is called the world's most famous leader of cotillions and is also known as the "last true dandy of the Beau Brummel type," finds that the United States and England are now more polite than France, thus contradicting F. Hopkinson Smith, who has held up France as a model in matters of etiquette. The noted society leader has issued a stirring appeal to Parisians in which he describes the decline of courtesy, calls politeness a most useful quality and urges his fellow citizens to regain their reputation for good manners as they are recovering in aeronautics their reputation for heroism.

"Politeness is disappearing," declared M. Fouquieres. "It must be admitted that we are no longer the most courteous people in the world. The politeness which was formerly a national virtue, and the former gallantry which always characterized Frenchmen are today neglected, ridiculed and almost despised."

"Look at our young folk. They are formal, stiff, indifferent and disdainful; their movements are identical and bombastic like a funeral ballet, and they affect a phlegmatic ennui which it is vain to criticize, for it is the mode."

"Foreigners trusting to our reputation for courtesy are astonished to find themselves inspected insolently when they venture into public places. Women do not escape sly, gay looks and vulgar murmurings and whoever makes malicious jokes at their expense is applauded with the laugh of approbation. Lack of tact is considered witty. Our savants, aviators, and automobilists and sailors perform heroic deeds daily and their glory is undiminished. Only politeness is lost. "Yet there is no quality more useful in a democracy. It incites and wins indulgence. All ambitious persons ought to be polite, but foolish persons cannot be, for politeness is a science requiring an understanding of psychology. An opportune compliment can create a precious ally. "During centuries we ridiculed English manners. Now we think we are following the phlegmatic English fashion, but we are wrong, for in the meantime England has changed. The modern Englishman, although he has a true compassion for all not born on English soil, is always perfectly courteous. Even America is improving in this respect and only France is deteriorating."

CONSERVES HER JAW POWER

Nebraska Man Has Device by Which Mother-in-Law's Maxillaries Run Machine.

New York.—"By a system of differential pulleys and strings I have devised a scheme to make my wife's jaws do useful work when she chews gum," says a man who avers he is J. Montgomery Gubbins, Omaha, Neb. "With this device attached to her jaws," he continued, "my wife runs her sewing machine and thoroughly enjoys herself while doing so. I invented this simple machine because my wife has rheumatism in both ankles and has a stiff wrist. With a similar machine I have set my mother-in-law to work running a churn. It takes more power to run a churn than it does a sewing machine. I came east to look over the field with the view of trying my invention on the New York public if I found gum chewing popular.

Puzzled by Wireless.

"Mistah Jenkins," asked an old negro of Atlanta of his employer, "would y' be so good, sah, as to explain to me 'bout this wireless telegraph business I hears 'em a-talking 'bout."

"Why, certainly, Henry," responded the employer, "though I can do so only in a general way, as I myself know little of the subject. The thing consists in sending messages through the air instead of over wires."

"Yassah," said Henry, "I knows 'bout dat; but, sah, what beats me is how dey fatten de air to de poles!"

No Friend of His.

"Is Mrs. Gossip a friend of yours?" "No; she's a friend of my wife's."

"Isn't that the same thing?" "Not at all. She feels very sorry for my wife."

TO DRIVE OUT NALARIA

Take the old standard DRUGS' EXTRACTS called QUINA. You know what you are taking. Quina is plainly driven out every body, because it is simply Quina and Iron in a water-free form. The Quina drives out the malaria and the iron builds up the system. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents. Price 50 cents.

Submarine's Toll of Lives.

In the last five years about fifty lives have been lost in France in submarine boat disasters.

For COLDS and GRIP
Hicks' CAPSICUM is the best remedy—relieves the aching and feverishness—cures the cold and restores normal conditions. It is liquid—effects immediately. 50c, 25c, and 10c. At drug stores.

The wise know better than to try to live on the spice of life alone.

Paris, France.—M. Fouquieres, who is called the world's most famous leader of cotillions and is also known as the "last true dandy of the Beau Brummel type," finds that the United States and England are now more polite than France, thus contradicting F. Hopkinson Smith, who has held up France as a model in matters of etiquette. The noted society leader has issued a stirring appeal to Parisians in which he describes the decline of courtesy, calls politeness a most useful quality and urges his fellow citizens to regain their reputation for good manners as they are recovering in aeronautics their reputation for heroism.

"Politeness is disappearing," declared M. Fouquieres. "It must be admitted that we are no longer the most courteous people in the world. The politeness which was formerly a national virtue, and the former gallantry which always characterized Frenchmen are today neglected, ridiculed and almost despised."

"Look at our young folk. They are formal, stiff, indifferent and disdainful; their movements are identical and bombastic like a funeral ballet, and they affect a phlegmatic ennui which it is vain to criticize, for it is the mode."

"Foreigners trusting to our reputation for courtesy are astonished to find themselves inspected insolently when they venture into public places. Women do not escape sly, gay looks and vulgar murmurings and whoever makes malicious jokes at their expense is applauded with the laugh of approbation. Lack of tact is considered witty. Our savants, aviators, and automobilists and sailors perform heroic deeds daily and their glory is undiminished. Only politeness is lost. "Yet there is no quality more useful in a democracy. It incites and wins indulgence. All ambitious persons ought to be polite, but foolish persons cannot be, for politeness is a science requiring an understanding of psychology. An opportune compliment can create a precious ally. "During centuries we ridiculed English manners. Now we think we are following the phlegmatic English fashion, but we are wrong, for in the meantime England has changed. The modern Englishman, although he has a true compassion for all not born on English soil, is always perfectly courteous. Even America is improving in this respect and only France is deteriorating."

CONSERVES HER JAW POWER

Nebraska Man Has Device by Which Mother-in-Law's Maxillaries Run Machine.

New York.—"By a system of differential pulleys and strings I have devised a scheme to make my wife's jaws do useful work when she chews gum," says a man who avers he is J. Montgomery Gubbins, Omaha, Neb. "With this device attached to her jaws," he continued, "my wife runs her sewing machine and thoroughly enjoys herself while doing so. I invented this simple machine because my wife has rheumatism in both ankles and has a stiff wrist. With a similar machine I have set my mother-in-law to work running a churn. It takes more power to run a churn than it does a sewing machine. I came east to look over the field with the view of trying my invention on the New York public if I found gum chewing popular.

Puzzled by Wireless.

"Mistah Jenkins," asked an old negro of Atlanta of his employer, "would y' be so good, sah, as to explain to me 'bout this wireless telegraph business I hears 'em a-talking 'bout."

"Why, certainly, Henry," responded the employer, "though I can do so only in a general way, as I myself know little of the subject. The thing consists in sending messages through the air instead of over wires."

"Yassah," said Henry, "I knows 'bout dat; but, sah, what beats me is how dey fatten de air to de poles!"

No Friend of His.

"Is Mrs. Gossip a friend of yours?" "No; she's a friend of my wife's."

"Isn't that the same thing?" "Not at all. She feels very sorry for my wife."

TO DRIVE OUT NALARIA

Take the old standard DRUGS' EXTRACTS called QUINA. You know what you are taking. Quina is plainly driven out every body, because it is simply Quina and Iron in a water-free form. The Quina drives out the malaria and the iron builds up the system. Sold by all druggists for 50 cents. Price 50 cents.

Submarine's Toll of Lives.

In the last five years about fifty lives have been lost in France in submarine boat disasters.

For COLDS and GRIP
Hicks' CAPSICUM is the best remedy—relieves the aching and feverishness—cures the cold and restores normal conditions. It is liquid—effects immediately. 50c, 25c, and 10c. At drug stores.

The wise know better than to try to live on the spice of life alone.

MEN AS DOMESTIC SERVANTS

Exceptional Opportunities Open to the Male Sex—Magazine Has Clever Satire on Subject.

There are today a few occupations a young man can take up without fear of a woman's taking the bread out of his mouth. These are, prize fighting, ladies' tailoring, and—do not sneer, young man—domestic service, says Paul West in the Delineator. Even prize fighting may be closed to men tomorrow if some strong-armed Vasar graduate should decide to capture the championship belt. Ladies' tailoring may entice them at any time. But, as time goes on, it becomes more and more evident that one field will never again have a woman occupant. Go into general housework, solve the servant problem, and save the American home.

There is no reason why young American men should not make ideal servant girls and yet preserve independence. The bookkeeper works from eight till six. His meager wages must pay board and lodging and clothe him. What a life. But the general housework girl in a small family—what does she have to do but cook a few meals, clean a few rooms after a fashion, and collect $30 a month? Not a penny for expenses, a nice room, plenty of clothes given her, and every Thursday and Sunday out. Young men, it is easy.

What preparation is needed? Nothing; anybody can learn to cook in a week. Capital? A trunk and a written reference from your last place, the latter readily obtained from the manager of any employment office.

And think of the happy lives you can make by your charming little culinary surprises. Then, when the family go away for the summer they take you with them, or—you have the whole flat to yourself, and everything free! Young men, it is a vision of happiness!

Who knows, too, but that your employer's daughter may fall in love with you, and marry you? Thus, when she goes into business for herself, making you happy and comfortable for life?

At all events, young men, domestic service is worth considering. It is an open field, and man can make his mark in it. Why not be a pioneer?

He Also Was a Dead One.
Governor Stuart, brown and elderly, returned recently from his inspection of the National Guard at Gettysburg. He is a commander in chief who faces warfare as a stern duty, but prefers to go to war in a Pullman, with his "peacock" staff safely ensconced in comfortable seats about him.

Duty is duty. That is the Stuart motto. So he did what the manual required of the commander—slept in camp, near the Casino, inspected the regiments, reviewed them, and was a real soldier in the mimic battles. One of the stories told at the Union League by the governor to his chums about the terrible conflict, is as follows:

"It occurred after the great onslaught on the Reds. Scores of 'abbeled' dead were on the ground. Officers were down under the rain of invisible bullets shot from noiseless and smokeless guns. The sun wept upon the scene of carnage. The wounded were carried to hospitals, past dying and dead companions. It was terrible.

"Standing in front of his tent a captain was seized by a sobbing father, who in great agony cried out: "Why didn't you tell me my son was killed?"

"How could I? I was killed myself."

Hardheaded.

Champion Jack Johnson, at Baron Winkin's supper in his honor in New York, said of the Reno fight:

"Jeffries is a gentleman and a square fighter, but he didn't land a whack that hurt. I'm pretty nearly unharmed, I guess. I'm like the bricklayer's helper.

"A bricklayer, you understand, once hired a new helper. This chap was renowned for his hard head. The bricklayer thought he would test him, so the first morning while the helper was filling his pipe at the bottom of the ladder the bricklayer up on the eighth floor flicked a bit of mortar down on his pate.

"The helper never noticed it at all. "The bricklayer took a brick and dropped that down. Bang! It landed square on the helper's skull.

"The helper took his pipe out of his mouth and scowled up at the bricklayer.

"Say," he growled, "be careful where yer droppin' that there mortar!"

Polite Mr. Heard.

Congressman John T. Heard of Missouri was one of the most polite and Chesterfieldian gentlemen ever known in the national house of representatives. On the day that the house passed a bill opening to settlement the Cherokee strip, Mr. Heard voted for the bill, and then was leaving the capitol when he met with Mrs. Heckmann, who had been diligently lobbying against the bill. She asked: "What was done with the Cherokee strip bill?"

"It has just passed the house, madam," said Mr. Heard, holding aloft his hat and bowing low. "It passed by a vote of 142 to 108.

"So there were 142 railroad thieves, were there?" Mrs. Heckmann hissed spitefully.

"And only 108 cattle thieves, by the official count," replied polite Mr. Heard, as he passed on.

A Hard Job.

The poet laureate was angry, for he felt that his poetic dignity had been insulted.

"I will resign!" he cried. "Here some one has given the queen an Angora cat and I must, perforce, write an ode to the animal."

"That ought to be easy," said his friend. "At least, it should be appropriate work for your muse."

As a Peace Preserver.

All at once the riotous mob began to scatter.

"What's the matter?" asked an innocent but nearsighted bystander. "Soldiers!"

A PERMANENT CURE.

No Sign of Kidney Trouble for Over a Year.

Mrs. C. J. Becker, 28 Chestnut St., Jamaica Plains, Boston, Mass., says: "I was a physical wreck. I could not have walked a block had my life depended upon it. The kidney secretions were in terrible condition and I bloated badly. I wished for death. Learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and as a last resort, I began their use. Gradually I improved until at last I was well. Over a year has now elapsed and not a sign of kidney trouble has appeared. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for saving my life."

Remember the name—Doan's. For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WISE BOY.

Teacher—Procrastination is the thief of time.

Scholar—Yes, but there are other watch lifters.

In a Hurry.

It was Anna's first visit at the seaside. She was only a little girl, and very enthusiastic over the long-looked-for opportunity to go into the water.

They came too late the previous day for a dip in the surf, so Anna was up early, and as she put on her bathing suit while the rest were at breakfast some one questioned her as to her haste.

"Well, you see," replied the thoughtful child, "I want to hurry and go in before so many people get in and get the water cold."

Not on Your Life.

An Irishman obtained a position in a skyscraper that was being built. He had to carry mortar up to the top floor. One day he went up and couldn't find his way down. The boss missed him and called up to him:

"Pat," said the boss, "why don't you come down?"

"I don't know the way," said Pat.

"Well, come down the way you went."

"Faith and I won't," said Pat, "for I came up head first."

SPOLIN'S DISTEMPER CURE will cure any possible case of DISTEMPER, PINK EYE, and the like among horses of all ages, and prevents all others in the same stable from having the disease. Also cures chicken cholera, and dog distemper. Any good druggist can supply you, or send to Mrs. 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Agents wanted. Free book. Spolin Medical Co., Spec. Contagious Diseases, Galien, Ind.

Thanks for the Relief.

Mrs. Naggit—I don't feel like myself tonight.

Mr. Naggit—Then we ought to have a very pleasant evening.—Stray Stories.

For HEADACHE—HICKS' CAPSICUM

Whether from Colds, Heat, Stomach or Nervous Troubles, Capsicum will relieve you. It's liquid—pleasant to take, acts immediately. Try it. 50c, 25c, and 10c cents at drug stores.

Deaths in Public Institutions.

Nearly one-fifth of the deaths in England occur in public institutions.

Mrs. Winslow's Perfect Syrup for Children teething, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, &c. a bottle.

Nothing enlarges the life like letting the heart go out to others.

The Famous Rayo Lamp
Once a Rayo user, always a Rayo user.

The Rayo Lamp is a high grade lamp, sold at a low price. There are lamps that cost more, but there is no better lamp made anywhere. Contrasted with other lamps, Rayo lamps are easily kept clean and burn steadily in any room in any weather. They are the only lamps that burn at a low temperature and give out a bright light. They are the only lamps that burn at a low temperature and give out a bright light. They are the only lamps that burn at a low temperature and give out a bright light.